Cold War in the Congo Frank Villafana, 2017-09-29 It is widely acknowledged that Congo became an East West battlefield during the first half of the decade of the 1960s yet the participation of Cuban exiles in the struggles is rarely noted In this absorbing volume Villafana details the contribution made by Cuban exiles to the preservation of democracy in Congo When Congo was given its independence by Belgium in 1960 most of its people believed their new government had been installed by the West and opposed it Anti colonial anti government Congolese patriots started fighting Some were pro communist some anti communist and most didn't know the difference Many countries were involved on both sides of this conflict Cuba the Soviet Union The People's Republic of China the United States represented by military advisors the CIA and Cuban exiles Belgium France the United Kingdom and several African nations The Cold War made the involvement of some of these countries predictable but not the Cuban involvement Villafana explores reasons for Castro's involvement in Congo He considers whether Castro was operating with a master plan of which Africa was a key He discusses why Castro chose Che Guevara to head the ill fated military expedition He contemplates why the United States allowed Castro to freely export his revolution and why it used Cuban exiles to prevent the mineral riches of Congo from falling into the hands of international communism Villafana shows that CIA sponsored Miami Cuban exiles were instrumental in thwarting Castro's plans for Congo which were believed to have included a confederacy with Tanzania and Congo Brazzaville to gain control of Central Africa and its vast resources
