New Studies In Bonhoeffer's Ethics:

New Studies in Bonhoeffer's Ethics William Jay Peck, Clifford J. Green, 1987 This study seeks to address the paradox that scholars have neglected the very work that Bonhoeffer hoped would be his crowning achievement his study of Christian ethics Concluding that the reason for this omission was not simple neglect but the uncertain state of the text contributing authors offer insights and solutions for the textual problems posed by Bonhoeffer's Ethics Christ, Church, and World Michael G. Mawson, 2016 "In the Face of Barbarism" Dallas Gingles, Jennifer McBride, Michael DeJonge, Michael Mawson, Philip G. Ziegler, 2025-11-13 Demonstrates and interrogates Bonhoeffer's focus on and contribution to the ethics of everyday life The Virtue of Bonhoeffer's Ethics Jennifer Moberly, 2013-06-19 Does Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Ethics have any affinities with what we have now come to call virtue ethics If so what is the relationship between those affinities and the more widely recognized influence of Karl Barth Moberly seeks to answer these questions through close analysis of the Ethics and engagement with other interpreters of Bonhoeffer while discussing the nature of virtue ethics in a Christian context The answers may be surprising but they are certainly rewarding for anyone wanting to better understand Bonhoeffer and to see how his work could be helpful for current ethical debates Peace and Violence in the Ethics of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Trey Palmisano, 2016-01-01 Not many theologians have had as great an impact on the study of peace and violence as Dietrich Bonhoeffer who was labeled an Enemy of the State and eventually executed in April 1945 In this book Trey Palmisano examines the theological connection between peace and violence across a range of Bonhoeffer's writings sermons and letters Despite the challenges Bonhoeffer experienced in his personal life and in the life of his country Palmisano asserts that a strong consistency emerges in Bonhoeffer's approach to ethics that resonates in the positing of Christ as the center of all ethical discourse and orients one to the ever present challenges of a changing world Palmisano creates distance from former studies that sought to define Bonhoeffer as a committed pacifist a situational pacifist or one who compromised his values to accommodate an exception for violence By prioritizing methodology as the key to interpreting Bonhoeffer's thought Palmisano argues that the ethical dilemma thought to be caused by Bonhoeffer's actions is avoided The result is one that creates an authentic ethical openness by responsiveness to Christ rather than Christian virtue and frees the individual from redundancies of action derived from deeply embedded patterns of theological engagement Bonhoeffer and the Responsibility for a Coming Generation Robert Vosloo, Teddy Sakupapa, Karola Radler, Ashwin Thyssen, 2024-07-25 This volume draws together a selection of high quality presentations at the 13th International Bonhoeffer Congress held in January 2020 in Stellenbosch South Africa The theme of the conference was How a coming generation is to go on living Bonhoeffer and the response to our present crisis and hope The selected essays engage thoroughly and creatively with this concern to take responsibility not only for our own personal and communal life in all of its complexity and richness but also for the ethos and society that future generations will inherit from us The pertinence of Bonhoeffer's question is addressed in these contributions anew as we experience threats on a global level to socio political economic and inter religious stability and solidarity Attention is also given to some important challenges experienced in the so called global South and the reality of climate change and ecological devastation implies that the question of how future generations are going to go on living is linked to the fact that we live on a planet that is in jeopardy Also included as an appendix is the powerful sermon preached by the South African Anglican archbishop of Cape Town Thabo Makgoba at the opening worship service of the congress

Ethics in Crisis, Ethics in Hope: Bonhoeffer's Unfinished Theological Ethics and the Future of Human Dignity Matthew Puffer, 2025-01-23 This incisive volume offers fresh historical and constructive engagements with the ever fascinating and perplexing theological ethics of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Matthew Puffer examines the historical crises out of which Bonhoeffer composed the manuscripts that would become his posthumously published magnum opus Ethics He explores the ways in which Bonhoeffer understood his work as a response not only to the ecclesial social and political crises of Nazi Germany but more specifically to a crisis in ethics the failure of traditional forms of ethics to effectively respond to the state of emergency Bonhoeffer famously wrestles with novel proposals for how Christians should think about responsibility complicity culpability and guilt in ways that have left not only casual readers but also philosophers and Bonhoeffer scholars scratching their heads In these chapters Matthew Puffer argues for a critical reconsideration of the ethics supposed to have informed Bonhoeffer's participation in German resistance but also for an extension of Bonhoeffer's thought to the global ecological and intergenerational crises of ethics that we face today An ethics of hope proves to be an essential and ineliminable feature of Bonhoeffer's thought evident in his insistence that ethics is fundamentally about how coming generations will live In Bonhoeffer we find fresh inspiration for contemporary debates regarding the meaning and political implications of human dignity integrating the wellbeing of not yet existing future generations into the moral calculus regarding what it means to treat present day persons with dignity

Dietrich Bonhoeffer and a Theology of the Exception Kevin O'Farrell, 2023-11-30 Engaging with the many debates about the meaning and character of Bonhoeffer's late resistance theology and action particularly as it relates to his participation in the attempted coup d'état against Hitler this book attends to Bonhoeffer's understanding of the exception Resisting the common reduction of the exception to a political or ethical concept O'Farrell argues that the exception for Bonhoeffer is an extraordinary moment in history that disarms persons impinging on one's understanding of politics and ethics Through a wide engagement with the Bonhoeffer corpus this book claims that this leads to distinctive narrations of key concepts in Bonhoeffer's corpus responsibility the free venture simple obedience and action beyond the law It also offers a different portrait of Bonhoeffer to contemporary narrations The Bonhoeffer that emerges is neither a Niebuhrian realist a pacifist or a religious fanatic but one who is impelled to act apart from the law without this action becoming arbitrary This Bonhoeffer provides a hopeful political witness that seeks a world beyond the conflicts and divisions of this age

Bonhoeffer's Christocentric Theology and Fundamental Debates in Environmental Ethics Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2017-05-04 There is widespread understanding of the close connection between religion and the ecological crisis and that in order to amend this crisis theological resources are needed This monograph seeks to contribute to this endeavor by engaging the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer His theology is particularly suitable in this context due to its open ended nature and to the prophetic and radical nature of the questions he was prepared to ask that is why there are many other attempts to contextualize Bonhoeffer's theology in areas that he himself has not directly written about In this monograph Steven van den Heuvel first of all addresses the question of how to translate Bonhoeffer's theology in a methodologically sound way He settles on a modified form of the general method of correlation Then secondly van den Heuvel sets out to describe five major concepts in Bonhoeffer's work bringing these into critical interplay with discussions in environmental ethics and eco theology In making the correlations he thoroughly describes each concept situating it in the historic and intellectual background of Bonhoeffer's time He then transposes these concepts to contemporary environmental ethics describing what contribution Bonhoeffer's theology can make Standing under the Cross Michael Mawson, 2023-09-07 Standing Under the Cross focuses on Bonhoeffer's rich theological and ethical thinking It places Bonhoeffer in conversation with a wide range of modern theologians including Karl Barth Franz Rosenzweig Jürgen Moltmann and James Cone The book gives particular attention to hermeneutics the body and Bonhoeffer's rich reflections on community and discipleship Mawson attends to the complex ways in which these aspects of Bonhoeffer's thinking work together and shows how they can assist us in responding to some of the challenges confronting us today Bonhoeffer's Ethics Guy Christopher Carter, 1991 Peeters 1991 Ethical Lessons from Dietrich Bonhoeffer Kristopher Norris, 2026-03-19 This nuanced book gives a Bonhoefferian account of contemporary moral issues with a fresh method style and perspective Norris addresses the most pressing ethical issues today such as racism and politics along with everyday ethical topics like friendship and truth-telling he does so through the lens of a particular theological interpretation of Bonhoeffer's work This considered book makes an argument for Bonhoeffer as a forerunner of what are now considered liberation and postliberal theologies while providing analyses of contemporary ethical issues that emerge out of the use of this interpretative lens upon his work Norris highlights how Bonhoeffer holds these positions together and reveals the nuanced ethical conclusions and practices one might reach from that perspective Ultimately this work argues that the life of discipleship for Bonhoeffer is a way of formation into a community of responsibility to and for others as a means of resistance to systems that suppress human liberation especially for the marginalized This book intervenes into academic conversations but it also provides resources for practitioners and clergy The Oxford Handbook of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Michael Mawson, Philip G. Ziegler, 2019 This Handbook offers an overview of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's 1906-1945 biography and intellectual context his contributions to all areas of doctrinal theology ethics and public life the significance of his thought for some contemporary issues and debates and an evaluation of some existing resources for studying Bonhoeffer The Cambridge Companion to Dietrich Bonhoeffer John W. de Gruchy, 1999-05-13 This Companion serves as a guide for readers wanting to explore the thought and legacy of the great German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906-45. The book shows why Bonhoeffer remains such an attractive figure to so many people of diverse backgrounds. Its chapters, written by authors from differing national, theological, and church contexts, provide a helpful introduction to and commentary on Bonhoeffer's life, work, and writing, and so guide the reader along the complex paths of his thought. Experts set out comprehensively Bonhoeffer's political, social, and cultural contexts and offer biographical information which is indispensable for the understanding of his theology. Major themes arising from the theology and different interpretations lead the reader into a dialogue with this most influential of thinkers who remains both fascinating and challenging. There is a chronology, a glossary, and an index.

Bonhoeffer Clifford J. Green, 1999 The classic study of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's social thought, now expanded with never before published Bonhoeffer letters. Widely acclaimed as the best study of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's early social theology, Clifford Green's Bonhoeffer is here fully updated and expanded with new material not available anywhere else. Features of this new edition: A selection of important newly discovered letters between Bonhoeffer and Paul Lehmann and between Lehmann and members of Bonhoeffer's family. An extensive chapter covering Bonhoeffer's Ethics. All citations updated to the new German and English editions of the Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works.

Bonhoeffer Stephen Plant, 2010-07-15 One of the best known Christians of the twentieth century, Dietrich Bonhoeffer is admired as a theologian for his unparalleled independence of mind, creativity, and brilliance by liberals and conservatives alike. His death at the hands of the Nazis is an extraordinary tale of courage and Christian discipleship. However, Bonhoeffer was also a serious theologian who, while indebted to the liberal tradition of the University of Berlin, was also influenced by the new thinking of Karl Barth that challenged the consensus. Plant has written a critical exploration of Bonhoeffer's writings that illuminates his ethical theology, showing that what linked all his work was the attempt to listen to God's word in to and for the secular world.

Barth, Bonhoeffer, and Modern Politics Joshua Mauldin, 2021-01-18 Recent political events around the world have raised the spectre of an impending collapse of democratic institutions. Contemporary concerns about the decline of liberal democracy are reminiscent to the tumult of the 1930s and 1940s in Europe. Karl Barth and Dietrich Bonhoeffer lived in Germany during the rise of National Socialism and each reflected on what the rise of totalitarianism meant for the aspirations of modern politics. Engaging the realities of totalitarian terror, they avoided despairing rejections of modern society. Beginning with Barth in the wake of the First World War, following Bonhoeffer through the 1930s and 1940s in Nazi Germany, and concluding with Barth's post-war reflections in the 1950s, this study explores how these figures reflected on modern society during this turbulent time and how their work is relevant to the current crisis of modern democracy.

The Limit of Responsibility Esther D. Reed, 2018-08-23 This volume frames the question of responsibility as a problem of agency in relation to the systems and structures of globalization. According to Ricoeur, responsibility is a shattered concept when considered too narrowly as a problem of act agency and individual freedom To examine this Esther Reed develops a short genealogy of modern liberal and post liberal concepts of responsibility in order to understand better the relationship dominant modern framings of the meanings of responsibility Reed engages with writings by major modern Schleiermacher Hegel Marx Weber and post liberal Buber Levinas Derrida Badiou Butler Young Critchley theorists to illustrate the shift from an ethnic responsibility built on notions of accountability and attributions to an ethic responsibility that starts variously from the other Reed sees Dietrich Bonhoeffer as the most promising partner of this theological dialogue as his learning of responsibility from the risen Christ present now in the global church is a welcome provocation to new thinking about the meaning of responsibility learned from land distant neighbour global church and the bible Bonhoeffer s reflections on the centre boundaries and limits of responsibility remain helpful to Christian people struggling with an increasingly exhausted concept of accountability

Being and Action Coram Deo Koert Verhagen,2021-09-09 Koert Verhagen not only provides the first in depth treatment of how the doctrine of justification crucially frames Bonhoeffer s approach to questions surrounding human being and action he also addresses the ethical implications of retrieving this perspective for the Church today Drawing on his early academic theology and his later ethics of discipleship Verhagen argues that Bonhoeffer s emphasis on the social implications of justification leads to an understanding of human existence that is fundamentally relational Along the way he draws Bonhoeffer s thinking on this front into conversation with Luther German idealism the Nazi Weltanschauung and contemporary Pauline scholarship With an eye to the contemporary practical value of Bonhoeffer s theology Verhagen concludes by making the case that the retrieval of justification s social implications provides a critical corrective to ecclesial responses to white supremacy

Bearing Sin as Church Community Hyun Joo Kim,2022-07-28 Hyun Joo Kim claims that Bonhoeffer transforms and reconstructs the Augustinian doctrine of original sin by shifting the hamartiological premise from the doctrine of God to the doctrine of the church based on his Lutheran resources In Bonhoeffer s view Augustine s doctrine of original sin does not fully relate the doctrine of sin to the responsibility of the saints In order to reform Augustinian hamartiology Bonhoeffer appropriates Augustine s notion of the church as the whole Christ totus Christus which is located in Augustine s ecclesiology Kim explicates how Augustine relates his epistemological premises in his Christianized Platonism to his formulation of the doctrine of original sin and examines how Luther s Christocentric standpoint transforms Augustine s anthropology and ultimately leads Luther to his relational hamartiology Kim contends that Bonhoeffer s later hamartiology and ethics contain the most distinctive characteristics of Bonhoeffer s doctrine of sin in that he not only incorporates both the active and passive dimensions of sin but also intensifies his continuing notion of vicarious representative action towards the church community
