New Regionalism And The Future Of Security And Development:

The New Regionalism and the Future of Security and Development B. Hettne, 2016-04-30 This book is dedicated to the implications of the new regionalism for global security and development The fourth in the five volume New Regionalism Series it features contributions from the UNU WIDER project on new regionalism The New Regionalism and the Future of Security and Development Björn Hettne, András Inotai, Osvaldo Sunkel, 2000 This book looks at New Regionalism and the implications for security and development in the following areas Latin America Africa West Africa Israel Palestine and Jordan South East Asia the Balkans The New Regionalism in Africa Fredrik Söderbaum, 2017-03-02 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism Theories of New Regionalism F. Söderbaum, T. Shaw, 2003-11-11 Theories of New Regionalism represents the first systematic attempt to bring together leading theories of new regionalism Major theorists from around the world develop their own distinctive theoretical perspectives spanning new regionalism world order approaches along with regional governance liberal institutionalism neoclassical development regionalism to regional security complex theory RSCT and the region building approach Globalization and Environmental Challenges Hans Günter Brauch, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Czesław Mesjasz, John Grin, Pál Dunay, Navnita Chadha Behera, Béchir Chourou, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, P. H. Liotta, 2008-01-23 Put quite simply the twin impacts of globalization and environmental degradation pose new security dangers and concerns In this new work on global security thinking 91 authors from five continents and many disciplines from science and practice assess the worldwide reassessment of the meaning of security triggered by the end of the Cold War and globalization as well as the multifarious impacts of global environmental change in the early 21st century The Political Economy of Regionalism F. Söderbaum, 2004-10-29 The Political Economy of Regionalism The Case of Southern Africa challenges prevailing wisdom showing how ruling political elites and big business join forces with certain external actors in order to promote market integration and economic globalization boost regimes and to satisfy group specific and even personal interests Only rarely do these forms of regionalism contribute to the poor and disadvantaged who instead opt out and survive through informal economic regionalisms or seek to create regionalisms rooted in civil society

South Africa and the Logic of Regional Cooperation James J. Hentz, 2005-07-19 In South Africa and the Logic of Regional Cooperation James J Hentz addresses changes in South Africa s strategies for regional cooperation and economic development since its transition from apartheid to democracy Hentz focuses on why the new South African government continues to make regional cooperation a priority and what methods this dominant state uses to pursue its neighborly goals While providing a synthetic overview of the history of regional cooperation in southern Africa Hentz considers the logic of cooperation more generally An extensive discussion of South African politics provides the context for Hentz s exploration of the more widely felt effects of domestic change Readers interested in the international organization of the politics and economy of southern Africa will find thought provoking material in this important book

Globalizing International Political Economy Nicola Phillips, 2017-10-07 Despite its claims to global scope and relevance International Political Economy as a field of study remains entrenched in a narrow set of theoretical conceptual and empirical foundations derived from the experiences of the advanced industrialized democracies Bringing together specially commissioned chapters by leading authorities in each key area of debate Globalizing International Political Economy provides a systematic examination and critique of contemporary IPE and puts forward a new agenda for a truly global political economy

Region-building Ludger Kühnhardt, 2010-07-01 After two centuries of nation building the world has entered an era of region building in search of political stability cultural cohesion and socio economic development Nations involved in the regional structures and integration schemes that are emerging in most regions of the world are deepening their ambitions with Europe s integration experience often used as an experimental template or theoretical model Volume I provides a political analytical framework for recognizing the central role of the European Union not only as a conceptual model but also a normative engine in the global proliferation of regional integration It also gives a comprehensive treatment of the focus motives and objectives of non European integration efforts Volume II offers a unique collection of documents that give the best available overview of the legal and political evolution of region building based on official documents and stated objectives of the relevant regional groupings across all continents Together these volumes are important contributions for understanding the evolution of global affairs in an age when power shifts provide new challenges and opportunities for transatlantic partners and the world community

The Geopolitics of Region

Building in the Black Sea Yannis Tsantoulis,2020-12-17 Offering theoretical insights on region building this book explores the attempts to formulate a political and institutional vision for the Black Sea region in the post 9 11 era and in the context of the enlargements of the EU and NATO It investigates in depth these attempts viewed as a failure by the key actors involved in order to understand how regions emerge in international politics as well as how and why they may fail to come into being To this end the book explores a range of factors that impacted region building in the Black Sea considering the role of region builders involved their practices and the context of their actions and the spatial representations and security discourses that were integral to the region building process Hence attention is paid to how these factors both enabled and constrained the discursive construction of the Black Sea region thus identifying the elements that distinguish the Black Sea from other successful cases of region building Based on critical approaches towards international relations and political geography this book both expands and deepens the scope and understanding of regions and will thus appeal to academics and students in the fields of International Relations Security Studies Political Geography and Regional Integration

Multilateralism

Past, Present and Future Mario Telò,2023-05-31 This book offers an important chronological perspective on the evolution of multilateralism within Europe and beyond It provides a critical reconstruction of the history of the idea and praxis of peaceful global governance a comparative analysis of regional multilateral organisations and a discussion about concrete trends and perspectives of a new multilateralism against the challenging context of the current multipolar power politics Focusing on the changing European interplay with multilateralism from Eurocentric cradle of civilian cooperation among sovereign imperial states to political dwarf after the two world wars and decolonisation and to potential co leader of a

multilayered and multi actor cooperation within the current multipolar order it addresses a theoretical gap by fuelling the long recognised idealism v realism debate over international cooperation and institutionalisation with both historical and new empirical insights This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European studies global governance specific challenges faced in regions including Central America Asia and the Pacific and Central and Eastern Europe As a book that asks crucial questions about the formulation of migration policies and the consequences of that success or failure it will be essential reading for students and scholars of migration in sociology politics and international relations and also for those with professional interests in the area

The South Caucasus - Security, Energy and Europeanization Meliha B.

Altunışık, Oktay F. Tanrisever, 2017-10-02 This book explores developments in the countries of the South Caucasus Armenia Azerbaijan and Georgia since the EU included the region in the European Neighbourhood Policy in 2003 It considers issues related to energy ethnic conflict steps towards regional integration and above all security including the involvement of Russia Iran Turkey and the United States It assesses the key importance of energy argues that the prospects for regional integration are weak and contends that while the approach of Europe and the United States has been confused and weak not holding out great hope of EU or NATO membership Russia's interest and involvement in the region is strong and growing

Global Governance and the Quest for Justice - Volume I Douglas Lewis, 2006-02-28

This book one in the four volume set Global Governance and the Quest for Justice focuses on the international and regional organisations that represent the key players in the evolving global order The papers in this collection seek to map the real world of global governance exploring who governs and how what the leading international and regional organisations claim to do and what they actually do as well as assessing the gap between the ideal of constitutionalised global governance and the actuality of governance under globalisation The contributors discuss what it would mean for global governance to aspire to Rule of Law standards of transparency accountability and participation together with categorical respect for human rights In this collection the perspective of modern public lawyers is systematically applied to the governance deficit associated with globalisation and to its institutional correction in pursuit of a legitimate regime of global governance

Limiting institutions? James

Sperling, Sean Kay, Victor Papacosma, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Eurasian security governance has received increasing attention since 1989 The North Atlantic Treaty Organisation the institution that best served the security interests of the West in its competition with the Soviet Union is now relatively ill equipped to resolve the threats emanating from Eurasia to the Atlantic system of security governance This book investigates the important role played by identity politics in the shaping of the Eurasian security environment It investigates both the state in post Soviet Eurasia as the primary site of institutionalisation and the state's concerted international action in the sphere of security This investigation requires a major caveat state centric approaches to security impose analytical costs by obscuring substate and transnational actors and processes The terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon marked the maturation of what had been described as the new terrorism Jervis has argued that the western system of security governance produced a security community that was contingent upon five necessary and sufficient conditions The United States has made an effort to integrate China Russia into the Atlantic security system via the

Partnership for Peace PfP programme and the Euro Atlantic Partnership Council The Black Sea Economic Cooperation has become engaged in disseminating security concerns in fields such as environment energy and economy If the end of the Cold War left America triumphant Russia s new geopolitical hand seemed a terrible demotion Successfully rebalancing the West and building a collaborative system with Russia China Europe and America probably requires more wisdom and skill from the world s leaders
