

English As My Second Language

I too have a language
That other people can Learn as a second language
And I blame my forebears
For their lakadaisical attitude
Towards the relegation
Of my language today.

I am taunted for
For every word of language
That falters in the use of my english
Faulty as english is
I am forced to rules
That utterly and woefully fail

Why should I be taunted
For a language that reneges on rules?
I am told that when making
Plurals from nouns

I should add 's' or 'ies'
But when the noun is child
It shamefully fails
For it is neither childs nor childies
It is Children!
I too have a language
Other people speak
As a second language.

Second Language Poems:

Poems Please! 2nd Edition Bill Moore, David Booth, 2003 This innovative resource includes tools for classroom management that range from assessment techniques to tips for choosing and displaying poems Second Language Lisel Mueller, 1986-06 Second Language is the fourth volume of work from the highly acclaimed poet Lisel Mueller The second language of the title English supplanted Mueller's native language when she came to the United States from Hitler's Germany at age fifteen But other second languages are at work here as well The poems in this collection have to do with memory and metaphor two forces that enable us to interpret our experience Each is in a sense a second language and in Mueller's employ each gains expression in an imaginative and humanistic voice In English as a Second Language the various meanings of Second Language come together lucidly and effectively History as a Second Language Dionisio D. Martínez, 1993 Explores the intersection of cultural identity offering a self portrait of a man caught between the various cultures of which he is a part Modern Irish Poetry: A New Alhambra Frank Sewell, 2001-01-25 Recently chapters on individual Irish language authors have formed part of publications regarding modern Irish art and culture in general Such chapters are welcome but they have excited the curiosity of readers to the degree that longer more detailed works are now required to put writing in Irish into perspective In this study of four modern poets two each from two generations Sewell attempts to illustrate not only the accumulative but the transformative nature of tradition Chapters 1 and 2 turn from the mid 20th century master Seán Riordá to the contemporary poet Cathal Searcaigh because the comparison and contrast highlights significant aspects of the amazing development of Irish poetry and indeed society in the period Here importantly the word development is meant in a neutral way the image used is that of a zig zag movement in the pattern of the continuing Irish tradition Chapter 3 returns to the slightly earlier major Irish language poet Mairéad Ní Dire In doing so it returns home from the internationalism of the previous chapter on Searcaigh to Ireland a major focus and concern for the more solely traditionalist Ní Dire In This switch back in time geography social mores or outlook fits and illustrates Sewell's concept of the zig zag movement of a country's culture as it proceeds from generation to generation The positioning therefore has a thematic purpose The fourth and final chapter focuses on the contemporary poet Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill who has managed to synthesise tradition and modernity central concerns of this book and who in doing so has become the current trail blazer of Irish poetry in either language C.P. Cavafy Historical Poems J. Phillipson, 2013-08-02 Cavafy's Historical Poems is the first volume of a four book set constituting a study of the life and opus of this fascinating poet The second volume is an anecdotal life detailing Cavafy's home and its atmosphere the man the poet and his lifestyle the odes of his compatriot partisans the praises of his foreign admirers the barbs and insults of his critics and revilers the poet as a critical ironist and the last part of his life More than one hundred commentators are quoted and just as many of his poems are used where it seemed appropriate A third volume consists of erratic commentaries containing the author's evaluation and criticism of the main contributions to Cavafys poetry That is these of George Seferis Sir Maurice Bowra Robert Liddel Edmund Keeley Grigorios Xenopoulos Timos Malanos Stratis Tsirkas John Sareyiannis and others These follow an opening chapter on Hellenization and a second chapter on the controversial subject of the dates of composition of Cavafys poems The fourth volume The Canon is a verse translation of the 150 poems Cavafy accepted as his mature opus including the original Greek verses accompanied by detailed examination of the poets craft and style That is to say the meter length of verse wedging rhyme enjambment titles organization punctuation the absences lyricism periphrasis description narrative suggestive image abstractions transmission maturity content language irony intellectuality etc Reading and Writing Poetry with Teenagers Fredric Lown, Judith W. Steinbergh, 1996 This versatile volume combines examples of poetry from historical and contemporary masters with high school writing Each chapter contains poems for reading aloud poems for discussion models for writing exercises samples of student poems and a bibliography for extended reading Many teachers use Reading and Writing Poetry with Teenagers across disciplines Writing exercises include Animals as Symbols Family Portraits in Words Of War and Peace Writing Song Lyrics as an Expression of Social Protest Alive Together: New and Selected Poems Lisel Mueller, 1996 Rumi - Past and Present, East and West Franklin D. Lewis, 2014-10-01 The definitive study of the world s bestselling poet Drawing on a vast array of sources from writings of the poet himself to the latest scholarly literature this new anniversary edition of the award winning work examines the background the legacy and the continuing significance of Jal l al Din Rumi today s bestselling poet in the United States With new translations of over fifty of Rumi s poems and including never before seen prose this landmark study celebrates the astounding appeal of Rumi still as strong as ever 800 years after his birth

Resources in Education , 1998 Autoethnographies in ELT Bedrettin Yazan, Suresh Canagarajah, Rashi Jain, 2020-11-05 This innovative volume showcases the possibilities of autoethnography as a means of exploring the complexities of transnational identity construction for learners teachers and practitioners in English language teaching ELT The book unpacks the dynamics of today s landscape of language education which sees practitioners and students with nuanced personal and professional histories inhabit liminal spaces as they traverse national cultural linguistic ideological and political borders thereby impacting their identity construction and engagement with pedagogies and practices across different educational domains The volume draws on solo and collaborative autoethnographies of transnational language practitioners to question such well established ELT binaries such as center periphery and native non native and issues of identity related concepts such as ideologies discourses agency and self reflexivity In so doing the book also underscores the unique affordances of autoethnography as a methodological tool for better understanding transnational identity construction in ELT and bringing to the fore key perspectives in emerging areas of study within applied linguistics This dynamic collection will appeal to students scholars and practitioners in English language teaching applied linguistics TESOL education educational linguistics and sociolinguistics Living Languages: An Integrated Approach to Teaching Foreign Languages in Primary Schools Catherine Watts, Clare Forder, Hilary Phillips, 2012-10-03 Living Languages is simply bursting with practical and original ideas aimed at teachers and trainee teachers of foreign languages in primary schools. Written by a team of experienced linguists, this book will inspire and motivate the foreign language classroom and the teachers who work within it. Living Languages comprises eight chapters and is structured around the integrated classroom, merging language learning with different aspects of the wider curriculum such as multimedia, performance, celebrations, and festivals, creativity, and alternative approaches to teaching languages. Downloadable resources are also included with the book, containing additional teaching materials and the associated films and audio recordings which make this a fully developed and effective teaching resource. Over 50 real life case studies and projects are presented, all of which have been tried and tested in the classroom, with several having won recent educational awards. Ideas and activities outlined in this unique resource include Languages across the curriculum, helping to cement cross-curricular links and embed new languages in different contexts; linking subjects such as history, science, PE, and mathematics with French, German, and Spanish; Arts and crafts projects in Languages; making and doing, including making books, creating beach huts, and cooking biscuits; Languages celebrations and festivals, projects including the German Christmas market, Spanish Day of the Dead, celebrating Mardi Gras, and the European Day of Languages, among many others. Continuing Professional Development to inspire primary teachers to continue their individual professional development. The chapter contains concrete examples of others' experiences in this area and includes details of support organisations and practical opportunities. Each project is explored from the teachers' perspective, with practical tips, lesson plans, and reflections woven throughout the text, such as what to budget, how to organise the pre-event period, how to evaluate the activity, and whom to contact for further advice in each case. Activities and examples throughout are given in three languages: French, German, and Spanish.

Manhattan As a Second Language and Other Poems Jana Harris, 1982-02-01 The Poems of T. S. Eliot: Volume I T. S. Eliot, 2018-12-04 The first volume of the first paperback edition of The Poems of T. S. Eliot. This two-volume critical edition of T. S. Eliot's poems establishes a new text of the Collected Poems 1909-1962, rectifying accidental omissions and errors that have crept in during the century since Eliot's astonishing debut The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock. In addition to the masterpieces The Poems of T. S. Eliot contains the poems of Eliot's youth, which were rediscovered only decades later; poems that circulated privately during his lifetime; and love poems from his final years, written for his wife Valerie. Calling upon Eliot's critical writings as well as his drafts, letters, and other original materials, Christopher Ricks and Jim McCue have provided a commentary that illuminates the imaginative life of each poem. This first volume respects Eliot's decisions by opening with his Collected Poems 1909-1962 as he arranged and issued it shortly before his death. This is followed by poems uncollected but either written for or suitable for publication, and by a new reading text of the drafts of The Waste Land. The second volume opens with the two books of verse of other kinds that Eliot issued: Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats and Anabasis, his translation of St. John Perse's Anabase. Each of these sections is accompanied by its own commentary Finally pertaining to the entire edition there is a comprehensive textual history that contains not only variants from all known drafts and the many printings but also extended passages amounting to hundreds of lines of compelling verse

Poetry, Poetic Inquiry and Rwanda Laura Apol, 2020-11-09 This book describes the practice of poetic inquiry and takes the reader through the process of translating lived experience into poetry that attends to the lives of others Using her own writing from early drafts to published poems Apol demonstrates elements of poetic inquiry that both give it strength and make it complicated the importance of craft the aesthetic the imperative of accuracy and reliability the investigative the significance of ethical responsibility that leads to action witness and the centrality of relational connectedness and accountability witness Apol raises questions about what it means for poems to function as both research and art and illustrates what happens when there are irresolvable conflicts between the demands of the poem and a commitment to relationship Throughout Apol addresses her white privilege as well as the dominant white colonial narrative that often seeps into arts based work unless it is overtly and critically addressed The book goes beyond arts based research speaking as well to other forms of cross national cross cultural research It is a call for relational scholarship that moves toward action a heart rending teaching a post traumatic aesthetic map laid down with clear and poignant theory and praxis to extend serve and guide

Companion Spider Clayton Eshleman, 2010-03-01 Companion Spider is the accumulated work of a poet and translator who goes more deeply into the art and its process and demands than anyone since Robert Duncan Clayton Eshleman is one of our most admired and controversial poets the translator of such great international poets as C sar Vallejo Aim C saire and Antonin Artaud and founder and editor of two important literary magazines Sulfur and Caterpillar As such Eshleman writes about the vocation of poet and of the poet as translator as no one else in America today he believes adamantly that art must concern itself with vision and that poets learn best by an apprenticeship that is a kind of immersion in the work of other poets Companion Spider opens with a unique eighty page essay called Novices A Study of Poetic Apprenticeship addressed to the poet who is just starting out Subsequent sections take up the art of translation poets and their work and literary magazine editing The title is drawn from an extraordinary visionary experience which the author had which becomes a potent metaphor for the creative process Through the variety of poets and artists to whom he pays homage Eshleman suggests a community which is not of a single place or time rather there is mutual recognition and responsiveness so that the reader becomes aware of a range of artistic practices s he might explore
