New Rich In Asia Mobile Phones McDonalds Middle Class Revolution:

The New Rich in Asia Richard Robison, David S. G. Goodman, 1996 This book is an introduction to a series which is the first to examine the new rich phenomenon in East Southeast Asia Each study is based upon detailed research combines material on countries such as China Indonesia Singapore Hong Kong

The New Rich in China David Goodman, 2008-05-07 Including sections on class status and power agency and structure and life style the book develops the concept of the New Rich further in light of China's accelerated social change and the ever increasing affluence of some of the population

Moral Politics in the Philippines Wataru Kusaka, 2017-02-17 The people famously ousted Ferdinand Marcos from power in the Philippines in 1986 After democratization though a fault line appeared that split the people into citizens and the masses The former were members of the middle class who engaged in civic action against the restored elite dominated democracy and viewed themselves as moral citizens in contrast with the masses who were poor engaged in illicit activities and backed flawed leaders The masses supported emerging populist counter elites who promised to combat inequality and saw themselves as morally upright in contrast to the arrogant and oppressive actions of the wealthy in arrogating resources to themselves In 2001 the middle class toppled the populist president Joseph Estrada through an extra constitutional movement that the masses denounced as illegitimate Fearing a populist uprising the middle class supported action against informal settlements and street vendors and violent clashes erupted between state forces and the poor Although solidarity of the people re emerged in opposition to the corrupt presidency of Gloria Macapagal Arroyo and propelled Benigno Aquino III to victory in 2010 inequality and elite rule continue to bedevil Philippine society Each group considers the other as a threat to democracy and the prevailing moral antagonism makes it difficult to overcome structural causes of inequality

Consumption in Asia Beng-Huat Chua, 2002-05-03 The essays in this collection challenge conventional ideas about consumption and consumerism they consider if the inundation of Western consumer goods have created identity confusions among the affluent in Asia and if the expansion of consumer culture really does threaten the stability of politically anti liberal states in Asia This is the first book to analyse in detail consumerism in the region and will be valuable reading for students and researchers in Asian studies economics politics and cultural studies

Aspirations of Young Adults in Urban Asia Mariske Westendorp, Désirée Remmert, Kenneth Finis, 2020-10-06 Comparing first person ethnographic accounts of young people living working and creating relationships in cities across Asia this volume explores their contemporary lives pressures ideals and aspirations Delving into topical issues such as education social inequality family pressures changing values precarious employment and political discontent the book explores how young people are pushing boundaries and imagining their future In this way they explore and create the identities of their local and global surroundings

Transitioning to Adulthood in Asia: School, Work, and Family Life Wei-Jun Jean Yeung, Cheryl Alipio, Frank F. Furstenberg, Jr., 2013-03-07 In the past decade or so scholars in the United States have identified the emergence of a new distinct stage of life as adolescence has become protracted and most young people of recent generations take longer to achieve economic and psychological autonomy than they did a half century ago This new life stage in between adolescence and adulthood when young people are in a semiautonomous state has come to be known as early adulthood Main characteristics of this new life stage include a later entry into the work force a longer period of time living in the natal home and a delayed age at marriage and childbearing These trends not only have profound implications for young adults well being and intergenerational relationships but also challenge social institutions such as family schools labor markets and many youth serving institutions

Lifestyle Media in Asia Fran Martin,Tania Lewis,2016-05-20 Across Asia consumer culture is increasingly shaping everyday life with neoliberal economic and social policies increasingly adopted by governments who see their citizens as individualised sovereign consumers with choices about their lifestyles and identities One aspect of this development has been the emergence of new wealthy middle classes with lifestyle aspirations shaped by national regional and global media especially by a range of new popular lifestyle media which includes magazines television and mobile and social media This book explores how far everyday conceptions and experiences of identity are being transformed by media cultures across the region It considers a range of different media in different Asian contexts contrasting how the shaping of lifestyles in Asia differs from similar processes in Western countries and assessing how the new lifestyle media represents not just a new emergent media culture but also illustrates wider cultural and social changes in the Asian region

Asia in Europe, Europe in Asia Srilata Ravi,Mario Rutten,Beng-Lan Goh,2004-06-30 The book presents a unique combination of the study of contemporary and historical practices between Asia and Europe and brings forth some of the latest thinking on the subject Recent debates have centered primarily on contemporary aspects of the Europe Asia partnership in terms of international relations and economic linkages The present volume complements this political and economic interest in Europe Asia relationship by focusing on the academic social and cultural connections between the two regions The contributions in this volume have a contemporary focus but contextualize the themes within a historical perspective They deal with academic discourses on the region on modernity and entrepreneurship they discuss the long term exchange of knowledge in specific scientific fields and they focus on the cultural interconnections in the area of film literature and migration The originality of this book lies in its interdisciplinary approach to the question of Asia Europe and in its emphasis on the multifaceted complexity of the relationship between these two regions It brings together the diversity of local histories ideas and agencies in both Europe and Asia into a universal project of knowledge formation in order to reveal their contribution to the making of the world we are in patronage and the reform movement Southeast Asian Responses to Globalization Francis Kok-Wah Loh,Joakim Öjendal,2005 Focuses on the globalization democratization nexus and shows how governance is being restructured and democracy sometimes deepened in this new global era Class and the Communist Party of China, 1978-2021 Marc Blecher,David S G Goodman,Yingjie Guo,Jean-Louis Rocca,Beibei Tang,2022-02-24 By examining the changing political economy in China through detailed studies of the peasantry workers middle classes and the dominant class this volume reveals the Communist Party of China s CCP s impact on social change in China between 1978 and 2021 This book explores in depth the CCP s programme of reform and openness that had a dramatic impact on China s socio economic trajectory following the death of Mao Zedong and the end of the Cultural Revolution It also goes on to chart the acceptance of Market Socialism highlighting the resulting emergence of a larger middle class while also appreciating the profound consequences this created for workers and peasants Additionally this volume examines the development of the dominant class which remains a defining feature of China s political economy and the Party state Providing an in depth analysis of class as understood by the CCP in conjunction with sociological interpretations of socio economic and socio political change this study will be of interest to students and scholars of Chinese Politics Chinese History Asian Politics and Asian studies

Economic Dynamism in the Asia-Pacific Grahame Thompson,2005-10-18 This broad ranging student textbook examines the rise of the Asia Pacific as an important economic region It looks at the sources of that rise its future development and the possible consequences for the global economy The analysis is divided into three sections considering how far the Asia Pacific has developed as a regional system looking at the patterns of integration of the principal economies the relationship between the key individual economies of Japan Korea China and the United States how the rise of the Asia Pacific economy has affected the international economic system In so doing it provides much needed insights not only into the growth of this powerful economic region but also the international context of Asia Pacific development Privilege and Anxiety Hagen Koo,2022-07-15 In Privilege and Anxiety Hagen Koo examines what has happened to the Korean middle class in the era of neoliberal globalization and demonstrates that global economic change brought more profound changes than mere economic decline and shrinking size to this class Globalization has inserted an axis of polarization into the middle class separating a small minority that benefits from the globalized economy from the large majority that suffers from it This internal differentiation generates a challenging dynamic within Korean society as the newly affluent seek to distinguish themselves from the rest of the middle class to establish a new privileged class position Privilege and Anxiety explores how these tensions play out in three areas consumption and lifestyle residential differentiation and education In all three areas the dominant orientation of the affluent middle class is to preserve their newfound privilege and to pass it onto their children Their new class practices Koo argues bring great anxiety to both the winners and losers of neoliberal globalization

Capital and Knowledge in Asia Heidi Dahles,Otto van den Muijzenberg,2003-09-02 Global economic integration widening communication networks and government policies supportive of private enterprise are changing opportunities for accumulating wealth status and power In varying degrees throughout Asia this process is accompanied by the development of service enterprises such as banking insurance legal firms and IT firms which provide access to the resources required for a profitable connection to the wider world This book focuses on the key role played by producer services in shaping new business areas and new patterns for social mobility and their interdependence with the State as either a facilitator of or an obstacle to the emergence and flourishing of the new professions

Women in Asia Louise Edwards, Mina Roces, 2020-07-25

Women in Asia Tradition Modernity and Globalisation surveys the transformation in the status of women since 1970 in a diverse range of nations Malaysia China Indonesia Singapore the Philippines India Taiwan Vietnam Hong Kong Korea Japan and Burma Within these 13 national case studies the book presents new arguments about being women being Asian and being modern in contemporary Asia Recent social changes in women s place in society are untangled in recognition that not all change is progress and that not all modernity enhances women s status The authors suggest that the improvements in women s status within the Asian region vary dramatically according to the manner in which women interact with the particular economic and ideological forces in each nation Each contributor has focussed on a particular country in their area of expertise They present innovative arguments relating to the problem of being women in Asia during a period of dramatic social and political changes Each national case study explores key social and economic markers of women s status such as employment rates wage differentials literacy rates and participation in politics or business The effects of population control programs legislation on domestic violence and female infanticide and women s role in the family and the workforce are also discussed The book poses questions as to how women have negotiated these shifts and in the process created a modern Asian woman Specialists from a variety of disciplines including history anthropology sociology demography gender studies and psychology grapple with the complexities and ambivalences presented by the multiple faces of the modern Asian woman Complete with a list of recommended readings and a web site with links to electronic resources the book will be of particular interest to undergraduate students of Asian studies and women s studies as well as scholars and postgraduate students interested in comparative women s studies
