Unruly Places Alastair Bonnett, 2014-07-08 This guide to weird ruined and wonderful spots across the globe explores disappearing islands forbidden deserts and much more a terrific book Los Angeles Times At a time when Google Maps Street View can take you on a virtual tour of Yosemite's remotest trails it's hard to imagine there's any uncharted ground left on the planet. But in Unruly Places Alastair Bonnett rekindles our geographical imaginations with excursions into some of the world's most peculiar places such as moving villages, secret cities, no-man's lands and floating islands. Bonnett investigates Sandy Island, a place that appeared on maps until just two years ago despite the fact that it never existed; Sealand, an abandoned gun platform off the English coast that a British citizen claimed as his own sovereign nation, issuing passports and crowning his wife as a princess; Baarle, a patchwork of Dutch and Flemish enclaves where walking from the grocery store's produce section to the meat counter can involve crossing national borders and many other curious locales. In this delightfully quirky guide down the road much less traveled, Bonnett reveals that the most extraordinary places on earth might be hidden in plain sight.

Military tourism has exploded. Last year more than 30 million Americans bought a ticket to visit a military destination, setting visitation records from New York to California. But what destinations, and where did they go? The truth is that there are uncouthed military sites you can see and visit, some on and some off the beaten path. There are secret missile sites, life-sized dioramas, outdoor tank ship and bomber parks, and incredible exhibits with stories to tell that will astound you. All you'll need is this book and a driver's license to find and visit them, and perhaps a map for the most hidden of them all. Did you know that the Coast Guard mounted a rescue effort on 9/11 and evacuated more than 100,000 New Yorkers from Manhattan by boat? Go to the little-known Naval Air Station Wildwood Museum in Cape May, New Jersey, to discover that story. How about the remnants of the helicopter from Blackhawk Down or the lifeboat from Captain Phillips, or even the Airbus pulled from the Hudson River that was piloted by Sully Sullenberger? We'll tell you where to go to find all of these objects and many, many more. Perhaps intrigue is more your suit. You can't go into Area 51, but the government now acknowledges that it exists, so we can suggest a drive near the perimeter that lets your imagination go wild. And while you're in Nevada, we'll tell you how to join an almost secret caravan of cars that goes out to the exact spot where atomic bombs were once detonated, that, and all the info you need to see a fantastic museum in Las Vegas that features all of our formerly secret nuclear air-to-air missiles, nuclear howitzers, nuclear artillery shells, and nuclear who knows what. And so it goes. Fire the gun on a Sherman tank, walk the decks of an aircraft carrier, go inside a hush-hush submarine, sit in a F-4 Phantom, fly in a Huey, see the trenches of World War I, walk the beaches of D-Day, see a CIA airbase, all of it here in America, all waiting for you to explore.
