K. Alexander KING (of Brighton.),1860* "Christ Loved the Church" William MacDonald,1966 Principles and Practices of the NT Church William McCormack,2014-11-01 This short book is a valuable addition to current literature concerning Church Doctrine and Practice It is firmly based upon the teaching of the Holy Scriptures and argues cogently that those teachings never go out of date It also proposes strongly that the practices of the early church as shown in the New Testament are both obligatory and practicable for all believers today and indeed until the Lord Jesus comes again The language of the five chapters is easy to follow clearly setting out those matters which are important to all who would wish to honour and obey the Word of God in their church gatherings New Testament Church Principles Arthur G. By a Member of the Church of England ,1842 The Contemporary Review ,1902 One Lord, One Faith, Second Edition Rex A. Koivisto,2009-01-01 One Lord One Faith is a plea and plan to re envision the Church as a broad cross denominational community with a shared faith in the Christ of the Gospel It both affirms the place and inevitability of individual denominational traditions and also provides a grid from which to distinguish those denominational traditions from the core of historical orthodoxy shared by the entire Christian community The book seeks to distinguish denominationalism from sectarianism and identifies sectarianism as the true enemy of historic catholicity The Church ,1844 A New Kind of Church Aubrey Malphurs,2007-02-01 There is no shortage of books these days on new ways of doing church New church models have been both warmly embraced and roundly criticized What are church leaders and others concerned about the state of the church to make of all this Does the Bible prescribe a standard model for doing church Or is there freedom within certain guidelines In A New Kind of Church respected church consultant Aubrey Malphurs addresses these important questions and suggests that there is room for new ways of doing ministry while being true to Scripture In the process he offers a theological and interpretive framework for evaluating any church model new or old He also offers suggestions for implementing change in the local church
