Baugh,2004-06-02 First published in 1959 The scope of this four volume work makes it valuable as a work of reference connecting one period with another and placing each author clearly in the setting of his time This is the fourth volume and includes the Nineteenth Century and after 1789 1939 Bloomsbury Scientists Michael Boulter,2017-09-25 Bloomsbury Scientists is the story of the network of scientists and artists living in a square mile of London before and after the First World War This inspired group of men and women viewed creativity and freedom as the driving force behind nature and each strove to understand this in their own inventive way Their collective energy changed the social mood of the era and brought a new synthesis of knowledge to ideas in science and art Class barriers were threatened as power shifted from the landed oligarchy to those with talent and the will to make a difference The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson,1940 Nineteenth Century Prose ,1993 'Pataphysics Unrolled Katie L. Price,Michael R. Taylor,2022-04-08 In the 1890s French poet and playwright Alfred Jarry founded pataphysics the absurdist science of imaginary solutions a concept that has been nominally recognized as the precursor to Dadaism Surrealism and the Theater of the Absurd among other movements Over a century after Jarry made the gesture of dying Katie L Price and Michael R Taylor argue that it is time to take the comedic intervention of pataphysics seriously Pataphysics Unrolled collects critical and creative essays to create an unauthorized account of pataphysical experimentation from its origins in the late nineteenth century through the contemporary moment Reaching beyond the geographic and cultural boundaries normally associated with pataphysics this volume presents rich readings of pataphysical syzygy traces the influence of pataphysics across disciplines and outside of coteries such as the Coll ge de Pataphysique and asks fundamental questions about the field of modern and contemporary studies that challenge distinctions between the modern and the postmodern high and low culture the serious and the comic Touching on disciplines such as literature art architecture education music and technology this book reveals how pataphysics has been a platform and medium for persistent intellectual poetic conceptual and artistic experimentation for over a century In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Charles Bernstein Marc D cimo Adam Dickinson Johanna Drucker Craig Dworkin Catherine Hansen James Hendler John Heon Ted Hiebert Andrew Hugill Steve McCaffery Seth McDowell Jerome McGann Anne M Mulhall Marcus O Dair Jean Michel Rabat Orchid Tierney and Brandon Walsh The Works of Charles Darwin: Vol 29: Erasmus Darwin (1879) / the Autobiography of Charles Darwin (1958) Paul H Barrett,2016-05-23 The 29th volume in a 29 volume set which contain all Charles Darwin s published works This volume concludes with a text on Erasmus Darwin grandfather of Charles Darwin and the autobiography of Charles Darwin The Works of Charles Darwin, Volume 29 Charles Darwin,2010-02-15 Charles Robert Darwin 1809 1882 has been widely recognized since his own time as one of the most influential writers in the history of Western thought His books were widely read by specialists and the general public and his influence had been extended by almost continuous public debate over the past 150 years New York University Press's new paperback edition makes it possible to review Darwin's public literary output as a whole plus his scientific journal articles his private notebooks and his correspondence This is complete edition contains all of Darwin's published books featuring definitive texts recording original pagination with Darwin's indexes retained The set also features a general introduction and index and introductions to each volume More than Homer Knew – Studies on Homer and His Ancient Commentators Antonios Rengakos, Patrick Finglass, Bernhard Zimmermann, 2020-04-06 This book contains a collection of twenty one essays in honour of Professor Franco Montanari by eminent specialists on Homer ancient Homeric scholarship and the reception of the Homeric Epics in both ancient and modern times It covers a wide range of important subjects including neoanalysis and oral poetry the Doloneia the Homeric scholia the theoretical premises of Aristarchean scholarship and Homer in Sappho Pindar Comedy Plato and Hellenistic Poetry As a whole the contributions demonstrate the vitality of modern scholarship on Homeric poetry The Vital Science (Routledge Revivals) Peter Morton, 2014-08-01 In this title first published in 1984 Peter Morton argues that in late Victorian Britain a group of novelists and essayists quite consciously sought and found ideas in post Darwinian biology that were susceptible to imaginative transformation The period between 1860 and 1900 was a time of great confusion in biology the natural selection hypothesis was in retreat before its acute critics and no extension of evolutionary theory to human affairs was too bizarre to attract its quota of enthusiasts Writers capitalised on this prevailing uncertainty and used it to their own artistic or polemic ends A fascinating and interdisciplinary title this reissue will interest students of late Victorian literature as well as historians of biological theory between The Origin of Species and Mendel Victorian Marriage James Covert, 2010-06-15 Mandell Creighton 1843 1901 was a famous historian and the first editor of the English Historical Review His intelligence and energy made an impression upon everyone he met Admired by Queen Victoria only his untimely death stopped him becoming Archbishop of Canterbury His wife Louise 1850 1936 was a prolific historian in her own right Her strength of character and organisational ability made her a natural leader of Victorian women's movements The writings of this remarkable couple especially their letters reveal their relationships with each other and with their seven children their work and home life their servants houses holidays in Italy and the pleasures of their lives together Biography by Americans, 1658-1936 Edward H. O'Neill, 2016-11-11 This volume is the most comprehensive bibliography of purely biographical material written by Americans It covers every possible field of life but by design excludes autobiographies diaries and journals A Literary History of England Albert Croll Baugh, 1948 The purpose of this book is to provide a comprehensive history of the literature of England an account that is at once scholarly and readable capable of meeting the needs of mature students and of appealing to cultivated readers generally While the literature of England is commonly thought of as literature in English it is not likely that anyone will quarrel with the fact that some mention is made of writings in Latin and French during the medieval period at a time when these languages served as vernaculars for certain classes The Latin writings of the Renaissance and later periods however have been omitted for lack of space Nor will anyone object to the inclusion of Scottish and Irish writers who do not belong geographically to England Custom sufficiently sanctions including them The original plan brought the history to an end with the year 1939 the outbreak of the Second World War but delay in publication caused by the war has permitted reference to a few events of a date subsequent to 1939 Preface The Nation, 1916 Science Serialized Geoffrey Cantor, Sally Shuttleworth, 2004-03-12 Essays examining the ways in which the Victorian periodical press presented the scientific developments of the time to general and specialized audiences Nineteenth century Britain saw an explosion of periodical literature with the publication of over 100 000 different magazines and newspapers for a growing market of eager readers The Victorian periodical press became an important medium for the dissemination of scientific ideas Every major scientific advance in the nineteenth century was trumpeted and analyzed in periodicals ranging from intellectual quarterlies such as the Edinburgh Review to popular weeklies like the Mirror of Literature from religious periodicals such as the Evangelical Magazine to the atheistic Oracle of Reason Scientific articles appeared side by side with the latest fiction or political reporting while articles on nonscientific topics and serialized novels invoked scientific theories or used analogies drawn from science The essays collected in Science Serialized examine the variety of ways in which the nineteenth century periodical press represented science to both general and specialized readerships They explore the role of scientific controversy in the press and the cultural politics of publication Subject range from the presentation of botany in women s magazines to the highly public dispute between Darwin and Samuel Butler and from discussions of the mind body problem to those of energy physics Contributors include leading scholars in the fields of history of science and literature Ann B Shteir Jonathan Topham Frank A J L James Roger Smith Graeme Gooday Crosbie Smith Ian Higginson Gillian Beer Bernard Lightman Helen Small Gowan Dawson Jonathan Smith James G Paradis and Harriet Ritvo Performing Homer: The Voyage of Ulysses from Epic to Opera Wendy Heller, Eleonora Stoppino, 2019-07-23 The epic poems the Iliad and the Odyssey attributed to Homer are among the oldest surviving works of literature derived from oral performance Deeply embedded in these works is the notion that they were intended to be heard there is something musical about Homer s use of language and a vivid quality to his images that transcends the written page to create a theatrical experience for the listener Indeed it is precisely the theatrical quality of the poems that would inspire later interpreters to cast the Odyssey and the Iliad in a host of other media novels plays poems paintings and even that most elaborate of all art forms opera exemplified by no less a work than Monteverdi s Il ritorno di Ulisse in patria In Performing Homer The Voyage of Ulysses from Epic to Opera scholars in classics drama Italian literature art history and musicology explore the journey of Homer s Odyssey from ancient to modern times The book traces the reception of the Odyssey through the Italian humanist sources from Dante Petrarch and Ariosto to the treatment of the tale not only by Monteverdi but also such composers as Elizabeth Jacquet de la Guerre Gluck and Alessandro Scarlatti and the dramatic and poetic traditions thereafter by such modern writers as Derek Walcott and Margaret Atwood A History of American Biography, 1800-1935 Edward H. O'Neill, 2015-09-30 A survey and evaluation of the whole range of American biography from the earliest important lives to book of the present day
