Evans, Kanika Bell, Nsenga K. Burton, 2017-06-01 This book offers a unique interdisciplinary and thoughtful look at the challenges and potency of Black women's struggle for inner peace and mental stability. It brings together contributors from psychology, sociology, law, and medicine as well as the humanities to discuss issues ranging from stress, sexual assault, healing, self-care, and contemplative practice to health policy considerations and parenting. Merging theory and practice with personal narratives and public policy, the book develops a new framework for approaching Black women's wellness in order to provide tangible solutions. The collection reflects feminist praxis and defines womanist peace in terms that reject both superwoman stereotypes and victim caricatures. Also included for health professionals are concrete recommendations for understanding and treating Black women. This book speaks not only to Black women but also educates a broader audience of policymakers and therapists about the complex and multilayered realities that we must navigate and the protests we must mount on our journey to find inner peace and optimal health. Revisionary Interventions into the Americanist Canon Donald E. Pease, 1994-06-17 Throughout the era of the Cold War, a consensus reigned as to what constituted the great works of American literature. Yet, as scholars have increasingly shown, and as this volume unmistakably demonstrates, that consensus was built upon the repression of the voices and historical contexts of subordinated social groups as well as literary works themselves, works both outside and within the traditional canon. This book is an effort to recover those lost voices. Engaging New Historicist, neo-Marxist, poststructuralist, and other literary practices, this volume marks important shifts in the organizing principles and self-understanding of the field of American Studies. Originally published as a special issue of boundary 2, the essays gathered here discuss writers as diverse as Kate Chopin, Frederick Douglass, Emerson, Melville, W.D. Howells, Henry James, W.E.B. DuBois, and Mark Twain, plus the historical figure John Brown. Two major sections devoted to the theory of romance and to cultural historical analyses emphasize the political perspective of New Americanist literary and cultural study. Contributors: William E. Cain, Wai Chee Dimock, Howard Horwitz, Gregory S. Jay, Steven Mailloux, John McWilliams, Susan Mizruchi, Donald E. Pease, Ivy Schweitzer, Priscilla Wald, Michael Warner, Robert Weimann.

Reminiscences: My Land, My People Professor (retd.) S.S. DEO, 2025-09-05 The assimilation of the mutual relationship between nature, love, man, and God is called life, and as a result of the manifestation of such a relationship, the experience evolves. Although the gist of my book REMINISCENCES MY LAND MY PEOPLE is mentioned in detail in its appendix, I would like to state here that my experience itself, which I have presented as a philosophy of the struggle of the very odd, geographically difficult, mountainous conditions based upon the events, characters, and the remembrance, is just the reflection of my own people and the land, including my thoughts. The events described in the book whether the individuals society history position faith or the impact of any other matter are always true and significant
