The Gospel of Jesus John Davidson, 2005 An uplifting study of Jesus his times and his teaching New Testament Basics Stefan Alkier, David M. Moffitt, 2022-10-11 New Testament Basics introduces college university seminary and divinity school students to the study of the New Testament Authors Stefan Alkier and David M Moffitt adopt five major aims i to explore how the Bible came to exist dealing with the formation and significance of the Christian canon ii to discuss the ways the Bible continues to exert influence on contemporary culture demonstrating the ongoing value and importance of biblical literacy iii to introduce readers to some of the most fundamental methods used in the study of the New Testament including a substantial discussion of semiotics and its usefulness for New Testament interpretation iv to provide a survey of central historical social and economic information as important contextual knowledge for interpreting the New Testament and v to offer some brief discussion of the contents of several New Testament texts and consider ways they might inform theological reflection In the end Alkier and Moffitt s New Testament Basics fosters within students important competencies needed to read and interpret the New Testament for themselves The Gospel of Matthew and the Sayings Source Q Frans Neirynck, 1998 Essentials of New Testament Greek John Homer Huddilston, 1895 Nag Hammadi Bibliography 1970-1994 David Scholer, 2020-10-26 This is a sequel to the immensely useful Nag Hammadi Bibliography 1948 1969 which was the first volume to appear in the Nag Hammadi Studies series The volume provides a complete integration of Supplements I XXIV to the Bibliography as published in Novum Testamentum 1971 1997 with additions and corrections In total the update contains over 6092 entries Nag Hammadi and Gnostic studies continue to be of critical importance for the study of ancient religions in the Graeco Roman world and for the study of the world of early Christianity and the present bibliography provides an indispensable reference tool for work in these fields Institutionalization of Authority and the Naming of Jesus Yolanda Dreyer, 2012-01-25 This book is about the names given to Jesus by those followers responsible for putting his words and deeds into writing the earliest Christian scribes In the first century Mediterranean world the first name of male person was his proper name The second name indicated the family or clan to which he belonged whereas the third name was an honorary title bestowed on him because of some achievement good fortune physical attribute or special excellence Honorary titles were bestowed on Jesus mostly after his death Such titles were often given to sages The titles could either amplify Jesus wisdom and empower people or serve as instruments of power This book aims to demonstrate the ideological and political mystification of Jesus in the transmission of the tradition about him It illustrates the relevance of The social history of formative Christianity The evolution of the Jesus traditions The genre of the gospels as biography and The institutionalization of charismatic authority A Credible Christianity Walter Kania Ph D, Walter Kania, 2010 A Syrian poet noted that The world holds two classes of men intelligent men without religion and religious men without intelligence A Nobel Prize winning physicist Dr Steven Weinberg said Religion is an insult to human dignity With or without it you would have good people doing good things and evil people doing evil things But for good people to do evil things that takes religion Could they both be right Or is it possible that we could have a Christianity that is intelligible believable and credible In order for that to be true we would need to rescue our traditional notions and practice of the Christian faith from its ancient fraudulent time warp We need to help it remove itself from the cultural trance in which it exists and the faulty beliefs which it holds We continue to survive on and promote an ancient discredited history of Jesus and the Church The secular and Biblical Scholarship of the last 200 years has been largely ignored in today s Christian beliefs and practices What we have today in Christianity is a distorted disfigured and fraudulent hero of the Christian faith We have numbed and parked our mental faculties regarding the historic knowledge of our religion and the truthful accurate and proper exercise or practice of our religion A Credible Christianity provides you with the best and latest scholarship behavioral research and psychological insight Galileo a hero of the Renaissance who was accused of sacrilege in his day said I do not feel obliged to believe that the same God who has endowed us with sense reason and intellect has intended us to forego their use      Rhetorical

Argumentation in Biblical Texts Anders Eriksson, Thomas H. Olbricht, Walter Übelacker, 2002-06-01 In the latest volume in the Emory Studies in Early Christianity series the contributors seek a better understanding of how various biblical authors present their arguments support their claims and attempt to persuade their readers A century ago the rhetorical analysis of texts focused on the study of rhetorical figures in texts elocutio In the mid twentieth century scholars such as James Muilenburg Hans Dieter Betz and Wilhelm Wuellner introduced biblical scholars to the illustrious tradition of rhetorical study These scholars tended to focus on the arrangement of the texts themselves dispositio During the last ten years however interpreters have increasingly studied the rhetorical argumentation in texts The authors in this volume examine rhetorical argumentation in the Hebrew Bible the Gospels the Pauline letters and the Book of Revelation offering striking new readings of these materials Contributors include J David Hester Amador Center for Rhetoric and Hermeneutics R Dean Anderson Valkenburg The Netherlands Harold W Attridge Yale Divinity School L Gregory Bloomquist St Paul University Ottawa Michael R Cosby Messiah College Rodney K Duke Appalachian State University Frans H van Eemeren University of Amsterdam Anders Eriksson Lund University Alan J Hauser Appalachian State University Roy R Jeal William and Catherine Booth College Manfred Kraus Eberhard Karls Universit t T bingen John W Marshall University of Toronto Roland Meynet Pontificia Universit Gregoriana Thomas H Olbricht Emeritus Pepperdine University Carol Poster Florida State University Rollin A Ramsaran Emmanuel School of Religion Vernon K Robbins Emory University and University of Stellenbosch Russell B Sisson Union College Jerry L Sumney Lexington Theological Seminary C Jan Swearingen Texas A Lauri Thur n Univeristy of Joensuu Johan S Vos Vrije Universiteit and Duane F Watson Malone College      For the Nation Nicholas R. Brown, 2016-09-29 The nature of the kingdom Jesus proclaims in the Gospels has long been a subject of intense theological debate More recently the lines of this debate have dramatically shifted as several leading historical Jesus scholars and Christian social ethicists have argued that Jesus kingdom proclamation most likely expresses a first century Jewish hope for Israel's restoration. Yet while several are now sanguine that Jesus kingdom vision constitutes nothing less than a full throated restoration of Israel's nationality they are just as certain it rejects a restoration of Israel's land. As such it has become increasingly fashionable to say that an authentic practice of the kingdom ethic that Jesus enunciates must necessarily be a territorial. The purpose of this work is to respond to these arguments and show why this can and indeed should not be the case. Through a careful and detailed process of historical investigation biblical exegesis theological exploration and ethical analysis we will come to see that not only is the kingdom that Jesus proclaims inextricably landed but also why such a kingdom is integral to articulating a Christian ethic of territorial governance.

Encounter, 1995 Fundamental Theology Matthew L. Becker, 2014-12-18

Introducing university students to the academic discipline of Christian theology this book serves as an orientation to fundamental theology from a Protestant perspective by addressing issues that are preliminary and foundational to the discipline in the context of a liberal arts university. The book also sets forth what has traditionally been called a theological encyclopedia that is a description of the parts of Christian theology that together form the discipline into a unified academic subject. Finally the book examines the relation of Christian theology to the arts and sciences within the university and underscores the need for critical and positive interaction with these other academic disciplines.

Bible Review, 2001 Seminatorul (The Sower), Volume One, Number One Hamilton Moore, Ilie Soritau, Adrian Giorgiov, 2019-09-10

About the Journal This first volume of Seminatorul The Sower The Journal of Ministry and Biblical Research has been produced through the collaboration of Emanuel University Press the Emanuel Ethics and Society Research Centre and distinguished colleagues from the Hungarian Baptist Academy. The publishing efforts were aided by Dr. Almasi Tibor Rector Hungarian Baptist Academy. The volume comprises the Proceedings of the International Theological Conference held by the Department of Theology on 6th May 2016 in Emanuel University of Oradea. The theme of the Conference was Hebrews Its Historical Context and Theological Significance. For many scholars Hebrews 13:22 gives some guidance concerning the nature of the epistle. Bear with my word of exhortation for I have written to you briefly. The suggestion is that the background may be a sermon given on a certain occasion and then later adapted into letter form with the addition of personal comments at the end. But what of its readers? It is thought that the first readers were Hebrews and the camp of 13:13 ancient Judaism. They were Jews attracted to the Christian community and who had identified with it. But Christianity had none of the ritual trappings they had known: no altar, no priests, no sacrifices. They were meeting ridicule, opposition, imprisonment and being disowned and disinherited by their families. 10:32 Some had coped well with this adversity but others were looking back to the temple from where they had come. 10:32-39 Was not Judaism God ordained? The author of Hebrews seeks to set before them the better things which have become theirs: a better priesthood, better sanctuary, better sacrifice, better covenant, true access to the very presence of the Most High. 10:19-21. Also the greater things that is

Christ greater than angels Moses Joshua and Aaron The Proceedings Papers in this Journal will touch upon some of the aspects of the situation outlined above The significance of the opening verses of Hebrews for the whole epistle is outlined in the opening paper Other papers focus on the themes endurance pilgrimage echoes in interpretation a comparison of the epistle with Philo the significance of the time of reformation for worship in Hebrews a semiotic approach regarding Psalm 2 and the profile of the Son the concept of repentance and critique of the perspectives of George Milligan regarding the importance of the epistle Emanuel University continues to be a strong witness as a conservative university in all of Europe It should be understood that the sources highlighted and the views presented in these papers remain those of the contributors themselves Hamilton Moore Editor The Epistles for All Christians David Smith,2020-09-25 In The Epistles for All Christians David Smith argues that epistolary literature offers analogous evidence of circulation to the Gospels Since Richard Bauckham s edited volume The Gospels for All Christians was published in 1998 debate over the validity of the contributors claims that the Gospels were written for all Christians has revolved around interpretation Smith brings circulation to bear on the conversation Studying ancient media practices of publication and circulation and using social network theory Smith makes a compelling case that if the evangelists did not expect their texts to circulate they would be atypical 2 Corinthians, a Letter about Reconciliation Ivar Vegge,2008 Ivar Vegge argues that Paul in line with ancient moral philosophers letter writers and rhetoricians used idealized praise in 2 Cor 1 9 and particularly in 2 Cor 7 5 16 and blame or threats especially in 2 Cor 10 13 to promote reconciliation between the Corinthians and Paul as apostle BOOK JACKET
