Driving Germany Thomas Zeller, 2007-02-01 Published in Association with the German Historical Institute Washington D C Hitler s autobahn was more than just the pet project of an infrastructure friendly dictator It was supposed to revolutionize the transportation sector in Germany connect the metropolises with the countryside and encourage motorization The propaganda machinery of the Third Reich turned the autobahn into a hyped up icon of the dictatorship One of the claims was that the roads would reconcile nature and technology Rather than destroying the environment they would embellish the landscape Many historians have taken this claim at face value and concluded that the Nazi regime harbored an inbred love of nature In this book the author argues that such conclusions are misleading Based on rich archival research the book provides the first scholarly account of the landscape of the autobahn New Urban Housing Hilary French, 2006-01-01 A timely investigation of the most innovative recent urban housing constructions The design of high density housing is inextricably linked to the growth of towns and cities as urban centers have increased in both geographical size and density housing has had to be provided to accommodate the numbers and needs of the population Whether highly visible or merged with the existing cityscape a vast proportion of the fabric of any city is made up of residential space New Urban Housing looks at a selection of some of the most inventive contemporary projects built in countries around the world Author Hilary French provides a comprehensive introduction to this building type from its industrial beginnings in London and Paris to New York City s Lower East Side and the 20th century designs of Le Corbusier Antonio Sant Elia and Mies van der Rohe Lavishly illustrated the book examines different formal typologies of urban housing terrace and row houses quadrangles and courtyards city blocks and infill or renovated and reused sites and towers and slab blocks Thirty six case studies from fourteen countries are presented by architects including Steven Holl Richard Meier KoningEizenbergArchitecture Eduardo
