Requiem For A Rebel Priest:

Requiem for a Rebel Priest Paulino M. Lim, 1996 Transnational, National, and Personal Voices Elisabetta Marino, 2004 The growing heterogeneity of Asian American and Asian diasporic voices has also given rise to variegated theoretical approaches to these literatures This book attempts to encompass both the increasing awareness of diasporic and transnational issues and more traditional analyses of Asian American culture and literature Thus the articles in this collection range from investigations into the politics of literary and cinematic representation to digging into the past through literary archeology or analyzing how consequential bodies can be in recent literature by Asian American and Asian diasporic women writers The book closes with an interview with critic and writer Shirley Lim where she insightfully deals with these transnational national and personal issues Elisabetta Marino is Assistant Professor of English literature at the University of Rome Tor Vergata Her main fields of interest are Asian American and Asian British literature children s literature Italian American literature Bego a Simal is Assistant Professor of English literature at the Universidade da Coru a Spain She has published critical work on both Asian American literature and comparative cross ethnic studies Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Jurilla, 2010 The most comprehensive bibliography of Filipino novels compiled so far this book lists novels in Tagalog Filipino Tagalog Filipino translation and English published in the Philippines during the twentieth century The Forging of a Rebel Arturo Barea, 2019-03-26 This astonishing autobiographical trilogy hailed by George Orwell and Gabriel Garc a M rquez is the most definitive and personal account of Spain s history during the 20th century Guardian The Forging of a Rebel is an unsurpassed account of Spanish history and society from early in the twentieth century through the cataclysmic events of the Spanish Civil War Arturo Barea's masterpiece charts the author's coming of age in a bruised and starkly unequal Spain. These three volumes recount in lively detail Barea's daily experience of his country as it pitched toward disaster: we are taken from his youthful play and rebellion on the streets of Madrid to his apprenticeship in the business world and to the horrors he witnessed as part of the Spanish army in Morocco during the Rif War. The trilogy culminates in an indelible portrait of the Republican fight against Fascist forces in which the Madrid of Barea's childhood becomes a shell and bullet strewn warzone. Combining historical sweep and authority with poignant characterization and novelistic detail, The Forging of a Rebel is a towering literary and historical achievement.

Curacao Cure and Other Stories Paulino M. Lim, 2005 Philippine Studies, 2000 That Irishman Jane Stanford, 2011-05-01 The story of John O'Connor Power is the story of Ireland's struggle for nationhood itself. Born into poverty in Ballinasloe in 1846, O'Connor Power spent much of his childhood in the workhouse. From here, he rose rapidly through the ranks of the Fenian Movement to become a leading member of the Supreme Council of the Irish Republican Brotherhood. In 1874, he was elected Member for Mayo to the British House of Commons, where he was widely acknowledged to be one of the outstanding orators of his day. His speeches, both in Parliament and to the US House of Representatives, secured crucial concessions and support for the Irish cause. O'Connor Power campaigned tirelessly for the rights of tenant farmers and pioneered the policy of obstructionism to this end. Following his address to a tenants' rights meeting in Mayo, a protest was launched which would quickly become the powerful political force that was the Land League. He was in short one of a distinguished company that included Charles Stewart Parnell, Michael Davitt, and Isaac Butt, who made the dream of an independent Ireland a reality.

Prophets Without Honor William Strabala, 2002 This is a story of political protest grounded in historical necessity. It is the story of a group of American men who happen to be priests who happen to have served decades in American prisons. It is a story about America, a story told before only in Pilipinas, 1998 Sparrows Don't Sing in the Philippines Paulino M.
