Farrugia, 2013-08-30 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the International Conference on Theory and Practice of Digital Libraries TPD L 2013 formerly European Conference on Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries ECDL held in Valletta Malta in September 2013 The 24 full papers 13 short papers 22 posters and 8 demonstrations presented in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 158 submissions The papers cover a wide range of research topics clustered in four broader areas foundation infrastructures content and services They have been organized in topical sections on conceptual models and formal issues aggregation and archiving user behavior digital curation mining and extraction architectures and interoperability interfaces to digital libraries semantic web information retrieval and browsing and preservation Also included are 6 tutorials and 2 panels     Providing Effective Library Services for Research Jo Webb, Pat Gannon-Leary, Moira Bent, 2007-07 Researchers rely on libraries to provide the information they need equally supporting research is a fundamental reason for libraries existence This book explores the crucial relationship between libraries and researchers focusing on developing and managing effective library services to support research and includes the authentic voices of researchers surveyed This book will inform and advise all those who work with researchers in libraries combining practical advice with an exploration of fundamental issues relating to the relationship between research and libraries It is essential reading for all who work in academic and research libraries and will be of particular value to newly qualified and practising liaison and research support librarians     Current Research in Britain ,1989     A Companion to New Media Dynamics John Hartley, Jean Burgess, Axel Bruns, 2015-06-02 A Companion to New Media Dynamics presents a state of the art collection of multidisciplinary readings that examine the origins evolution and cultural underpinnings of the media of the digital age in terms of dynamic change Presents a state of the art collection of original readings relating to new media in terms of dynamic change Features interdisciplinary contributions encompassing the sciences social sciences humanities and creative arts Addresses a wide range of issues from the ownership and regulation of new media to their form and cultural uses Provides readers with a glimpse of new media dynamics at three levels of scale the macro or system level the meso or institutional level and micro or agency level      Databases in Historical Research Charles Harvey, Jon Press, 1995-12-18 This textbook builds knowledge progressively and sympathetically from first principles to advanced topics The authors explain how to take a project from the specification stage to completion and offer guidance on choice of approach techniques hardware and software Key ideas are presented in a readily understandable form through the use of diagrams and summary boxes and the text is brought to life through the use of case studies An ideal handbook for the undergraduate postgraduate and professional historian embarking on a dissertation or historical research      Theses on the Metaphors of Digital-Textual History

Martin Paul Eve, 2024-07-16 Digital spaces are saturated with metaphor we have pages sites mice and windows Yet in the world of digital textuality these metaphors no longer function as we might expect Martin Paul Eve calls attention to the digital textual metaphors that condition our experience of digital space and traces their history as they interact with physical cultures Eve posits that digital textual metaphors move through three life phases Initially they are descriptive Then they encounter a moment of fracture or rupture Finally they go on to have a prescriptive life of their own that conditions future possibilities for our text environments even when the metaphors have become untethered from their original intent Why is whitespace white Was the digital page always a foregone conclusion Over a series of theses Eve addresses these and other questions in order to understand the moments when digital textual metaphors break and to show us how it is that our textual softwares become locked into paradigms that no longer make sense Contributing to book history literary studies new media studies and material textual studies Theses on the Metaphors of Digital Textual History provides generative insights into the metaphors that define our digital worlds      Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries Rachel Heery, Liz

Lyon, 2005-01-11 We are delighted to present the ECDL 2004 Conference proceedings from the 8th European Conference on Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries at the University of Bath Bath UK This followed an impressive and geographically dispersed series of locations for previous events Pisa 1997 Halkidiki 1998 Paris 1999 Lisbon 2000 Darmstadt 2001 Rome 2002 and Trondheim 2003 The conference reflected the rapidly evolving landscape of digital libraries both in technology developments and in the focus of approaches to implementation An emphasis on the requirements of the individual user and of diverse and distributed user communities was apparent In addition the conference programme began to address possibly for the first time the associated themes of e-research e-science and e-learning and their relationship to digital libraries We observed increasing commonality in both the distributed information architectures and the technical standards that underpin global infrastructure developments Digital libraries are integral to this information landscape and to the creation of increasingly powerful tools and applications for resource discovery and knowledge extraction Digital libraries support and facilitate the data and information flows within the scholarly knowledge cycle and provide essential enabling functionality for both learners and researchers The varied and innovative research activities presented at ECDL 2004 demonstrate the exciting potential of this very fast moving field The 148 papers 43 posters 5 panels 14 tutorials and 4 workshops submitted this year were once again of the highest quality Research and Advanced Technology for Digital Libraries Jaap Kamps, Giannis Tsakonas, Yannis Manolopoulos, Lazaros Iliadis, Ioannis Karydis, 2017-09-04 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 21st International Conference on Theory and Practice of Digital Libraries TPDL 2017 held in Thessaloniki Greece in September 2017 The 39 full papers 11 short papers and 10 poster papers presented in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 106 submissions In addition the book contains 7 doctoral consortium papers The contributions are organized in topical sections named linked data corpora data in digital libraries quality in digital libraries digital humanities entities scholarly communication sentiment analysis information behavior information retrieval The Contemporary History Handbook Brian Brivati, Julia Buxton, Anthony Seldon, 1996 This guide should be useful to those studying and researching modern history International and up to date it covers sources and controversies in the subject area and includes a section of useful addresses The volume is divided into three main sections which together comprise a reference work for contemporary historians

Advancing Digital Humanities P. Arthur, K. Bode, 2014-12-03 Advancing Digital Humanities moves beyond definition of this dynamic and fast growing field to show how its arguments analyses findings and theories are pioneering new directions in the humanities globally Critiques of Knowing Lynette Hunter, 2002-03-11 Critiques of Knowing explores what happens to science and computing when we think of them as texts Lynette Hunter elegantly weaves together vast areas of thought rhetoric politics AI computing feminism science studies aesthetics and epistemology Critiques of Knowing shows us that what we need is a radical shake up of approaches to the arts if the critiques of science and computing are to come to any fruition

Library & Information Science Abstracts, 1996 Managing Preservation for Libraries and Archives John Feather, 2018-10-24 The preservation of library and archival materials can encompass everything from bookbinding and paper repair to new techniques for maintaining and exploiting digital text sound or images Managing Preservation for Libraries and Archives brings together an international team of contributors presenting the latest findings on key areas of preservation and addressing the most common storage and retrieval problems for different types of media The authors also revisit traditional preservation and conservation approaches and suggest how to develop policies for the future First summarising historical developments the book sets out key preservation principles rationales for selecting materials for preservation and how to choose the best methods Different contributors report on state of the art preservation techniques for paper media and sound archives explain how the appropriate techniques can be applied and how storage and access can best be managed in the long term Later chapters analyse the benefits and problems of digitising different types of materials the long term viability of digital media issues of access to digital surrogate documents as opposed to the original medium and the challenges in the digital context of bibliographical control cataloguing metadata distribution and copyright protection An extensive chapter on international information sources provides signposting to a wealth of guidance on the latest techniques

Managing Preservation for Libraries and Archives will guide readers working in the library archives museum and heritage sectors through the choices between digital and traditional preservation techniques and prepare them for likely future developments in managing both preservation and access Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1986-04
