Globalization, Human Rights and Populism Adebowale Akande, 2023-06-16 This book offers a comprehensive and multidisciplinary global overview of populism and human rights in the light of globalization. It examines why the dominant neo liberal paradigm of the last decades resulted in major economic and social inequalities which resulted in the surge of national populism led by the election success of right wing parties movements and leaders across the world. It discusses among other topics the success of Brexit in Britain and the election success of Donald Trump and Marine Le Pen and explains why there is a need for a dialogue on human rights and globalization in this era of populism. Further contributions analyze various important topics of the field including cross culturalism globalization human rights challenges and threats diversity curbing global corruption sustainable development populism the decline of free speech the new nationalism internationalization global regime of human rights leadership theory global management competencies gender quality management individualism collectivism and examples of new initiatives in global organizations. This makes the book a valuable and useful resource for students researchers and scholars of international relations political science sociology political psychology law diplomatic studies Communication and media studies economics education and management as well as practitioners and policy makers interested in a better understanding of globalization populism and human rights.

WhisperArt Devotions Ethan W. Moses,2018-08-31 Jesus said I will never leave you nor forsake you and He has certainly made good on that promise for the past thirty years During this time Jesus has walked with me while providing insights and realizations based on Godly principles that have molded me into who and what I am today It is my hope that as you read each devotional in this book you get a sense of how God goes about His business of molding and shaping us into the image of His precious Son I once heard a story about how Michelangelo created the statue of David He simply removed everything that wasn't David And so it is with us God keeps chipping away removing everything that prevents us from being what He created us to be and from doing the things he created us to do I have a long way to go but I am excited about what God has done and is doing in my life I look forward to one day looking into a mirror and seeing for the first time the masterpiece God creates from a life that was once so ugly and covered in sin Praise the holy name of Jesus
