story of a serial killer who preyed on men women and children desperate to escape Nazi occupied Paris On March 11 1944 police were called to investigate foul smelling smoke pouring from the chimney of an elegant private house near the Arc de Triomphe In the basement of 21 rue Le Sueur they made the first of many gruesome discoveries a human hand dangling from the open door of a coal burning stove Proceeding to the rear of the home detectives found rib cages skulls and internal organs strewn across the floor and large piles of quicklime mixed with fragments of bone and flesh The Gestapo had two offices in the neighborhood were Hitler s henchmen responsible for the carnage Or was it the work of French Resistance fighters purging Paris of traitors and German spies As the investigation unfolded a more sinister possibility emerged The building s owner Dr Marcel Petiot was a handsome and charismatic physician whose past was littered with bizarre behavior and criminal activity When he was finally captured eight months later Dr Petiot claimed he was a loyal member of the Resistance who helped kill Nazi collaborators Prosecutors charged that he was a sadistic mass murderer who lured at least twenty seven innocent people to their deaths with promises of escape Estimates of the actual number of his victims ran as high as 150 men women and children From the first stages of the investigation to the sensational trial in which Dr Petiot s superior intelligence and perverse wit were on full display author Thomas Maeder meticulously reconstructs one of the twentieth century s most fascinating and lurid murder cases Drawing on classified police files and interviews with surviving participants The Unspeakable Crimes of Dr Petiot is a riveting true crime saga that that reads like a shocking psychological thriller Newsweek
