Sandra Leveson:

Sandra Leveson Sandra Leveson, 1977 Sandra Leveson , 1990 Sandra Leveson Sandra Leveson, 2011 Sandra Leveson Sandra Leveson, Sandra McGrath, 1989* Sandra Leveson Helen Ivory, 1993 Sandra Leveson is one of Australia's most distinctive contemporary women artists. This creator of luminescent paintings has pursued her career for more than thirty years. In the 1960s she was influenced by Geometric Op and in the 1970s by American Abstract Expressionism. Latterly her work has developed into an individual style that pays heed to both the European and Australian landscapes. Her work is informed by the soft European light and by Australia's vibrant atmosphere. Leveson utilises the specific iconography of the Flanders poppy and the endless Antipodean horizon line but her work remains intriguingly non-specific in its geographical orientation. BOOK JACKET Sandra Leveson, Recent Paintings Sandra Leveson, Macquarie Galleries (Sydney, N.S.W.), 1989

Sexuality, Family Planning, and Reproduction Fritz Dross, Birgit Nemec, Igor Kąkolewski, 2025-08-12 The history of sexuality, family planning and reproduction in Central and Eastern Europe sounds out the historical dimensions across a broad field where human biology, medicine, policy and government social programmes intersect with fundamental conceptions of desired or feared social developments. From contraception to representations of motherhood and controversies over reproductive rights, using the example of the historically changing political, social, cultural and scientific interconnections in Central and Eastern Europe, the contributors to this volume invite reflections on historical developments that open new perspectives for the 21st century. Lovers and Others Tom Lowenstein, 2021-06-01 This candidly written memoir enlivened by the author's impish sense of humour narrates the way in which by chance and circumstance Tom Lowenstein placed his career at the service of the Australian art world. The book describes Lowenstein's numerous David and Goliath battles with the Australian Government and the Australian Tax Office for a greater understanding and fairer treatment of the unique set of circumstances and numerous challenges faced by the country's creative sectors. Lowenstein's interactions with his colourful and gregarious clients took him frequently out of the comfort of the corporate environment into the artists' homes and studios. The personalities of Charles Blackman, Colin Lanceley, Margaret Olley, John Olsen, Garry Sheard, Tim Storrier and many other luminaries of the art world are vividly brought out with unique insights and unexpected angles. The book is richly illustrated with photographs from Lowenstein's personal archives documenting his long-standing friendships and reflecting its heady mixture of accounting, art and wine. Letters to a Critic Rodney James, 2023-11-14 Described as arguably the most influential Australian art critic of the last half of the twentieth century, Alan McCulloch's work as illustrator, critic, gallery director and author reflected on and documented much of this era of visual art in Australia. As critic for the Melbourne Herald from 1951 to 1982, McCulloch was fundamental in the nascent careers of those who were to become some of Australia's most famous artists His monumental Encyclopedia of Australia Art first published in 1968 and still in print today has been acknowledged as the single most important reference work on Australian art ever published In Letters to a Critic curator and author Rodney James has mined the rich archival treasure of the McCulloch Papers to create a lively combination of biography and illustrated book of letters Witty irreverent profound and heartfelt these previously unpublished letters critical essays illustrations and works of art provide a unique insight into the art and lives of Australia's most famed art personalities as they simultaneously reveal McCulloch's role as critic gallery director and mentor
