This comprehensive book compares the intersection of political forces and legal practices in five industrial nations: the United States, England, France, Germany, and

Japan The authors eminent political scientists and legal scholars investigate how constitutional courts function in each country how the adjudication of criminal justice and the processing of civil disputes connect legal systems to politics and how both ordinary citizens and large corporations use the courts For each of the five countries the authors discuss the structure of courts and access to them the manner in which politics and law are differentiated or amalgamated whether judicial posts are political prizes or bureaucratic positions the ways in which courts are perceived as legitimate forms for addressing political conflicts the degree of legal consciousness among citizens the kinds of work lawyers do and the manner in which law and courts are used as social control mechanisms The authors find that although the extent to which courts participate in policymaking varies dramatically from country to country judicial responsiveness to perceived public problems is not a uniquely American phenomenon The Tablet, 1871 The international Catholic weekly Northern Ireland Paul

Dixon, 2008-09-26 Clearly and accessibly written Dixon provides a lively introduction to the nature and politics of the Northern Ireland conflict and of successive attempts to resolve it The comprehensively revised 2nd edition has been updated to take account of new information and an entirely new chapter has been added on implementing the Good Friday Agreement

Popkin, 2016-05-23 Organized chronologically A History of Modern France presents a survey of the dramatic events that have punctuated French history including the French Revolution the upheavals of the 19th century the world wars of the 20th century and France's current role in the European Union Written for today's undergraduate students the text presents scholarly controversies in an unbiased manner and reflects the best of contemporary scholarship in French history History of the Regulators of Northern Indiana M.
