New Testament Apocrypha Volume II Writings Relating To The Apostles Apocalypses And Related Subjects:

New Testament Apocrypha: Writings relating to the Apostles; Apocalypses and related subjects Wilhelm Schneemelcher, Robert McLachlan Wilson, 2003-01-01 Translation of Neutestamentliche Apokryphen New Testament Apocrypha Wilhelm Schneemelcher, 1991 In recent years there has been so much research into extra canonical gospel literature and in particular into the Coptic Gnostic library of Nag Hammadi that a completely new recasting of the seminal work Neutestamentliche Apokryphen in Deutscher Übersetzung originally founded by Edgar Hennecke seemed called for This is the English translation of the revised edition of that work published in two volumes This is an essential collection of sources for every student of the New Testament and of the history and literature of ancient Christianity Volume II covers writings related to the Apostles the Apocalypses and related subjects New Testament Apocrypha, Vol II, 1965

New Testament Apocrypha Edgar Hennecke, 1965 The Apocryphal Epistle to the Laodiceans Philip L. Tite, 2012-07-26 Challenging nearly two centuries of scholarship this book offers the first close analysis of the apocryphal epistle to the Laodiceans A near consensus in scholarship has emerged in which Laodiceans is dismissed as a random collection of phrases plucked from the undisputed Pauline letters which lacks any organizational structure or theological sophistication In The Apocryphal Epistle to the Laodiceans Philip Tite offers a detailed analysis of this Latin letter by exploring the epistolary conventions utilized by the letter writer What emerges is a pseudonymous text that is a carefully crafted paraenetic letter with a discernible rhetorical situation By highlighting Laodiceans use of Paul as a literary culture hero Tite situates the letter within second century Christian identity formation Emperors and Bishops in Late Roman Invective Richard Flower, 2013-05-02 Praise and blame in the Roman world Constructing a Christian tyrant Writing auto hagiography Living up to the past What are They Saying about the Pastoral Epistles? Mark Harding, 2001 An overview of recent trends in scholarship on the Pastoral Epistles Acts Within Diverse Frames of Reference Thomas E. Phillips, 2009 Offers a fresh analysis of the Acts of the Apostles This work surveys contemporary Acts scholarship on two important topics the genre of Acts and issues of wealth and poverty in Luke Acts It provides an analysis of the process of interpretation and calls for greater self awareness among critical readers of Acts Christ Child - Stories From an Unknown Childhood Luan Ferr, Christ Child Stories From an Unknown Childhood takes us through the little known episodes of Jesus childhood revealed through apocryphal texts not found in the traditional Bible The narrative details the flight to Egypt escaping Herod s threats and Jesus early displays of wisdom in Nazareth The apocryphal accounts offer a unique perspective on the Holy Family and the early signs of Jesus divine mission The work combines faith and imagination to bring forth stories that illuminate the figure of Jesus exploring both his divinity and humanity Essential for those who wish to deepen their faith and explore the hidden secrets in the apocryphal texts this book provides an alternative view of Jesus life Christ Child Stories From an Unknown Childhood promises to spark curiosity and inspire reflections on divine mysteries and human nature Archaeology and the Letters of Paul Laura Salah Nasrallah, 2018-12-06 Archaeology and the Letters of Paul illuminates the social political economic and religious lives of those to whom the apostle Paul wrote Roman Ephesos provides evidence of slave traders and the regulation of slaves it is a likely setting for household of Philemon to whom a letter about the slave Onesimus is addressed In Galatia an inscription seeks to restrain the demands of travelling Roman officials illuminating how the apostolic travels of Paul Cephas and others disrupted communities At Philippi a list of donations from the cult of Silvanus demonstrates the benefactions of a community that like those in Christ sought to share abundance in the midst of economic limitations In Corinth a landscape of grief extends from monuments to the bones of the dead and provides a context in which to understand Corinthian practices of baptism on behalf of the dead and the provocative idea that one could live as if not mourning or rejoicing Rome and the Letter to the Romans are the grounds for an investigation of ideas of time and race not only in the first century when we find an Egyptian obelisk inserted as a timepiece into the mausoleum complex of Augustus but also of a new Rome under Mussolini that claimed the continuity of Roman racial identity from antiquity to his time and sought to excise Jews Thessalonik and the early Christian literature associated with the city demonstrates what is done out of love for Paul invention of letters legends and cult in his name The book articulates a method for bringing together biblical texts with archaeological remains This method reconstructs the lives of the many adelphoi brothers and sisters whom Paul and his co writers address Its project is informed by feminist historiography and gains inspiration from thinkers such as Claudia Rankine Judith Butler Giorgio Agamben Wendy Brown and Katie Lofton

The Departure of an Apostle Alexander N. Kirk, 2015-11-05 What was Paul's attitude toward his own death How did he act and what did he say and write in view of it What hopes did he hold for himself beyond death Alexander N Kirk explores these questions through a close reading of four Pauline letters that look ahead to Paul's death and other relevant texts in the first two generations after Paul's death AD 70-160 The author studies portraits of the departed Paul in Acts 1 Clement the letters of Ignatius Polycarp's letter To the Philippians and the Martyrdom of Paul He also examines portraits of the departing Paul in 1 and 2 Corinthians Philippians and 2 Timothy arguing that Paul's death did not primarily present an existential challenge but a pastoral one Although touching upon several areas of recent scholarly interest Alexander N Kirk sets forth a new research question and fresh interpretations of early Christian and Pauline texts Synopsis: An Annual Index of Gaiser, 2016-10-15 An analysis of a variety of early Islamic texts to understand processes of identity formation and community In Shurat Legends Ibadi Identities Adam Gaiser explores the origins and early development of Islamic notions of martyrdom and of martyrdom literature He examines the catalogs or lists of martyrs martyrologies of the early shur t Kh rijites in the context of late antiquity showing that shur t literature as it can be reconstructed shares continuity with the martyrologies of earlier Christians and other religious groups especially in Iraq and that this powerful literature was transmitted by seventh century shur t through their successors the Ib iyya Gaiser examines the sources of poems and narratives as quasi historical accounts and their application in literary creations designed to meet particular communal needs in particular the need to establish and shape identity Gaiser shows how these accounts accumulated traits such as all night prayer vigils stoic acceptance of death and miracles of a wider ascetic and apocalyptic literature in the eighth century including martyrdom narratives of Eastern Christianity By establishing focal points of piety around which a communal identity could be fashioned such accounts proved suitable for use in missionary activity in North Africa and the Arabian Peninsula Gaiser also documents the reshaping of these narratives for more quietist purposes emphasizing moderated rather than violent action diplomacy and respect for other Islamic sects as also being monotheistic rather than condemning them as sinful Along with refashioning narratives Gaiser details the Ib efforts to compile collections into genealogies both biographical dictionaries and lineages of the true faith linking individuals and communities to local saints and martyrs He also shows how this more nuanced history led to the formation of rules and authorities governing the shur t Employing rarely examined manuscript materials to shed light on such processes as identity formation and communal boundary maintenance Gaiser traces the course by which this martyrdom literature and its potentially dangerous implications came to be institutionalized contained and controlled African American Religious Studies Gayraud S. Guffey, 2019-10-10 The images in the book of Revelation confound even the most seasoned of interpreters In this book Andrew R Guffey argues that part of the confusion stems from the fact that the book of Revelation was first and foremost a work to be seen but that few interpreters address the viscosity of the book The Book of Revelation and the Visual Culture of Asia Minor describes a connection between rhetorical discussions of ekphrasis visual culture and John s images a concurrence of images using theory and thick historical description Guffey s analysis situates the text and its rhetorical performativity in the context of ancient visual and rhetorical culture arguing that Revelation is not merely a work of literary craft but also of visual culture

The Southern Version of Cursor Mundi, Vol. III Henry J. Stauffenberg, 1985-01-01 The medieval poem Cursor Mundi is a biblical versified account of the history of the world. It offers a chronological overview of salvation history from Creation to Doomsday. The Cursor Mundi originated in northern England in 1300 or thereabouts and was frequently copied in the north before appearing in a substantially altered southern version. Although it is a storehouse of popular medieval biblical lore and a fascinating study in the eclectic use of more than a dozen sources, the poem had attracted little scholarly attention until the publication of this critical analysis. This five-part collaborative edition presents the Arundel version of the poem with variants from three others. In addition, it provides a discussion of sources and analogues, detailed explanatory notes, and a bibliography. Published in English.

A History of Christian Psalmody Charles H. Cosgrove, 2025 A History of Christian Psalmody traces the history of Christian psalm singing during the church's first five centuries. It describes the format, melodic character, and uses of psalmody in a wide range of settings, including personal and domestic devotion, church liturgy, monastic life, and public ecclesial events such as processions.

The Apocalypse of Adam Charles W. Hedrick, 2005-09-20 The Apocalypse of Adam was discovered among the papyri from the ancient gnostic library at Nag Hammadi, Egypt, in 1946. It is a revelatory discourse that Adam delivers to his son Seth. This discourse is the fifth and final tractate in Nag Hammadi Codex V. The manuscript is now in the Coptic Museum in Old Cairo, codex inv. no. 10548. In Part I of this significant treatment, Hedrick analyzes the sources that lay behind this work, the redaction, and the main theological themes. In Part II, he provides the Coptic text, translation, and notes on the complete text, broken down by Source A, Source B, and the Redactor's additions.

Reconsidering Eusebius Sabrina Inowlocki, Claudio Zamagni, 2011-06-22 Over the last decades, Eusebius has been the focus of a great deal of attention. New light has been shed both on his writings and on his personality, which has led to a welcome reassessment of his significance. As a result, he is no longer perceived as a mere compiler but as a powerful author who largely contributed to the construction of the orthodox Church's triumphalism. This volume seeks to contribute to the ongoing re-evaluation of Eusebius as an active participant in the construction of late antique history, theology, and literature. The result is an interdisciplinary collection of articles by an international team of scholars who offer innovative papers on one of the most important late antique authors.
