Research In Economic Anthropology Vol 3 Research In Economic Anthropology:

Economic Anthropology Society for Economic Anthropology (U.S.),1983-07-26 Developed from the inaugural conference of the Society for Economic Anthropology this collection of papers reflects an interdisciplinary dialogue and a joint interest in a critical review of the various approaches used to examine the organization and transformation of economic systems The Dynamics of Productive Relationships A. F. Robertson,1987 Histories of the Middle East Margariti Eleni Roxani,Adam Sabra,Petra M. Sijpesteijn,2010-12-20 For four decades Abraham L Udovitch has been a leading scholar of the medieval Islamic world its economic institutions social structures and legal theory and practice In pursuing his quest to understand and explain the complex phenomena that these broad rubrics entail he has published widely collaborated internationally with other leading scholars of the Middle East and medieval history and most saliently for the purposes of this volume taught several cohorts of students at Princeton University This volume is therefore dedicated to his intellectual legacy from a uniquely revealing angle the current work of his former students The papers in this volume range chronologically from the period preceding the rise of Islam in Arabia to the Mamluk era geographically from the Western Mediterranean to the Western Indian Ocean and thematically from the political negotiations of Christian and Islamic Mediterranean sovereigns to the historiography of Western Indian Ocean port cities The New Palgrave Dictionary of Economics ,2016-05-18 The award winning The New Palgrave Dictionary of Economics 2nd edition is now available as a dynamic online resource Consisting of over 1 900 articles written by leading figures in the field including Nobel prize winners this is the definitive scholarly reference work for a new generation of economists Regularly updated This product is a subscription based product Incentives and Agriculture in East Africa (Routledge Revivals) Mats Lundahl,2015-08-11 Agriculture is at the centre of the economies of many developing countries and its stagnation and poor performance across large parts of Africa is a major cause for concern First published in 1990 this book focuses on the nature and role of incentives in agricultural organization and production in East Africa looking in particular at the political and ideological determinants of that role Mats Lundahl analyses ways of improving agricultural performance and considers the African socialism of Julius Nyerere in contrast with the market led approaches which he favours A detailed title this volume will of interest to all those concerned with the issues of rural development including students of development studies economics and African studies Power And Poverty Donald W. Attwood,Thomas C Bruneau,John G Galaty,D W Attwood,2019-07-11 This book presents case studies concerning the impact of development projects on societies at various levels of affluence and modernization They demonstrate project variety and the ecological economic political and social contexts within which development is attempted but seldom achieved Interpreting Objects and Collections Susan M. Pearce,1994 This volume brings together for the first time the most significant papers on the interpretation of objects and collections and examines how people relate to material culture and why they collect things The first section of the book discusses the interpretation of objects setting the philosophical and historical context of object interpretation Papers are included which discuss objects variously as historical documents functioning material and as semiotic texts as well as those which examine the politics of objects and the methodology of object study The second section on the interpretation of collections looks at the study of collections in their historical and conceptual context Many topics are covered such as the study of collecting to structure individual identity its affect on time and space and the construction of gender There are also papers discussing collection and ideology collection and social action and the methodology of collection study This unique anthology of articles and extracts will be of inestimable value to all students and professionals involved in the interpretation of objects and collections

Empire and Domestic Economy Terence N. D'Altroy, Christine A. Hastorf, 2005-12-27 The Upper Mantaro Archaeological Research Project is a benchmark for a new level of quality in Andean archaeological research This volume continues to develop UMARP approaches to understanding prehistoric Andean economy and polity The Economics of Ecosystems and Biodiversity: Ecological and Economic Foundations Pushpam Kumar, 2012-12-20 Human well being relies critically on ecosystem services provided by nature Examples include water and air quality regulation nutrient cycling and decomposition plant pollination and flood control all of which are dependent on biodiversity They are predominantly public goods with limited or no markets and do not command any price in the conventional economic system so their loss is often not detected and continues unaddressed and unabated This in turn not only impacts human well being but also seriously undermines the sustainability of the economic system It is against this background that TEEB The Economics of Ecosystems and Biodiversity project was set up in 2007 and led by the United Nations Environment Programme to provide a comprehensive global assessment of economic aspects of these issues This book written by a team of international experts represents the scientific state of the art providing a comprehensive assessment of the fundamental ecological and economic principles of measuring and valuing ecosystem services and biodiversity and showing how these can be mainstreamed into public policies This volume and subsequent TEEB outputs will provide the authoritative knowledge and guidance to drive forward the biodiversity conservation agenda for the next decade An Economic Philosophy of Production, Work and Consumption Rodney Edvinsson, 2022-08-01 An Economic Philosophy of Production Work and Consumption presents a new transhistorical framework of defining production work and consumption It shows that they all share the common feature of intentional physical transformation of something external to the agent at some point in time The book opens with a discussion of various theoretical traditions within economics spanning mainstream and heterodox perspectives and problems with production definitions in use today Next the author outlines various definitions in a more formal manner and provides a discussion on measurement and the production boundary Unproductive work is redefined as socially reproductive i e such that would not be performed on a Robinson Crusoe Island Finally the volume applies the new conceptual framework to various historical cases and discusses the future of production work and consumption This essential volume will be of interest to scholars of economic philosophy and methodology the history of economic thought economic history and national accounting The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
