New Perspectives in Early Greek Art Diana Buitron-Oler, 1998-09-01 Annual Report National Gallery of Art (U.S.), 1992 New Perspectives on the History of Western Dress Mary Ellen Roach, Kathleen Ehle Musa, Anne Hollander, 1980 New Perspectives On Russian And Soviet Artistic Culture John O. Norman, 1994-01-07 Athenian Identity and Civic Ideology Alan Lindley Boegehold, Adele C. Scafuro, 1994 In Athenian Identity and Civic Ideology Alan Boegehold and Adele Scafuro bring together a distinguished group of scholars who explore the nature and meaning of Athenian citizenship Departing from the narrow perspective of constitutional historians and also embracing sociological concerns the editors range of topics attests to a broad vision of the concepts of citizenship and civic ideology in a society in which the boundary between public and private sacred and secular is not always clear Among the contributors Philip Brook Manville and W Robert Connor offer fresh critiques of the study of citizenship while Frank J Frost examines pre Cleisthenic notions of citizenship Alan Boegehold looks at social and economic motivations for the passage of Perikles s citizenship law of 451 0 B C Focusing on the fifth and fourth centuries Ian Morris discusses changes in the visual manifestation of civic ideology in funeral monuments while Josiah Ober offers an interpretation of Thucydides s history as a discourse that actively resists hegemonic public discourse Robert W Wallace examines what might be perceived as contradictions within civic ideology namely alleged infringements of intellectual freedom In the final essays with their focus on the fourth and third centuries Adele Scafuro discusses the process of citizen identification in Athenian society Cynthia Patterson examines the position of women in the maintenance of civic ideology and David Konstan considers the relationship between sexual attitudes and civic status New Perspectives on the Ancient World Pedro Paulo A. Funari, Renata Senna Garraffoni, Bethany Lynn Letalien, 2008 A collection of essays which grapple with the idea of what ancient history is and in particular how the discipline can advance in a world that is no longer as tied to the exclusively literary methods of study epitomised by Classics New-England Journal of Education , 1913 Directory of Published Proceedings , 1992 Dress in Mediterranean Antiquity Alicia J. Batten, Kelly Olson, 2021-03-25 Insights from anthropology religious studies biblical studies sociology classics and Jewish studies are here combined to provide a cutting edge guide to dress and religion in the Greco Roman World and the Mediterranean basin Clothing jewellery cosmetics and hairstyles are among the many aspects examined to show the variety of functions of dress in communication and in both establishing and defending identity The volume begins by reviewing how scholars in the fields of classics anthropology religious studies and sociology examine dress The second section then looks at materials including depictions of clothing in sculpture and in Egyptian mummy portraits The third and largest part of the book then examines dress in specific contexts beginning with Greece and Rome and going on to Jewish and Christian dress with a specific focus on the intersection between dress clothing and religion By combining essays from over twenty scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds the book provides a unique overview of different approaches to and contexts of dress in one volume leading to a greater understanding of dress both within ancient societies and in the contemporary world Princeton Alumni Weekly ,1951 The Making of the West, Combined Volume

Lynn Hunt,2012-01-04 Students of Western civilization need more than facts They need to understand the cross cultural global exchanges that shaped Western history to be able to draw connections between the social cultural political economic and intellectual happenings in a given era and to see the West not as a fixed region but a living evolving construct These needs have long been central to The Making of the West The book s chronological narrative emphasizes the wide variety of peoples and cultures that created Western civilization and places them together in a common context enabling students to witness the unfolding of Western history understand change over time and recognize fundamental relationships Read the preface Bicentennial Times ,1975 Primates in History, Myth, Art, and Science Cecilia Veracini,Bernard

Wood,2024-05-15 Non human primates hereafter just primates play a special role in human societies especially in regions where modern humans and primates co exist Primates feature in myths and legends and in traditional indigenous knowledge Explorers observed them in the wild and brought them at great cost to Europe There they were valued as pets and for display their images featured in art and architecture and where they were literally teased apart by scientists The international team of contributors to this book draws these different perspectives together to show how primates helped humans better understand their own place in nature The book will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students as well scholars in disciplines ranging from anthropology to art history Key features Includes contributions from an international team of historians and natural scientists Integrates various perspectives and perceptions of non human primates across time and place Summarizes the place of non human primates in science art and culture Includes rare early illustrations Resources in Education ,1995-10 Dictionary of Canadian Biography / Dictionnaire Biographique Du Canada Frances G.

Halpenny,Jean Hamelin,1990-05 These biographies of Canadians are arranged chronologically by date of death Entries in each volume are listed alphabetically with bibliographies of source material and an index to names The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher,1881 Visualizing the Afterlife in the Tombs of Graeco-Roman Egypt Marjorie Susan

Venit,2015-11-24 Lost in Egypt s honeycombed hills distanced by its western desert or rendered inaccessible by subsequent urban occupation the monumental decorated tombs of the Graeco Roman period have received little scholarly attention This volume serves to redress this deficiency It explores the narrative pictorial programs of a group of decorated tombs from Ptolemaic and Roman period Egypt c 300 BCE 250 CE Its aim is to recognize the tombs commonalities and differences across ethnic divides and to determine the rationale that lies behind these connections and dissonances This book sets the tomb programs within their social political and religious context and analyzes the manner in which the multicultural population of Graeco Roman Egypt chose to negotiate death and the afterlife Ambiguous Locks Roberta Milliken,2014-01-10 It has long been said that a woman s hair is her crowning glory Indeed throughout history hair has remained an important cultural symbol of femininity In medieval art iconic images of long flowing locks can express sexuality and the cutting of a woman s hair often signals her feminine misbehavior Artists of all kinds in the Middle Ages used women s long hair to manipulate their audience s estimation of their female figures This interdisciplinary work explores the significance of women s hair in literature and art from the medieval period through 1525 putting into historical context the ways in which hair participates in construction of the female identity Book Reviews ,1900 Great Events in Religion Florin Curta,Andrew

Holt,2016-11-28 This three volume set presents fundamental information about the most important events in world religious history as well as substantive discussions of their significance and impact This work offers readers a broad and thorough look at the greatest events in world religious history covering a wide range of religions time periods and areas around the globe The entries present authoritative information and informed viewpoints written by expert contributors that enable readers to easily learn about the chief events in religious history help them to better understand the course of world history and promote a greater respect for culturally diverse religious traditions The first of the three volumes covers religion from the preliterate world through around AD 600 the second the post classical era from 600 to 1450 and the third the modern era from 1450 to the present Each volume begins with a substantive introduction that discusses the history of world religions during the period covered by the volume The chronologically ordered entries overview each event place it in historical context and identify the reasons for its enduring significance
