New Perspectives on the International Oil Supply Bettina Silber, Elihu Bergman, 1979 Multilateral Energy and Mineral Investment Insurance United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on International Economic Policy and Trade, 1980 A Strategy of Oil Proliferation Arnold E. Safer, United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on Energy, 1980 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis, 1987 New Perspective on the Persian Gulf, Hearings Before the Subcommittee on the Near East and South Asia..., 93-1, June 6, July 17, 23, 24, and November 28, 1973 United States. Congress. House. Foreign Affairs, 1973 New Perspectives on the Persian Gulf United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on the Near East and South Asia, 1973 Beyond Market Assumptions: Oil Price as a Global Institution Andrei V. Belyi, 2020-03-26 This book defines oil price as a social institution that exists beyond supply demand mechanisms Discussing oil markets in the context of the broader sociology of prices it covers a number of theoretical and practical dimensions such as new market uncertainties and trends and social perceptions of energy security and of power Further based on case studies it explores the implications for OPEC Russia and Central and Eastern Europe as well as for the energy transition and for international investment arbitration Featuring contributions from leading academics researchers and business professionals the book offers an interdisciplinary perspective on the oil price This book brings together an impressive team of scholars with fresh perspectives on the oil price Even as the world attempts energy transition oil consumption continues and the oil price is likely to become even more unpredictable and unclear than in the past This book helps make sense of this challenging topic Indra Overland is a Research Professor and Head of Centre for Energy Research Norwegian Institute of International Affairs NUPI A revealing and multidimensional analysis of oil price fluctuations in a market that seeks less uncertainty This book discusses market and price evolution in the context of market theories history and real time market analysis A welcome and timely contribution to our understanding of global energy markets Dr Sara Vakhshouri is Founder and President of SVB Energy International and Professor of Energy Security at the Institute of World Politics China-Saudi Arabia Relations, 1990-2012 Naser M. Al-Tamimi, 2013-09-05 This book focuses on the relationship established between China the world's second largest economy and Saudi Arabia the world's top oil exporter Due to Saudi Arabia's dominance of the world oil market China is increasingly focusing its attention on the Saudi Arabia as a reliable oil supplier while Saudi Arabia sees China as an enormous potential market and strategic trade partner It investigates both countries motives for establishing a strategic relationship and outlines the potential for successful co operation between them It then goes on to address the wider implications for the United States in the Middle East Governing the Energy Transition Geert Verbon, Derk Loorbach, 2012-03-29 The Energy Transition the inevitable shift away from cheap centralized largely fossil based energy systems is one of the core challenges of our time This book provides a coherent and novel insight into the nature of this challenge and possible strategies to accelerate and guide such transitions It brings together prominent European scholars and practitioners from the fields of energy transition research and governance to draw attention to the current complex dynamics in the energy domain and offer elegant and provocative explanations for current crises and lock ins They identify multiple energy transition pathways that emerge and increasingly compete and emphasize the need and possibilities for novel governance By analysing the complexity of energy transition processes and the difficulties in shifting to sustainable pathways this text questions the extent to which actually governing energy transitions is already reality just an illusion or a bare necessity

Oil Leaders Ibrahim AlMuhanna,2022-05-17 Oil is an unusual commodity in that individual decisions can have an outsized effect on the market OPEC s choice to increase production for instance might send prices falling affecting both oil producers and consumers worldwide What do the leading oil market players consider before making a fateful move Oil Leaders offers an unprecedented glimpse into the strategic thinking of top figures in the energy world from the 1980s through the recent past Ibrahim AlMuhanna a close adviser to four different Saudi oil ministers during that period examines the role of individual and collective decision making in shaping market movements He analyzes how powerful individuals made critical choices tracking how they responded to the flow of information on pivotal market and political events and predicted reactions from allies and adversaries AlMuhanna highlights how the media has played an increasingly important role as a conduit of information among multiple players in the oil market Energy leaders have learned to manage the signals they send to the market and to other relevant players in order to avoid sending oil prices into a spiral AlMuhanna draws on personal familiarity with many of these individual decision makers as well as his participation in decades of closed door sessions where crucial choices were made Featuring revelatory behind the scenes perspective on pivotal oil market events and dynamics this book is a must read for practitioners and policy makers engaged with the global energy world

Fossil Energy Update ,1983 Sustainable Energy Transformations, Power and Politics Sharlissa Moore,2018-09-03 This book analyses energy transitions and the opportunities and challenges for building sustainable energy systems to improve human capabilities while protecting the environment Sufficient and secure energy supply is critical to human thriving and socioeconomic development Yet energy systems are also implicated in the most pressing socio environmental challenges of our time climate change air pollution and water and land use This book examines what is arguably the most ambitious vision for a renewable energy based system worldwide This vision often called Desertec is for a regional electricity system supplying North Africa Europe and the Middle East with sustainable and affordable power The behemoth plan would entail building dozens of large scale solar and wind power plants mostly in North Africa interconnecting the fragmented transmission infrastructure of 38 Mediterranean countries and linking North Africa to the European Union EU through undersea transmission cables Within the Mediterranean the book focuses on Morocco which is one of the most advanced developing countries in renewable energy scale up to understand its motivations for building renewable energy and the effects on sustainable development The book therefore takes a unique multi scalar approach to understanding the social and political aspects of energy transitions weaving together the views of villagers living near Morocco s first solar energy zone with the perspectives of national decision makers in Morocco with the views of European policymakers and major transnational energy companies in the Mediterranean region This book will be of great interest to students scholars and policymakers interested in energy transitions sustainable and renewable energy Mediterranean politics sustainable development and environment and sustainability more generally Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress,1979
