Pinnacle Jake Nellie Irene Snyder Yost, A. B. Snyder, 1970 Pinnacle Jake Albert Benton Snyder, 1962 Pinnacle Jake, as Told by A. B. Snyder to Nellie Snyder Yost, 1963 Pinnacle Jake, as Told Albert Benton Snyder, Nellie Irene Snyder Yost, 1953 Following the Wrong God Home Clive Scott Chisholm, 2009-05-01 Clive Scott Chisholm wryly describes himself as a fugitive from the American Dream A displaced Canadian and a legally registered alien Chisholm set out from his home in upstate New York in 1985 to discover the origins of that dream In Following the Wrong God Home he recounts his personal odyssey describing the people he encountered and the unforgettable stories they told Chisholm's solo journey on foot from the Missouri River to Salt Lake City retraced the 1 100 mile trek of nineteenth century Mormon pioneers In this account he juxtaposes that Mormon search for the dream of community against the modern search for the American dream of individuality muses over how much and how little things have changed in the century and a half since 1847 and creates a narrative informed by the American dreamers he came across from Omaha to Salt Lake City Settlers of the American West Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2015-03-10 Depictions of the American west in literature art and film perpetuate romantic stereotypes of the pioneers the gold crazed 49er the intrepid sodbuster While ennobling the woodsman the farmwife and the lawman this tunnel vision of American history has shortchanged the whaler the assayer the innkeeper and the inventor The westward advance of the trailblazers created demand for a gamut of unsung adventurers surveyors financiers politicians surgeons entertainers grocers and midwives who built communities and businesses in the wilderness amid clashes with Indians epidemics floods droughts and outlawry Chronicling the worthy deeds ethnicities languages and lifestyles of ordinary people who survived a stirring period in American history this book provides biographical information for hundreds of individual pioneers on the North American frontier from the Mississippi River Valley as far west as Alaska Appendices list pioneers by state or country of departure destination ethnicity religion and occupation A chronology of pioneer achievements places them in perspective Money for Nothing Sir Pelham Grenville Wodehouse, 1952-01-01 The picturesque village of Rudge in the Vale dozed in the summer sunshine Along its narrow High Street the only signs of life visible were a cat stropping its backbone against the Jubilee Watering Trough some flies doing deep breathing exercises on the hot window sills and a little group of serious thinkers who propped up against the wall of the Carmody Arms were waiting for that establishment to open At no time is there ever much doing in Rudge's main thoroughfare but the hour at which a stranger entering it is least likely to suffer the illusion that he has strayed into Broadway Piccadilly or the Rue de Rivoli is at two o'clock on a warm afternoon in July You will find Rudge in the Vale if you search carefully in that pleasant section of rural England where the gray stone of Gloucestershire gives place to Worcestershire's old red brick Quiet in fact almost unconscious it nestles beside the tiny river Skirme and lets the world go by somnolently content with its Norman church its eleven public houses its Pop to quote the Automobile Guide of 3 541 and its only effort in the direction of modern progress

the emporium of Chas Bywater Chemist Chas Bywater is a live wire He takes no afternoon siesta but works while others sleep Rudge as a whole is inclined after luncheon to go into the back room put a handkerchief over its face and take things easy for a bit But not Chas Bywater At the moment at which this story begins he was all bustle and activity and had just finished selling to Colonel Meredith Wyvern a bottle of Brophy s Paramount Elixir said to be good for gnat bites Having concluded his purchase Colonel Wyvern would have preferred to leave but Mr Bywater was a man who liked to sweeten trade with pleasant conversation Moreover this was the first time the Colonel had been inside his shop since that sensational affair up at the Hall two weeks ago and Chas Bywater who held the unofficial position of chief gossip monger to the village was aching to get to the bottom of that With the bare outline of the story he was of course familiar Rudge Hall seat of the Carmody family for so many generations contained in its fine old park a number of trees which had been planted somewhere about the reign of Queen Elizabeth This meant that every now and then one of them would be found to have become a wobbly menace to the passer by so that experts had to be sent for to reduce it with a charge of dynamite to a harmless stump Well two weeks ago it seems they had blown up one of the Hall s Elizabethan oaks and as near as a toucher Rudge learned had blown up Colonel Wyvern and Mr Carmody with it The two friends had come walking by just as the expert set fire to the train and had had a very narrow escape Thus far the story was common property in the village and had been discussed nightly in the eleven tap rooms of its eleven public houses But Chas Bywater with his trained nose for news and that sixth sense which had so often enabled him to ferret out the story behind the story when things happen in the upper world of the nobility and gentry could not help feeling that there was more in it than this He decided to give his customer the opportunity of confiding in him
