Be it proclaimed that on this 29th day of June, in the year two thousand and eleven, the unique union between the New Orleans Ernest N. Morial Convention Center and Centerplate was formalized by the hereunder signed, representing the tireless efforts of the many people who lent their expertise towards this day, all of whom are solely committed to the highest level of service, the results of which will be success beyond previously imagined. This, all to the good order of improving the economies of New Orleans and the State of Louisiana and thereby enriching the lives of all that work in the hospitality industry.

New Proclamation:

The Proclamations of the Tudor Kings R. W. Heinze, 1976-09-02 Royal proclamations were an important instrument of Tudor government and their legislative function has long been a subject of historical controversy but the actual use of them by the Tudor monarchs has not been adequately studied The main purpose of this book is to provide a systematic analysis of the use authority and enforcement of proclamations in early Tudor England Professor Heinze first attempts to establish a more accurate account of the proclamations issued and then describes their formulation and promulgation He also investigates the authority of proclamations as defined by Parliament and the role and power attributed to them by Tudor judges and legal writers The main body of the study traces the actual use of proclamations and their relationship to statutory and common law Separate chapters are devoted to the controversial Statute of Proclamations and the long neglected subject of enforcement
