man with a royal presence and an inherent nobility of character And yet he was completely earthy and unpretentious always ready to laugh at himself and the world always eager to learn from others and to cheer them on in his broad Boston accent I have never met a man so utterly without personal vanity or a sense of self importance and yet so filled with self confidence about his larger mission Gil had a saintly quality of selfless dedication and yet he was also endearingly human We couldn't have stood him otherwise Gil was a big bear of a man and he could be as cuddly as a teddy or as powerful as a grizzly He told great dirty jokes His room was a mess He danced on the tables His hugs were Olympian Both kingly and comforting he reminded me of the fuzzy purple African violets he raised so tenderly He was Our Funny Valentine the most loving and loveable man I have ever known Gil wanted to leave a message to the world It was a message he lived all his life and especially in his last years of healing and dying The message is that with community you can do anything Being with Gil in community as he lived into dying was a transforming experience for all of us sorrow and suffering that is consciously shared can become almost a blessing I think Gil would want me to add that I need to let folks know that if you are with your buddies you can even have a wonderful time while you're dying The experiences of Gil's last days also gave a clear message to me and others who were close at the bedside that death is merely the doorway to new spiritual adventures Gil lived big and he died big and all our souls got bigger as we made the last journey with our Big Soul Buddy Finally and perhaps most importantly Gil was a great man because he made you feel that you were great and made you want to do great things See the Gil Lopez Community Website at gillopez.net for photographs information about the three documentaries in which Gil was featured and new stories of the lives and work of Gil's buddies

Food in the Movies, 2d ed. Steve Zimmerman, 2010-07-28 Although food has been part of motion pictures since the silent era for the most part it has been treated with about as much respect as movie extras it s always been there on the screen but seldom noticed For the most part filmmakers have settled on three basic ways to treat food as a prop in which the food is usually obscured from sight or ignored by the actors as a transition device to compress time and help advance the plot as a symbol or metaphor or in some other meaningful way to make a dramatic point or to reveal an aspect of an actor s character mood or thought process This hugely expanded and revised edition details 400 food scenes in addition to the 400 films reviewed for the first edition and an introduction tracing the technical artistic and cultural forces that contributed to the emergence of food films as a new genre originated by such films as Tampopo Babette s Feast and more recently by films like Mostly Martha No Reservations and Ratatouille A filmography is included as an appendix In the Kitchen with David David Venable, 2012-10-09 David Venable will be the first to tell you He loves his food And as the beloved host of QVC s popular program In the Kitchen with David he s put that passion on mouthwatering display welcoming some of the greatest names in the food world But Venable s own culinary skills honed in the Carolina kitchens of his mother and grandmothers are nothing short of remarkable and tantalizing Now in his anticipated debut cookbook Venable shares 150 delicious recipes of hearty easy to make comforting dishes In the Kitchen with David covers everything from appetizers and breads to soups and salads to main courses and sides as well as his lifelong love of bacon The Divine Swine You ll get ideas for quick Monday to Friday
