In the Cold of the Malecon and Other Stories Antonio José Ponte, 2000-10 Departing from both the utopian political and the romantic baroque styles of past Cuban literature Ponte deftly sketches a picture of a contemporary Cuba that is very different from the stereotype of Caribbean life full of music and dance and colorful celebration An old man and a six year old prodigy have a rendezvous to play chess at a forlorn railroad station Randomly riding trains a woman keeps company with a strange assembly of men An unemployed historian falls in love with an enigmatic astrologer and the two live out their tragedy in the streets of Havana as homeless vagrants A father and son take an aimless stroll after lunch to see the whores along the Malecon Havana's seaside promenade A young man one of the last Cuban students to go to the Soviet Union on a foreign study program returns to Havana where he explores his identity looking at childhood photos with his grandfather spending time with old friends and obsessively seeking news of a woman he had known and loved in Russia In a style both lucid and translucent Ponte shapes intricate stories of self discovery and metaphysical revelation in spare and allusive prose
