New Moon At Batoche Reflections On The Urban Prairie:

Writing in Dust Jenny Kerber, 2011-03-17 Writing in Dust is the first sustained study of prairie Canadian literature from an ecocritical perspective Drawing on recent scholarship in environmental theory and criticism Jenny Kerber considers the ways in which prairie writers have negotiated processes of ecological and cultural change in the region from the early twentieth century to the present The book begins by proposing that current environmental problems in the prairie region can be understood by examining the longstanding tendency to describe its diverse terrain in dualistic terms either as an idyllic natural space or as an irredeemable wasteland It inquires into the sources of stories that naturalize ecological prosperity and hardship and investigates how such narratives have been deployed from the period of colonial settlement to the present It then considers the ways in which works by both canonical and more recent writers ranging from Robert Stead W O Mitchell and Margaret Laurence to Tim Lilburn Louise Halfe and Thomas King consistently challenge these dualistic landscape myths proposing alternatives for the development of more ecologically just and sustainable relationships among people and between humans and their physical environments Writing in Dust asserts that reading environmentally can help us to better understand a host of issues facing prairie inhabitants today including the environmental impacts of industrial agriculture resource extraction climate change shifting urban rural demographics the significance of Indigenous understandings of human nature relationships and the complex often contradictory meanings of eco cultural metaphors of alien invasiveness hybridity and wildness

The Prairie West as Promised Land R. Douglas Francis, Chris Kitzen, 2007 Millions of immigrants were attracted to the Canadian West by promotional literature from the government in the late 19th century to the First World War bringing with them visions of opportunity to create a Utopian society or a chance to take control of their own destinies

We Are All Treaty People Roger Epp, 2008-12-18 In his collection of Prairie essays Roger Epp considers what it means to dwell attentively and responsibly in the rural West We Are All Treaty People invites those who feel the pull of a prairie heritage to rediscover the poetry surging through the landscapes of the rural West among its people and their political economy

Tar Wars Geo Takach, 2017-02-27 Tar Wars offers a critical inside look at how leading image makers negotiate escalating tensions between continuous economic growth mandated by a globalized economic system and its unsustainable environmental costs As place branding assumes paramount importance in an increasingly global visual and ecologically conscious society an international battle unfolds over Alberta's bituminous sands This battle pits independent documentary filmmakers against professional communicators employed by government and the oil industry Tar Wars engages scholars and students in communications film environmental studies social psychology PR media and cultural studies and petrocultures This book also speaks to decision makers activists and citizens exploring intersections of energy environment culture politics economy media and power

Perspectives of Saskatchewan Jene M. Porter, 2008-11-01 At the turn of the nineteenth century Saskatchewan was one of the fastest growing provinces in the country In the early 1900s it revolutionized the Canadian political landscape and gave rise to socialist governments that continue to influence Canadian politics today It was the birthplace of Canada's publicly funded health care system and home to a thriving arts and literary community that helped define western Canadian culture In Perspectives of Saskatchewan twenty one noted scholars present an in depth look at some of the major developments in the province's history including subjects such as art literature demographics politics northern development and religion It lays the foundations for a greater understanding of Saskatchewan's unique history identity and place in Canada

Second Promised Land Harry H. Hiller, 2009-05-01 Combining statistical analysis and ethnographic study Harry Hiller uncovers two waves of immigration to Alberta His innovative approach begins with the individual migrant and analyzes the relocation experience from origin to destination Through interviews with hundreds of migrants Hiller shows that migration is complex and dynamic shaped not just by what Alberta offers but also prompted by a process that begins in the region of origin which makes migration possible and helps determine whether migrants stay or return home By combining a social psychological approach with structural factors such as Alberta's transition from a regional hinterland province to its emerging role in the global system discussions of gender the internet and folk culture Second Promised Land provides a multi dimensional and deeply human account of a contemporary Canadian phenomenon

Challenging Frontiers Lorry W. Felske, Beverly Jean Rasporich, 2004 Challenging Frontiers The Canadian West is a multidisciplinary study using critical essays as well as creative writing to explore the conceptions of the West both past and present Considering topics such as ranching immigration art and architecture as well as globalization and the spread of technology these articles inform the reader of the historical frontier and its mythology while also challenging and reassessing conventional analysis

Essential Readings in Canadian Constitutional Politics Peter H. Russell, Christian Leuprecht, 2011-01-01 Essential Readings in Canadian Constitutional Politics introduces students scholars and practitioners to classic authors and writings on the principles of the Canadian Constitution as well as to select contemporary material To complement rather than duplicate the state of the field it deals with the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and with Canadian mega constitutional politics in passing only focusing instead on institutions federalism intergovernmental relations bilingualism and binationalism the judiciary minority rights and constitutional renewal Many of the selections reverberate well beyond Canada's borders making this volume an unrivalled resource for anyone interested in constitutional governance and democratic politics in diverse societies

Regina's Secret Spaces University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2006 Regina's Secret Spaces Love and Lore of Local Geography is an anthology of essays and poems by eighty writers artists architects musicians patrons of the arts and cultural theorists who were inspired by and answered the call of editors Lorne Beug Anne Campbell and Jeannie Mah to share their favourite Regina secret Some submissions were quirky and whimsical delighting in those things small yet significant which bring joy and connect us to the place we live others were more serious and more theoretical examining power structures both past and present and how these have shaped and are yet shaping the city Reflective engaging and insightful all express an abiding fondness for the city of Regina

Visual Environmental Communication Anders Hansen, David Machin, 2016-03-17 In 2008 the editors published a well cited journal paper arguing that while scholarly work on media representations of environmental issues had made substantial progress in textual analysis there had been much less work on visual representations This is surprising given the increasingly visual nature of media and communication and in light of emerging evidence that the environment is visualized through the use of increasingly symbolic and iconic images Addressing these matters this volume marks out the present state of the field and contains chapters that represent fresh and exciting high quality scholarly work now emerging on visual environmental communication These include a range of fascinating and often alarming topics which draw on a variety of methods and forms of visual communication The book demonstrates that research needs to think much more widely about what we mean by the visual which plays a massive yet under researched role in the politics and ideology of public understanding and misunderstanding of and the environment and environmental problems The book is of relevance to students and researchers in media and communication studies cultural studies film and visual studies geography sociology politics and other disciplines with an interest in the politics of visual environmental communication This book was published as a special issue of Environmental Communication A Journal of Nature and Culture Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975

Lilac Moon Sharon Butala, 2005-03-14 WHAT DOES IT MEAN to be a Westerner What is the Western experience and by extension what makes up the Western soul In Lilac Moon Sharon Butala inspires delights and challenges us to think about the West in fresh ways Beginning with a day in the life of the real West she transports us to her Saskatchewan ranch where a soft lilac moon lights the vast rolling landscape Then in a series of wide ranging chapters that ponder the question What makes a Westerner she considers the myths the history the peoples of the three prairie provinces From the pioneer past to Western stereotypes from racial and ethnic inequalities to party politics from rural myths to urban realities Lilac Moon effortlessly interweaves strands of history family politics and culture Butala's intense personal connection her blended English French roots run five generations deep in the Western landscape and her elegant style combine to create a book rich in insight and an abiding love for the vast region she knows so well Published on the centennial anniversary of the entry of Alberta and Saskatchewan into Confederation this is a book not just for Westerners but for all Canadians who want to know and understand one of the seminal dreams of our nation Quill & Quire, 2000

Journal of Ukrainian Studies, 2002 Western Visions, Western Futures Roger Gibbins, Loleen Berdahl, 2003-06 Western Visions Western Futures explores the interplay between western alienation and western aspirations Because of regional optimism western Canadians often feel alienated from the rest of Canada or more specifically from the federal government western Canadians are concerned that their aspirations are not shared by the rest of Canada and worse that conflicting national policy choices and political realities have and will work to undermine the interests of the West The book is rich in both data and history Combining strong analysis with graphs and illustrative quotations it presents a comprehensive overview of key western Canadian trends and policy issues and places these within a national context Western Visions Western Futures outlines a number of process and policy options for federal and provincial governments both to help fulfill western aspirations and to address western alienation The authors argue that the future prosperity and well being of Canada are integrally tied to the future of the West and leaving western alienation unaddressed for another 50 or 100 years will only serve to weaken or destroy the whole country Western Visions Western Futures is a revised updated and expanded edition of Western Visions by Roger Gibbins and Sonia Arrison Broadview Press 1995 there is little in common between the two books Many of the themes are the same but the new book draws heavily on a wealth of Canada West Foundation data that has recently come available My Mother is an Alien George Melnyk,2004 How do we connect to film on a personal level Written by critically acclaimed Alberta author George Melnyk My Mother is an Alien brings autobiographical responses to film daringly exposing the author s personal insights beliefs and sensitivities Ten essays explore Canadian and international film Essays delve into such films as Leolo Last Night Clearcut and as the title implies Alien LLT ,2002 CURRENT CONTENTS January 7, 2002 Volume 24 Number 1 ,2002 Canada et les cultures de la mondialisation Alfredo Rizzardi,Giovanni Dotoli,Associazione italiana di studi canadesi,2001 American Book Publishing Record R.R. Bowker Company,1978
