Robbins,2021-06-29 With Artist as Author Christa Noel Robbins provides the first extended study of authorship in mid 20th century abstract painting in the US Taking a close look at this influential period of art history Robbins describes how artists and critics used the medium of painting to advance their own claims about the role that they believed authorship should play in dictating the value significance and social impact of the art object Robbins tracks the subject across two definitive periods the New York School as it was consolidated in the 1950s and Post Painterly Abstraction in the 1960s Through many deep dives into key artist archives Robbins brings to the page the minds and voices of painters Arshile Gorky Jack Tworikov Helen Frankenthaler Kenneth Noland Sam Gilliam and Agnes Martin along with those of critics such as Harold Rosenberg and Rosalind Krauss While these are all important characters in the polemical histories of American modernism this is the first time they are placed together in a single study and treated with equal measure as peers participating in the shared late modernist moment
