Second Language Writing Instruction in Global Contexts Lisya Seloni, Sarah Henderson Lee, 2019-10-11 This book revisits second language L2 writing teacher education by exploring the complex layers of L2 writing instruction in non English dominant contexts i e English as a foreign language contexts It pushes the boundaries of teacher education by specifically examining the development of teacher literacy in writing in under represented L2 writing contexts and re envisions L2 writing teacher education that is contextually and culturally situated moving away from the uncritical embracement of Western based writing pedagogies It explores and expands on writing teacher education how language teachers come to understand their own writing practices and instruction and what their related experiences are in non English dominant contexts across the globe Chapter 4 is free to download as an open access publication under a CC BY NC ND licence You can access it here <https://zenodo.org/record/7096127>

No Place for Home Jay Ellis, 2013-11-05 This book was written to venture beyond interpretations of Cormac McCarthy's characters as simple antinomian and non psychological and of his landscapes as unrelated to the violent arcs of often orphaned and always emotionally isolated and socially detached characters As McCarthy usually eschews direct indications of psychology his landscapes allow us to infer much about their motivations The relationship of ambivalent nostalgia for domesticity to McCarthy's descriptions of space remains relatively unexamined at book length and through less theoretical application than close reading By including McCarthy's latest book this study offers the only complete study of all nine novels Within McCarthy studies this book extends and complicates a growing interest in space and domesticity in his work The author combines a high regard for McCarthy's stylistic prowess with a provocative reading of how his own psychological habits around gender issues and family relations power books that only appear to be stories of masculine heroics expressions of misogynistic fear or antinomian rejections of civilized life

Irish Catholic Writers and the Invention of the American South Bryan Giemza, 2013-07-08 In this comprehensive study Bryan Giemza retrieves a missing chapter of Irish Catholic heritage by canvassing the literature of American Irish writers from the U S South Beginning with the first Irish American novel published in Winchester Virginia in 1817 Giemza investigates nineteenth century writers contending with the turbulence of their time writers influenced by both American and Irish revolutions dramatists and propagandists of the Civil War and memoirists of the Lost Cause Some familiar names arise in an Irish context including Joel Chandler Harris and Kate O Flaherty Chopin Giemza then turns to the works of twentieth century writers such as Margaret Mitchell John Kennedy Toole and Pat Conroy For each author Giemza traces the impact of Catholicism on their ethnic identity and their work Giemza draws on many never before seen documents including the correspondence of Cormac McCarthy interviews with members of the Irish community in Flannery O Connor s native Savannah Georgia and Giemza s own correspondence with writers such as Valerie Sayers and Anne Rice This lively history prompts a new understanding of how the Catholic Irish in the South helped invent a regional myth an enduring literature and a national image      Books Are Made Out of Books Michael Lynn Crews,2024-10-08 A new edition of this groundbreaking exploration of Cormac McCarthy s literary archive which identifies over 150 writers and thinkers who influenced McCarthy now including analysis of McCarthy s final works      Bloodline of the Gods Nick Redfern,2015-08-17 Are significant numbers of humanity the product of an ancient and advanced alien civilization Have we across the millennia been periodically modified and refined as a species In short has our genetic make up been manipulated by otherworldly beings that view human civilization as one big lab experiment These are controversial and thought provoking questions They are also questions that demand answers answers that may very well be found by examining those people whose blood type is Rh negative The vast majority of humankind 85 to 90 percent is Rh positive which means a person s red blood cells contain an antigen directly connected to the Rhesus monkey This antigen is known as the Rh factor Each and every primate on the planet has this antigen except for one the remaining 10 to 15 percent of humans If the theory of evolution is valid that each and every one of us is descended from ancient primates shouldn t we all be Rh positive Yes we should But we re not The Negatives are unlike the rest of us They are different They are the unique individuals whose bloodline may have nothing less than extraterrestrial origins

Teaching L2 Composition Dana R. Ferris,John Hedgcock,2013-10-01 This popular comprehensive theory to practice text is designed to help teachers understand the task of writing L2 writers the different pedagogical models used in current composition teaching and reading writing connections Moving from general themes to specific pedagogical concerns it includes practice oriented chapters on the role of genre task construction course and lesson design writing assessment feedback error treatment and classroom language grammar vocabulary style instruction Although all topics are firmly grounded in relevant research a distinguishing feature of the text is the array of hands on practical examples materials and tasks that pre and in service teachers can use to develop the complex skills involved in teaching second language writing Each chapter includes Questions for Reflection Further Reading and Resources Reflection and Review and Application Activities An ideal text for L2 teacher preparation courses courses that include both L1 and L2 students and workshops for instructors of L2 writers in academic secondary and postsecondary settings the accessible synthesis of theory and research enables readers to see the relevance of the field s knowledge base to their own present or future classroom settings and student writers      Poets & Writers ,2006      Understanding World Religions David Whitten Smith,Elizabeth Geraldine Burr,2014-08-21 Understanding World Religions introduces students to major worldviews including Hindu Buddhist Muslim Jewish Christian Native American and Marxist through the lens of justice and peace The second edition has been updated and revised throughout After an introduction to key themes in studying world religion chapters help students explore major traditions today Each chapter takes a similar approach examining several dimensions of each tradition experiential and emotional social and institutional narrative or mythic doctrinal and philosophical practical and ritual and ethical and legal Chapters feature profiles of major peacemakers or groups to bring the traditions to life Profiles range from Gandhi and Martin Luther King to Thich Nhat Hanh and Dorothy Day Further chapters explore liberation theologies active nonviolence and just war theory The second edition features a broader framework than the first edition and includes new material on non religious ethical norms Islamophobia colonial evangelization religion in China and an updated examination of the Israel Palestine conflict Understanding World Religions remains a powerful introduction to major worldviews with an emphasis on practical connections to peace and justice

Symbolism 14 Rüdiger Ahrens,Klaus Stierstorfer,2014-12-12 Symbolic representation is a crucial subject for and a potent heuristic instrument of diaspora studies This special focus inquires into the forms and functions of symbols of diaspora both in aesthetic practice and in critical discourse analyzing and theorizing symbols from Shakespeare to Bollywood as well as in critical writings of theorists of diaspora What kinds of symbols and symbolic practices contributors ask are germane to the representation both emic and etic of diasporics and diasporas How are specific symbols and symbolic practices analyzed across the academic fields contributing to diaspora studies Which symbols and symbolic practices inform the academic study of diasporas sometimes unconsciously or without being remarked on To study these phenomena is to engage in a dialogue that aims at refining the theoretical and methodological vocabulary and practice of truly transdisciplinary diaspora studies while attending to the imperative of specificity that inheres in this emerging field The volume collects a range of analyses from social anthropology history and ethnography to literary and film studies all combining readings of individual symbolic practices with meta theoretical reflections

Gladstein,Dara Rossman Regaignon,2012-03-19 WRITING PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION AT SMALL LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGES presents an empirical study of the writing programs at one hundred small private liberal arts colleges Jill M Gladstein and Dara Rossman Regaignon provide detailed information about a type of writing program not often highlighted in the scholarly record and offer a model for such national multi institutional research

Vernacular Eloquence Peter Elbow,2012-01-13 Since the publication of his groundbreaking books Writing Without Teachers and Writing with Power Peter Elbow has revolutionized how people think about writing Now in Vernacular Eloquence he makes a vital new contribution to both practice and theory The core idea is simple we can enlist virtues from the language activity most people find easiest speaking for the language activity most people find hardest writing Speech with its spontaneity naturalness of expression and fluidity of thought has many overlooked linguistic and rhetorical merits Through several easy to employ techniques writers can marshal this wisdom of the tongue to produce stronger clearer more natural writing This simple idea it turns out has deep repercussions Our culture of literacy Elbow argues functions as though it were a plot against the spoken voice the human body vernacular language and those without privilege making it harder than necessary to write with comfort or power Giving speech a central role in writing overturns many empty preconceptions It causes readers to think critically about the relationship between speech writing and our notion of literacy Developing the political implications behind Elbow's previous books Vernacular Eloquence makes a compelling case that strengthening writing and democratizing it go hand in hand

Best of the Independent Journals in Rhetoric and Composition 2014 Steve Parks, Brian Bailie, 2016-03-01 THE BEST OF THE INDEPENDENT RHETORIC AND COMPOSITION JOURNALS 2014 represents the result of a nationwide conversation beginning with journal editors but expanding to teachers scholars and workers across the discipline of Rhetoric and Composition to select essays that showcase the innovative and transformative work now being published in the field's independent journals

Introducing Writing Across the Curriculum into China Dan Wu, 2012-09-19 Dr Wu Dan's Introducing Writing Across the Curriculum into China is an important and provocative research study that is broadly international in scope Of particular significance for education in China this book provides a historical analysis of writing instruction in China and an original application of activity theory used to analyze problems and possibilities for Writing Across the Curriculum WAC in higher education Through an examination of important aspects of WAC as it has developed in the United States Dr Wu Dan brings together various perspectives in support of developing and sustaining WAC programs in China and by analogy throughout the world Her work opens new avenues for research in writing and for the teaching of courses throughout the curriculum using a writing in the disciplines approach A major contribution to international WAC scholarship Introducing Writing Across the Curriculum into China will be invaluable to English faculty and to all readers interested in educational innovations in China

The Art of Return James Meyer, 2019-09-11 More than any other decade the sixties capture our collective cultural imagination And while many Americans can immediately imagine the sound of Martin Luther King Jr declaring I have a dream or envision hippies placing flowers in gun barrels the revolutionary sixties resonates around the world China's communist government inaugurated a new cultural era African nations won independence from colonial rule and students across Europe took to the streets calling for an end to capitalism imperialism and the Vietnam War In this innovative work James Meyer turns to art criticism theory memoir and fiction to examine the fascination with the long sixties and contemporary expressions of these cultural memories across the globe Meyer draws on a diverse range of cultural objects that reimagine this revolutionary era stretching from the 1950s to the 1970s including reenactments of civil rights antiwar and feminist marches paintings sculptures photographs novels and films Many of these works were created by artists and writers born during the long Sixties who were driven to understand a monumental era that they missed These cases show us that the past becomes significant only in relation to our present and our remembered history never perfectly replicates time past This Meyer argues is precisely what makes our contemporary attachment to the past so important it provides us a critical opportunity to examine our own relationship to history memory and nostalgia

Exploring the Future of Christian Monasticisms Greg Peters,2020-01-15 The institution of monasticism in the Christian Church is in general decline at least in so called first world nations Though there are many reasons for this monastic leaders are confronted by the reality of fewer communities monks and nuns nonetheless At the same time many younger Christians are rediscovering the rich heritage of the monastic tradition Though they themselves might not be called to join a traditional monastery they are eager to appropriate monastic practices in their own lives This had led to a movement known as the new monasticism or secular monasticism Despite lacking a unified vision and any central organization these new secular monastics are attempting in their own ways to carry on the tradition and practices of Christian monasticism As well there is a movement within historical Christian monasteries to pour new wine into old wineskins Traditional forms of monasticism are also generally flourishing in developing nations breathing new life into monasticism This volume looks at the current monastic landscape to assess where monasticism stands and to imagine ways in which it will grow in the future leading not only to a renewed Christian monasticism but to new monasticisms

Japan's Relations with Southeast Asia Peng Er Lam,2013 The Fukuda Doctrine has been the official blueprint to Japan s foreign policy towards Southeast Asia since 1977 This book examines the Fukuda Doctrine in the context of Japan Southeast Asia relations and discusses the possibility of a non realist approach in the imagining and conduct of international relations in East Asia The collapse of 54 years of Liberal Democratic Party rule and the advent of a new Democratic Party of Japan raises the question of whether the Fukuda Doctrine is still relevant as a framework to analyse Tokyo s policy and behaviour towards Southeast Asia Looking at its origins and norms amidst three decades of change the book argues that the Fukuda Doctrine is still relevant to Japan Southeast Asian relations and should be extended to relations between China and Japan if an East Asian Community is to be built The book goes on to discuss the Fukuda Doctrine in relation to the power shift in Asia including the revitalization of Japan s security role By providing a detailed understanding of a non western perspective of Japan s relationship with Southeast Asia this book is a useful contribution for students and scholars of Asian Studies Politics and International Relations

Gospel of the Living Dead Kim Paffenroth,2006 This volume connects American social and religious views with the classic American movie

genre of the zombie horror film This study proves that George Romero s films go beyond the surface experience of repulsion to probe deeper questions of human nature and purpose often giving a chilling and darkly humorous critique of modern secular America     Handbook on the International Political Economy of Gender Juanita Elias,Adrienne Roberts,2018-02-23 This Handbook brings together leading interdisciplinary scholarship on the gendered nature of the international political economy Spanning a wide range of theoretical traditions and empirical foci it explores the multifaceted ways in which gender relations constitute and are shaped by global politico economic processes It further interrogates the gendered ideologies and discourses that underpin everyday practices from the local to the global The chapters in this collection identify analyse critique and challenge gender based inequalities whilst also highlighting the intersectional nature of gendered oppressions in the contemporary world order
