Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1952 Includes Part 1A Books and Part 1B Pamphlets Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Books in Print ,1987 Continent ,1914 Handbook for Bible Study Lee J. Gugliotto, 2000 A guide to understanding teaching and preaching the Word of God Includes reproducible exegesis work sheets for contextual cultural structural verbal theological and homiletical analyses How to Read the Bible Steven L McKenzie, 2009-04-13 McKenzie argues that to comprehend the Bible we must grasp the intentions of the biblical authors themselves what sort of texts they thought they were writing and how they would have been understood by their intended audience In short we must recognize the genres to which these texts belong McKenzie examines several genres that are typically misunderstood offering careful readings of specific texts to show how the confusion arises and how knowing the genre produces a correct reading The book of Jonah for example offers many clues that it is meant as a humorous satire not a straight faced historical account of a man who was swallowed by a fish Likewise McKenzie explains that the very names Adam and Eve tell us that these are not historical characters but figures who symbolize human origins Adam means man Eve is related to the word for life Similarly the authors of apocalyptic texts including the Book of Revelation were writing allegories of events that were happening in their own time Not for a moment could they imagine that centuries afterwards readers would be poring over their works for clues to the date of the Second Coming of Christ or when and how the world would end For anyone who takes reading the Bible seriously and who wants to get it right this book will be both heartening and enlightening A Spiritual Portrait of a Believer Chet Cataldo, 2010-02-19 The focus of this study is to discover the identity of the emphatic I of Rom 7 with the added purpose of attempting to draw a spiritual portrait of a mature Christian believer To accomplish this purpose the process is as follows An examination of Rom 7 within its context is conducted This examination is followed by an attempt at determining the experience of the emphatic I found within Rom 7 The next step in the process is to compare the experience of the emphatic I of Rom 7 as found within its context of Rom 1 8 with what Paul wrote elsewhere on the experience of new life in Christ for Christian believers The purpose of this comparison is to discover if Paul had a consistent portrait of spirituality and Christian maturity The final step is to compare the experience described by Paul both in Rom 7 and in the wider Pauline Corpus with the experience which John Wesley called perfection and with the Mystical experience called the spiritual marriage The study of Romans Wesley and the Mystics coupled with the wider study of the secondary literature showed that there is a remarkable consistency in the teaching and understanding that the closer a Christian believer gets to God the more this Christian believer is aware of his or her own sinfulness Paul in describing the experience of the emphatic I is describing a person who is becoming more and more aware of his or her own sinfulness The conclusion to be drawn from this study is that the identity of the empathic I is of a regenerate Christian believer one who is growing ever closer and closer to God and at the same time is in pain over the
