Requiem K626 D Minor Study Score:

Mozart's Requiem Simon P. Keefe, 2012-06-28 Presenting a fresh interpretation of Mozart's Requiem Simon P Keefe redresses a longstanding scholarly imbalance whereby narrow consideration of the text of this famously incomplete work has taken precedence over consideration of context in the widest sense Keefe details the reception of the Requiem legend in general writings fiction theatre and film as well as discussing criticism scholarship and performance Evaluation of Mozart's work on the Requiem turns attention to the autograph score the document in which myths and musical realities collide Franz Xaver S. Ssmayr's completion 1791-2 is also re-appraised and the ideological underpinnings of modern completions assessed Overall the book affirms that Mozart's Requiem fascinating for interacting musical biographical circumstantial and psychological reasons cannot be fully appreciated by studying only Mozart's activities Broad ranging hermeneutic approaches to the work moreover supersede traditionally limited discursive confines Deux Gymnopedies, Orchestral setting

Erik Satie, 2004-09 This is a newly engraved critical edition of Claude Debussy's superb orchestration of two of the Gymnopedies by his friend Erik Satie Debussy used the two outer movements of the original three pieces in reverse order so that Satie's No 3 became No 1 while No 1 became No 2 Satie was virtually unknown as a composer at the time of the 1897 Paris premiere of the orchestral setting which did much to advance his reputation in the early years of the twentieth century The piano originals are now even more renowned than Debussy's orchestration which remains a fixture in the orchestral repertoire The 2004 edition is now made available in a convenient and affordable study score which is sure to be appreciated by musicians students and fans of both composers everywhere Pavane Pour Une Infante Defunte Maurice Ravel, 2004-10 Ravel composed the original piano version of this piece in 1899 after resuming his studies at the Paris Conservatory It was published the next year and became an overnight success Despite some self criticism of his youthful work for being poor in form Ravel thought well enough of it to prepare an orchestral version in late 1910 which was given its premiere under the baton of Henry Wood at the Manchester Gentlemen's Concerts on 27 February 1911 This newly engraved critical edition will be appreciated by Ravel fans students and conductors everywhere With the demise of the publisher E. F. Kalmus the only authorized source for this edition is Serenissima Music where the large score and orchestra parts are now available NU

F. Kalmus in 2007 Fortunately Dr McAlister was able to retain his copyrights so Serenissima is proud to be the exclusive publisher of his many outstanding works The matching large conductor score and orchestra parts are also available from Serenissima Music Wine, Women and Song, Op. 333 Johann Strauss, Jr., 2007-10-10 Composed in 1869 for the Vienna Men's Choral Association Strauss Opus 333

An idealized image of European concertgoers has long prevailed in historical overviews of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. This act of listening was considered to be an invisible and amorphous phenomenon, a naturally given mode of perception This narrative influenced the conditions of listening from the selection of repertoire to the construction of concert halls and programmes However as listening moved from the concert hall to the opera house street music and jazz venues new and visceral listening traditions evolved In turn the art of listening was shaped by phenomena of the modern era including media innovation and commercialization This Handbook asks whether how and why practices of music listening changed as the audience moved from pleasure gardens and concert venues in the eighteenth century to living rooms in the twentieth century and mobile devices in the twenty first Through these questions chapters enable a differently conceived history of listening and offer an agenda for future research Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
