New Views On Luke And Acts:

New Views on Luke and Acts Earl Richard, 1990 This volume is a product of the Luke Acts Task Force of the Catholic Biblical Association The intended readership of this collection of articles is threefold The introductory essays address the relative beginner in Biblical studies as well as those who do not specialize in Luke and Acts These are provided with an overview of Luke the early Christian writer The principal reader of this collection however is the Biblical student and teacher who requires a relatively comprehensive survey of Lukan studies in terms of content and methodology Both teacher and student will find in these essays an excellent companion to the actual text of Luke and Acts At the same time a number of these essays break new ground and offer a challenge to other New Testament scholars

Acts (Paideia: Commentaries on the New Testament) Mikeal C. Parsons, 2008-12-01 In Acts the third of eighteen volumes in the Paideia commentary series leading biblical scholar Mikeal Parsons gleans fresh theological insight into Acts by attending carefully to the cultural and educational context from which it emerges Parsons see Acts as a charter document explaining and legitimating Christian identity for a general audience of early Christians living in the ancient Mediterranean world Pastors graduate and seminary students and professors will benefit from this readable commentary as will theological libraries The Paideia commentaries are designed to be read through and used not shelved and referenced The main text is supplemented with maps sidebars and photographs Indexes and reference lists help readers locate discussions in the commentary and in other secondary literature

Reverberations of the Exodus in Scripture R. Michael Fox, 2014-05-12 Inner biblical studies is a blossoming field Within this growing specialization Reverberations of the Exodus in Scripture is a unique and refreshing contribution Unlike most studies in this area focusing either solely on how Old Testament passages interact with other Old Testament texts or on the use of the Old Testament in the New Testament this volume examines how a central and paradigmatic biblical event the exodus from Egypt resurfaces time and again in both testaments Furthermore the collaborative nature of this project has allowed specialists to construct each chapter Readers of Reverberations of the Exodus in Scripture will gain a better understanding of the role of the exodus throughout the biblical canon and a deeper appreciation for its place in biblical theology

Lukan Authorship of Hebrews David L. Allen, 2010-06-01 The fifth volume in the popular NEW AMERICAN COMMENTARY STUDIES IN BIBLE THEOLOGY series argues that gospel writer Luke is also the author of Hebrews

Parables for Preachers Barbara E. Reid, 2000-08 Reid aids preachers by bringing together current biblical research on the parables in the hope that it will open new vistas of meaning and help spark their creativity She also offers an understanding of how parables communicate and invite preachers to try out the parabolic techniques of preaching Parables for Preachers is for everyone interested in obtaining a deeper understanding of parables

The God of Old Greg Forbes, 2000-10-01 This book is a study of the parables unique to the Third Gospel aiming in particular to establish a link between Luke's choice of these parables and his overall purpose in writing In comparison to the synoptic kingdom parables

one distinguishing feature of the Lukan parables is their more personal portrait of the character and the nature of God himself Luke's desire is to demonstrate to his readers whoever they are that in Christianity the realization of the Jewish hope has occurred The parables promote this idea by offering both continuity OT and contrast contemporary Judaism in their portrait of God Thus as well as operating in a parenthetic sense the parables also help to legitimize Luke's argument regarding fulfilment Journal of Biblical and Pneumatological Research Paul Elbert, 2009-09-01 Journal of Biblical and

Pneumatological Research VOLUME ONE FALL 2009 The Journal of Biblical and Pneumatological Research JBPR is a new international peer reviewed academic serial dedicated to narratively and rhetorically minded exegesis of biblical and related texts Potential topics include theological and pneumatological interpretation the role of spiritual experience with authorial canonical and contemporary contexts and the contextual activity of Ruach Yahweh Ruach Elohim and various identifications of the Holy Spirit JBPR hopes to stimulate new thematic and narrative critical exploration and discovery in both traditional and under explored areas of research CONTENTS Contextual Analysis and Interpretation with Sensitivity to the Spirit as Interactive Person Editor's Explanation and Welcome to JBPR KEITH WARRINGTON Suffering and the Spirit in Luke Acts WILHELM J WESSELS Empowered by the Spirit of Yahweh A Study of Micah 3 8 KENNETH BASS The Narrative and Rhetorical Use of Divine Necessity in Luke Acts JACQUELINE GREY Acts of the Spirit Ezekiel 37 in the Light of Contemporary Speech Act Theory JOHN C POIRIER Spirit Gifted Callings in the Pauline Corpus Part I The Laying On of Hands ROB STARNER Luke Storyteller Interpreter Evangelist A Review Article Review of Wilda C Gafney Daughters of Miriam Women Prophets in Ancient Israel Leonard P Mare Review of Richard M Davidson Flame of Yahweh Sexuality in the Old Testament Roger D Cotton Review of Robby Waddell The Spirit of the Book of Revelation David G Clark Review of Graham Twelftree In the Name of Jesus Exorcism Among Early Christians Jon Mark Ruthven Reviews of Gordon Fee Galatians Janet Meyer Everts and George Lyons The Characterization of God in Acts Ling Cheng, 2015-02-12 Based on the plot oriented nature of the Acts narrative a key thought behind this book is how God is revealed in the deployment of characters and events God's supreme saving will and mission plan determine the development of human history as well as the narrative God's sovereign authority and power governs the movement of characters and the development of events and thus assures the fulfilment of his salvific plan From the carrying out of the divine redemptive plan emerges a God who is invisible yet perceivable dominant yet cogent and continuous yet changing The Character and Purpose of Luke's Christology Douglas Buckwalter, 1996-08-28 Luke's christology is carefully designed Luke portrays the exalted Jesus as God's co equal by the kinds of things he does and says from heaven Through the Holy Spirit the divine name and personal manifestations Jesus behaves toward people in Luke Acts as does Yahweh in the Old Testament His power and knowledge are supreme Jesus sovereignly reigns over Israel the church the powers of darkness and the world Luke deepens this portrait by depicting Jesus as deity who by nature behaves as servant the earthly Jesus acted among his people as one who serves the exalted Jesus continues serving his people by strengthening and encouraging them in their witness of him to the world That the believers in Acts resemble the way Jesus behaved in the Gospel means that they too are now imaging some of his servant like character in their witness of him

The Hermeneutical Spirit Amos Yong, 2017-11-06 In the contemporary biblical studies climate proposals regarding the theological interpretation of Scripture are contested particularly but not only because they privilege encourage and foster ecclesial or other forms of normative commitments as part and parcel of the hermeneutical horizon through which scriptural texts are read and understood Within this context confessional approaches have been emerging including some from within the nascent pentecostal theological tradition This volume builds on the author's previous work in theological method to suggest a pentecostal perspective on theological interpretation that is rooted in the conviction that all Christian reading of sacred Scripture is post Pentecost meaning after the Day of Pentecost outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh in anticipation of the coming reign of God In that respect such a pentecostal interpretative perspective is not parochially for those within the modern day movement bearing that name but is arguably apostolic in following after the scriptural imagination of the earliest disciples of Jesus the messiah and therefore has ecumenical and missional purchase across space and time The Hermeneutical Spirit thus provides close readings of various texts across the scriptural canon as a model for Christian theological interpretation of Scripture suitable for the twenty first century global context

The Saving Cross of the Suffering Christ Benjamin R. Wilson, 2016-07-25 What is the place of the cross in the thought of the third evangelist This book seeks to show the central significance of the death of Jesus for Luke's understanding of 1 how salvation is accomplished and 2 what it means for Jesus to be the messiah Whereas previous authors have helpfully attended to individual motifs within Luke's account of the passion this book takes more of a wide angle approach to the topic moving from the very first allusions to Jesus rejection at the beginning of Luke's gospel all the way through to the retrospective references to Jesus death that occur throughout the speeches of Acts By focusing on the inter relationship of the various parts that form the whole of the Lukan portrayal of Jesus death Wilson proposes fresh solutions to several of the intractable exegetical disputes related to the place of the cross in Lukan theology thereby helping to situate Lukan soteriology within the broader context of Jewish and Christian belief and practice in the first century

The Church, Migration, and Global (In)Difference Darren J. Dias, Jaroslav Z. Skira, Michael S. Attridge, Gerard Mannion, 2021-01-21 The painful reality faced by refugees and migrants is one of the greatest moral challenges of our time in turn becoming a focus of significant scholarship This volume examines the global phenomenon of migration in its theological historical and socio political dimensions and of how churches and faith communities have responded to the challenges of such mass human movement The contributions reflect global perspectives with contributions from African Asian European North American and South American scholars and contexts The essays are interdisciplinary at the intersection of religion anthropology history political science gender and post colonial studies The volume brings together a variety of perspectives inter related by ecclesiological and theological concerns Narrativity in Biblical and Related Texts George J. Brooke, Jean-Daniel Kaestli, 2000 Seventeen innovative studies are collected in this volume which has been produced under the aegis of the Centre for Biblical Studies University of Manchester and L Institut des sciences bibliques Universite de Lausanne The majority of the studies engage with narrative through providing insightful working examples Building on the many contributions of recent narratological research for the most part the studies in this collection avoid the technical language of narratology as they present fresh insights at many levels Some essays focus more on the implied author some on the implied reader or hearer and some on the way particular messages are constructed some of the studies consider how author message and reader are all interconnected There are several creative proposals for refining genre definition from law and wisdom to gospel and apocryphal writings Some studies highlight the way in which narratives can contain ethical religious and cultural messages Sensitivity to narrative is also shown by some contributors to expose in intriguing ways the redactional processes behind the final form of texts Students of narrative in the ancient world will find much to consider in this book and others engaged with literary studies more generally will discover that scholars of the worlds of the Bible and Late Antiquity have much to offer them God as Father in Paul Abera M. Mengestu, 2013-08-28 God as Father in Paul explores Paul's use of the kinship term Father to refer to God along with related familial terms children of God and Christ followers as brothers and sisters as part of a study of the use of kinship language in the identity formation of early Christianity Mengestu argues that these kinship terms are shared modes of identity constructions within the wider textual and cultural settings the Roman Empire the Roman Stoic philosophers the Hebrew Bible and ancient Jewish literature from which Paul draws on as well as contests Employing theoretical kinship and social identity theory as well as interpretative approaches imperial critical and narrative approaches to Paul he contends that Paul uses God as Father consistently strategically and purposefully in both stable and crisis situations to develop a narrative orienting framework that images the community of Christ followers as a family that belongs to God who together with the Lord Jesus Christ bestows on them equal but diverse membership in the family The narrative so constructed forms the foundation for referring to Christ followers as children of God and brothers and sisters of one another It constructs boundaries and serves as nexus of transformation and negotiation Latino/a Theology and the Bible Francisco Lozada Jr., Fernando F. Segovia, 2021-05-11 This book explores the use of the Bible among Latino/a theologians today Latino/a Theology emerged in the 1980s alongside a broad variety of contextual theological movements and discourses following the Latino/a movement and the formation of Latino/a Studies in the 1960s and 1970s While much work has been done on biblical interpretation in Latino/a biblical criticism little can be found regarding interpretation in Latino/a theological reflection To address this gap in the literature the contributors from various ecclesial affiliations and religious traditions examine the status and role of the Bible in Latino/a Theology Dictionary of Biblical Criticism and Interpretation , Pastoral Letter to Theo Paul Elbert, 2008-01-01 A Pastoral Letter to Theo addresses some of the fundamental concerns of recent research into biblical interpretation by Adele Berlin and Kenneth Archer It also takes into account the communicative literary and rhetorical techniques that were prominent in the Greco Roman world when the New Testament documents were composed Elbert suggests that attention to levels of context plot repetition and characterization or personification comprise a proper method for understanding a New Testament writer's original meaning and intent Generally the potentially groundbreaking thesis in much of Elbert's work is for a literary link between the Spirit language in Paul's letters and the later narrative of Luke Acts Specifically A Pastoral Letter to Theo reflects heartfelt pastoral concerns based on detailed contextual study of early Christianity and Christian experience The book contextually examines in detail several passages pertaining to the ministry of women in missionary minded early Christianity and concludes that this ministry was thought to be vital for the evangelistic enterprise

Community-Forming Power Matthias Wenk, 2004-12-10 In past years the controversy over Luke's concept of the Spirit has centred on the ethical dimension of his pneumatology Community Forming Power sets out to address the issue by assessing the Lukan writings in the light of evidence from Second Temple Judaism and in applying speech act theory to prophetic utterances Wenk argues that the Spirit's role in prophecy cannot be limited to the content of the prophetic speech stripping it artificially from the intention behind it He further argues that the anointed church continues the liberating work of the anointed messiah in embracing the marginalized and thus is instrumental in realizing good news for the poor
