Hearts and Minds Michael Bibby, 1996 The early 1960s to the mid 1970s was one of the most turbulent periods in American history The U S military was engaged in its longest costliest overseas conflict while the home front was torn apart by riots protests and social activism In the midst of these upheavals an underground and countercultural press emerged giving activists an extraordinary forum for a range of imaginative expressions Poetry held a prominent place in this alternative media The poem was widely viewed by activists as an inherently anti establishment form of free expression and poets were often in the vanguards of political activism Hearts and Minds is the first book length study of the poems of the Black Liberation Women's Liberation and GI Resistance movements during the Vietnam era Drawing on recent cultural and literary theories Bibby investigates the significance of images tropes and symbols of human bodies in activist poetry Many key political slogans of the period black is beautiful off our backs foreground the body Bibby demonstrates that figurations of bodies marked important sites of social and political struggle Although poetry played such an important role in Vietnam era activism literary criticism has largely ignored most of this literature Bibby recuperates the cultural historical importance of Vietnam era activist poetry highlighting both its relevant contexts and revealing how it engaged political and social struggles that continue to motivate contemporary history Arguing for the need to read cultural history through these underground texts Hearts and Minds offers new grounds for understanding the recent history of American poetry and the role poetry has played as a medium of imaginative political expression

Southscapes Thadious M. Davis, 2011-11-21 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies Basing her analysis on texts by Ernest Gaines Richard Wright Alice Walker Natasha Trethewey Olympia Vernon Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein and others Davis reveals how these writers reconstitute racial exclusion as creative black space rather than a site of trauma and resistance Utilizing the social and political separation epitomized by segregation to forge a spatial and racial vantage point Davis argues allows these writers to imagine and represent their own subject matter and aesthetic concerns Focusing particularly on Louisiana and Mississippi Davis deploys new geographical discourses of space to expand analyses of black writers relationship to the South and to consider the informing aspects of spatial narratives on their literary production She argues that African American writers not only are central to the production of southern literature and new southern studies but also are crucial to understanding the shift from modernism to postmodernism in southern letters A paradigm shifting work Southscapes restores African American writers to their rightful place in the regional imagination while calling for a more inclusive conception of region Writers Directory NA

NA,2016-03-05 The Incorporative Consciousness of Robert Bly Victoria Frenkel Harris,1992 Victoria Frenkel Harris traces the aesthetic journey of poet Robert Bly from his early structured works of mystical imagery and lyrical landscapes to his recent explorations of intimate relationships and male socialization Examining the various ways Bly s prose poems articulate his opposition to the Vietnam War and his recent writings manipulate more formal patterns in detailing the intricacies of human relationships Harris labels this evolution in form subject and imagery the incorporative consciousness incorporative because it assimilates Jungian psychological categories international poetic traditions and a compelling breadth of topics Harris relies in part on contemporary feminist theory to throw revealing new light on Bly s recent works Though sympathetic to Bly Harris finds that in spite of his affirmation of the interaction of psychic creative and intellectual energies in both sexes the poet s later erotic poems tend to objectify women in counterproductive ways Bly s idealization of woman as a Jungian universal Harris contends can blind him toward actual women Harris is at her best as she delimits with balance and precision the full complexity of the poet s work International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa

James L. Conyers, 1997 Known variously as African studies black studies African American studies Afro American studies and Africology the academic study of the African diaspora as a holistic discipline is a relatively new phenomenon University programs have been created with reference to a disciplinary matrix retarding the development of appropriate theory and methods throughout Africana studies Fifteen leaders in the field of Africana studies provide the conceptual framework for establishing the field as a mature discipline The focus is on four basic areas administration and organizational structure disciplinary matrix Africana womanism and cultural aesthetics The work examines both the theory and the method of scholars in African and African diaspora studies Wild Blessings Hilary Holladay, 2012-05-16 Widely acclaimed for her powerful explorations of race womanhood spirituality and mortality poet Lucille Clifton has published thirteen volumes of poems since 1969 and has received numerous accolades for her work including the 2000 National Book Award for Blessing the Boats Her verse is featured in almost every anthology of contemporary poetry and her readings draw large and enthusiastic audiences Although Clifton's poetry is a pleasure to read it is neither as simple nor as blithely celebratory as readers sometimes assume The bursts of joy found in her polished elegant lines are frequently set against a backdrop of regret and sorrow Alternately consoling stimulating and emotionally devastating Clifton's poems are unforgettable In Wild Blessings Hilary Holladay offers the first full length study of Clifton's poetry drawing on a broad knowledge of the American poetic tradition and African American poetry in particular Holladay places Clifton's poems in multiple contexts personal political and literary as she explicates major themes and analyzes specific works Clifton's poems about womanhood a central concern throughout her career her fertility poems which are provocatively compared with Sylvia Plath's poems on the same subject her relation to the Black Arts Movement and to other black female poets such as Gwendolyn Brooks and Sonia Sanchez her biblical poems her elegies and her poignant family history Generations an extended prose poem In addition to a new preface written after Clifton's death in 2010 this updated edition includes an epilogue that discusses the poetry collections she published after 2004 Readers encountering Lucille Clifton's poems for the first time and those long familiar with her distinctive voice will benefit from Hilary Holladay's striking insights and her illuminating interview with the influential American poet     Adrienne Rich Karen F. Stein, 2017-10-10 In her six decade long writing career Adrienne Rich 1929-2012 addressed with sagacity and probing honesty most of the significant issues of her lifetime A poet of finely tuned craft she won numerous prizes awards and honorary degrees and famously rejected the prestigious National Medal for the Arts in 1997 She wrote twenty five volumes of poetry and seven non fiction books as she combined the roles of poet scholar theorist and activist Rich wrote passionately and powerfully about major 20th and early 21st century concerns such as feminism racism sexism the Vietnam War Marxism militarism the growing income disparities in the U S and other social issues Her works ask important questions about how we should act and what we should believe They imagine new ways to deal with the social and political challenges of the twentieth century Setting her work in the context of her life and American politics and culture during her lifetime this book explores Rich's poetic and personal journey from conservative dutiful follower of cultural and poetic traditions to challenging questioner and critic from passivity and powerlessness to activist theorist and acclaimed poet of the oppositional imagination     Modern American Women Poets Jean Gould, 1984 Uses first hand interviews to tell about the lives and careers of some modern American poets     Conversations with May Sarton May Sarton, 1991 With increasing candor and openness May Sarton's conversations have given an intimate view of her honest courageous inner life Best known to her many readers as a novelist and keeper of journals Sarton sees herself pre eminently as a poet In the interviews collected here she speaks forthrightly about herself her independence and her writing Although born in Belgium Sarton is quintessentially American in her choice of solitude on which her personal well being and writing depend She is a modernist who has defined herself as an artist with the occasionally painful recognition that all else must finally be subordinated to her writing Her journal After the Stroke makes clear that when she cannot write she stands on the edge of the abyss of nonbeing These interviews offer Sarton's readers the model of a woman who has supported herself as a writer of achievement who has made her way without the comforts of academic tenure grants or bestseller listings     Performing the Literary Interview John Rodden, 2001-01-01 When authors are interviewed about their books or themselves much more is going on than a simple conversation The interview becomes a performance space for authorial orchestration and self promotion and interviewers in turn respond to such self display and theatrics Featuring absorbing conversations with nine well known authors including poets Richard Howard and Gerald Stern novelist Isabel Allende and scholar intellectual Camille Paglia Performing the Literary Interview is the first in depth look at this type of performance art Interviews with poets fiction writers and intellectuals enable John Rodden to identify a range of rhetorical strategies and their effects and to formulate a typology for appreciating the various roles that interviewers and interviewees assume Traditionalists foreground their work rather than themselves raconteurs are storytellers who skillfully spin anecdotes and creatively showcase their personalities and advertisers more explicitly use the literary interview to promote and sell themselves This pioneering persuasive study stakes a claim to a new area of scholarly inquiry in the humanities The literary interview can no longer be considered only as a voyeuristic window on an author or a celebrity vehicle or even an entertaining diversion but should also be approached as a serious genre meriting scholarly attention and analysis
