New Society Perspectives For Today's World:

Worldviews, Science And Us: Interdisciplinary Perspectives On Worlds, Cultures And Society - Proceedings Of The Workshop On "Worlds, Cultures And Society" Diederik Aerts, Hendrik Pinxten, Immanuel Wallerstein, Bart D'hooghe, 2011-03-28 This volume is part of the Worldviews Science and Us series of proceedings and contains several contributions on the subject of worlds cultures and society It represents the proceedings of several workshops and discussion panels organized by the Leo Apostel Center for Interdisciplinary studies within the framework of the Research on the Construction of Integrating Worldviews research community set up by the Flanders Fund for Scientific Research over the period of time between 2005 to 2010 Further information about this research community and a full list of the associated international research centers can be found at www.vub.ac.be/CLEA/res/worldviews

Sex, Race, and Class—The Perspective of Winning Selma James, 2012-05-01 In 1972 Selma James set out a new political perspective Her starting point was the millions of unwaged women who working in the home and on the land were not seen as workers and their struggles viewed as outside of the class struggle Based on her political training in the Johnson Forest Tendency founded by her late husband C L R James on movement experience South and North and on a respectful study of Marx she redefined the working class to include sectors previously dismissed as marginal For James the class struggle presents itself as the conflict between the reproduction and survival of the human race and the domination of the market with its exploitation wars and ecological devastation She sums up her strategy for change as Invest in Caring not Killing This selection spanning six decades traces the development of this perspective in the course of building an international campaigning network It includes excerpts from the classic The Power of Women and the Subversion of the Community which launched the domestic labor debate the exciting Hookers in the House of the Lord which describes a church occupation by sex workers an incisive review of the C L R James masterpiece The Black Jacobins a reappraisal of the novels of Jean Rhys and of the leadership of Julius Nyerere the groundbreaking Marx and Feminism and more The writing is lucid and without jargon The ideas never abstract spring from the experience of organising from trying to make sense of the successes and the setbacks and from the need to find a way forward

Handbook of Research on Perspectives on Society and Technology Addiction Sine Nazlı, Rengim, Sari, Gülşah, 2023-06-19 Internet based technologies prevail in most of the world Along with the positive features of digital technologies that permeate our lives in almost every area including lifestyles and daily practices the traces of negative aspects have also become evident Digital addiction is among the most important of these aspects It is obvious that communication which has been maintained in various forms since the beginning of humanity has been shaped by the period in which it is lived The technology based transformation has transformed communication which has been adopted to the internet in the world into a completely different form Communication which has become sustainable at any time and anywhere regardless of location led by the never ending elements of continuity and interaction has turned into an indispensable form Perspectives on Society and Technology Addiction examines every subject of digital addiction in an interdisciplinary way It discusses the issues about what technology addiction is how to deal with this addiction how to use the existing technology in a positive way how to deal with this technology for disadvantaged groups and concerns in the fields of social science and communication science Covering topics such as Consumer 5.0 experience design and information markets this premier reference source is an essential resource for sociologists policymakers students and educators of higher education researchers and academicians Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World Mary Zeiss Stange, Carol K.

Oyster, Jane E. Sloan, 2011-02-23 This work includes 1000 entries covering the spectrum of defining women in the contemporary world Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1993 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Asia's Clean Revolution David Angel, Michal Rock, 2017-09-20 The world's environmental future will be determined in significant part by what happens in the rapidly industrialising and urban economies of Asia The sheer scale of urban population and industrial growth in Asia from Indonesia to China and the energy and materials intensive character of the development process constitutes a dark shadow over the region's and indeed the world's environment And yet this challenge is also an opportunity Precisely because so much of the urban industrial investment within developing Asia has yet to take place the opportunity exists to shape a different development future one that is far less energy materials and waste intensive Asia's Clean Revolution examines the prospects for and pathways to such a new trajectory The book lays out a path breaking vision of how developing economies might go beyond environmental regulation and put in place an array of policies and institutions that could integrate environmental industrial and technological goals These findings provide important input for negotiators considering climate change on a global scale The book approaches the challenge of growth and environment in Asia in a novel way by identifying six major transformational dynamics under way in the world today and assessing whether these can be harnessed to the goal of improved environmental performance of industry With a set of specially commissioned chapters from the leading authorities in North America and Asia this ground breaking book is the first to present concrete policy solutions to the looming crisis driven by large scale urban industrial growth in developing Asia

Multicultural Education in Glocal Perspectives Yun-Kyung Cha, Jagdish Gundara, Seung-Hwan Ham, Moosung Lee, 2016-11-15 This conceptually rich and empirically grounded book draws upon expertise from a panel of emerging and established international scholars to explore the institutionalization and effect of multicultural education on a global scale Previous studies of multicultural education have largely ignored the significance of understanding the combination of multiple sociopolitical influences on multicultural education in both policy and practice Filling this void this book sheds light on the two main reasons for taking a glocal perspective on multicultural education First children should be provided with meaningful learning opportunities to acquire the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to live in a culturally and ethno linguistically diverse society where the distinction between the local and the global is becoming blurred Second understanding both the global grammar and the local semantics of multicultural education helps researchers and policy makers grasp the whole picture of multicultural education as an evolving social construct and phenomenon This new book provokes a new round of discussion and research to expand and enrich our inquiry into cultural diversity and educational inclusion COVID-19 Disinformation: A Multi-National, Whole of Society Perspective Ritu Gill, Rebecca

Goolsby, 2022-05-03 The COVID 19 pandemic is not only a threat to our health and economy but also has strong implications for defence and security Indeed defence leaders have highlighted a second fight surrounding the spread of COVID 19 namely disinformation and preparing to face adversaries willing to exploit the public health crisis for nefarious purposes The current pandemic is a breeding ground for the propagation of disinformation as it represents the first major global health event in which large social media platforms have become the main distributor of information This multi national edited volume consists of contributions from Defence Science academia and industry including NATO Headquarters United States Netherlands Singapore United Kingdom and Norway The content is aimed at a diverse audience including NATO members researchers from defence and security organizations academics and militaries including analysts and practitioners as well as policy makers This volume focuses on various aspects of COVID 19 disinformation including identifying global dominant disinformation narratives and the methods used to spread disinformation examining COVID 19 disinformation within the broader context of the cognitive domain examining the psychological effects of COVID 19 disinformation and COVID 19 disinformation on instant messaging platforms along with examining various countermeasures to disinformation Global Civil Society 2005/6 Helmut K Anheier, Mary Kaldor, Marlies Glasius, 2005-10-18 This fifth Global Civil Society Yearbook continues the intellectual shaping of an emerging global civil society As the Global Call for Action on Poverty G Cap makes its voice heard under the whiteband symbol this analysis of current issues of migration climate change and UN reform with a focus on gender and social movements provides a timely intellectual resource to strengthen shared commitments Mary Robinson These annual volumes have themselves become an occasion for enacting global civil society each Yearbook is a project that involves hundreds of people around the world in various ways and they often fight it out around divergent understandings of critical issues This volume enters the extreme zones we face today the growing injustices which increasingly are only addressed by global civil society actors but also the powerful innovations brought about by new technologies that can construct whole new global spaces for global civil society Saskia Sassen It is increasingly difficult to recall memorable analyses of international social movements before GCS But after half a decade each annual issue is not only a magnum opus but is also definitive distinctive comparative The study of global civil society can never be the same Timothy M Shaw Professor of Commonwealth Governance Development Director Institute of Commonwealth Studies School of Advanced Study University of London The annual Global Civil Society Yearbooks provide an indispensable guide to global civil society or civic participation and action around the world Each yearbook includes commissioned contributions from leading commentators across the social sciences on the latest issues and developments Each yearbook also explores and presents the latest approaches to measuring and analyzing global civil society and provides a chronology of key global civil society events in the year The 2005 6 Yearbook explores the role of gender in global civil society and investigates the core issues of labour migration climate change and UN reform In part three contributions consider the impact of social forums and wireless technology as well as reviewing the discussion of networks from the 2004 5 Yearbook Illustrated throughout with summaries maps figures tables and photographs and encompassing regular features such as updates on previous editions and the annual data reports the Global Civil Society Yearbook remains the standard work on all aspects of contemporary global civil society for activists practitioners students and academics alike It is essential reading for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the key actors forms and manifestations of global civil society around the world today
