New Queer Cinema A Critical Reader:

New Queer Cinema Michele Aaron, 2004 Coined in the early 1990s to describe a burgeoning film movement New Queer Cinema has turned the attention of film theorists students and audiences to the proliferation of intelligent stylish and daring work by lesbian and gay filmmakers within independent cinema and to the infiltration of queer images and themes into the mainstream Why did this transition take place Although there are certainly other books on gay and lesbian issues in film this is the first full length study of recent developments in queer cinema combining indispensable discussions of central issues with exciting new work by key writers

New Queer Cinema Michele Aaron, 2004 New queer cinema , Queer Cinema Barbara Mennel, 2012-10-23 Queer Cinema Schoolgirls Vampires and Gay Cowboys illustrates queer cinematic aesthetics by highlighting key films that emerged at historical turning points throughout the twentieth century Barbara Mennel traces the representation of gays and lesbians from the sexual liberation movements of the roaring 1920s in Berlin to the Stonewall Rebellion in New York City and the emergence of queer activism and film in the early 1990s She explains early tropes of queerness such as the boarding school or the vampire and describes the development of camp from 1950s Hollywood to underground art of the late 1960s in New York City Mennel concludes with an exploration of the contemporary mainstreaming of gay and lesbian films and global queer cinema Queer Cinema Schoolgirls Vampires and Gay Cowboys not only offers an introduction to a gay and lesbian film history but also contributes to an academic discussion about queer subversion of mainstream film

Queer Cinema in the World Karl Schoonover, Rosalind Galt, 2016-11-17 Proposing a radical vision of cinema's queer globalism Karl Schoonover and Rosalind Galt explore how queer filmmaking intersects with international sexual cultures geopolitics and aesthetics to disrupt dominant modes of world making Whether in its exploration of queer cinematic temporality the paradox of the queer popular or the deviant ecologies of the queer pastoral Schoonover and Galt reimagine the scope of queer film studies The authors move beyond the gay art cinema canon to consider a broad range of films from Chinese lesbian drama and Swedish genderqueer documentary to Bangladeshi melodrama and Bolivian activist video Schoonover and Galt make a case for the centrality of queerness in cinema and trace how queer cinema circulates around the globe institutionally via film festivals online consumption and human rights campaigns but also affectively in the production of a queer sensorium In this account cinema creates a uniquely potent mode of queer worldliness one that disrupts normative ways of being in the world and forges revised modes of belonging

The Oxford Handbook of Queer Cinema Ronald Gregg, Amy Villarejo, 2021-11-12 The term queer cinema is often used to name at least three cultural events 1 an emergent visual culture that boldly identifies as queer 2 a body of narrative documentary and experimental work previously collated under the rubric of homosexual or lesbian gay bisexual and trans LGBT cinema 3 a means of critically reading and evaluating films and other visual media through the lens of sexuality By this expansive account queer cinema encompasses more than a century of filmmaking film criticism and film reception and the past twenty five years have seen the idea of queer cinema expand further as a descriptor for a global arts practice As the first of its kind The Oxford Handbook of Queer Cinema treats these three currents as art and critical practice bringing the canon of queer cinema together with a new generation of makers and scholars The Handbook's contributors include scholars who research the worldwide canon of queer cinema those who are uniquely positioned to address three decades of its particular importance and those best positioned to ponder the forms it is taking or may take in our new century namely digital media that moves in new circuits In eight sections they explore the many forms that queer cinema takes across time discussing narrative experimental documentary and genre filmmaking including pornography Likewise although the study of cinema and media is not restricted to a single method chapters showcase the unique combination of textual analysis industrial and production history interpretation ethnography and archival research that this field enables For example chapters analyze the ways in which queer cinema both is and is not self evidently an object for study by examining films that reinforce negative understandings of queerness alongside those that liberate the subject and by naming the films that are newly queered while noting that many queerly made texts await discovery Finally chapters necessarily assert that queer cinema is not an Anglophone phenomenon nor is it restricted to the medium of film

Gender and Genre in 1990s Hollywood Patricia Di Risio, 2024-11-14 The 1990s was a decade of significant turmoil in Hollywood cinema which resulted in a watershed moment in the interplay of gender and genre Patricia Di Risio argues that cinematic representations of unconventional women had an important effect on traditionally male oriented genres such as the crime thriller road movie western film noir war film sci fi and horror Di Risio analyses seven key films from the decade including Blue Steel 1990 Thelma Louise 1991 The Quick and the Dead 1995 Bound 1996 Jackie Brown 1997 G I Jane 1997 and Alien Resurrection 1997 paying particular attention to their use of irony allusion and pastiche She highlights how their female protagonists a majority of whom are decidedly queer or gender questioning personas produce an intense crossover in genre conventions largely driven by their gender rebellion She examines how a deconstruction of gender simultaneously allows genre hybridity and intertextuality taking these films into unexpected new directions In doing so she delineates a clear line between the unconventional nature of the representation of the female protagonists and innovative changes to genre filmmaking practices
