God Because of the view of Minne love that is embodied in them the Stanzaic Poems are an exponent of the age old tradition of women s songs of which the Song of Songs is the best known example and as such they are an expression of a particular manner of keeping company with God they celebrate a relationship of mutuality between partners equivalent in love An introductory essay highlights some of the striking points of lovers the raging desire of orewoet the gentility of humankind s origin This essay is followed by a rendering of the Stanzaic Poems from Middle Dutch into Modern English prose With an introduction by Edward Schillebeeckx

Popular Iranian Cinema before the Revolution Pedram Partovi,2017-07-14 Critics and academics have generally dismissed the commercial productions of the late Pahlavi era best known for their songs and melodramatic plots as shallow derivative entertainment Instead they have concentrated on the more recent internationally acclaimed art films claiming that these constitute Iranian national cinema despite few Iranians having seen them Film discourse and even fan talk have long attempted to marginalize the mainstream releases of the 1960s and 1970s with the moniker filmfarsi ironically asserting that such popular favorites were culturally inauthentic This book challenges the idea that filmfarsi is detached from the past and present of Iranians Far from being escapist Hollywood fare merely translated into Persian it claims that the better films of this supposed genre must be taken as both a subject of and source for modern Iranian history It argues that they have an appeal that relies on their ability to rearticulate traditional courtly and religious ideas and forms to problematize in unexpectedly complex and sophisticated ways the modernist agenda that secular nationalist elites wished to impose on their viewers Taken seriously these films raise questions about standard treatments of Iran s modern history By writing popular films into Iranian history this book advocates both a fresh approach to the study of Iranian cinema as well as a rethinking of the modernity tradition binary that has organized the historiography of the recent past It will appeal to those interested in Iranian cinema Iranian history and culture and more broadly readers dissatisfied with a dichotomous approach to modernity

Indian Angles Mary Ellis Gibson,2011-05-13 A new historical approach to Indian English literature Mary Ellis Gibson shows that poetry not fiction was the dominant literary genre of Indian writing in English until 1860 and that poetry written in colonial situations can tell us as much or even more about figuration multilingual literacies and histories of nationalism than novels can Gibson re creates the historical webs of affiliation and resistance that were experienced by writers in colonial India writers of British Indian and mixed ethnicities Advancing new theoretical and historical paradigms for reading colonial literatures Indian Angles makes accessible many writers heretofore neglected or virtually unknown Gibson recovers texts by British women by nonelite British men and by persons who would in the nineteenth century have been called Eurasian Her work traces the mutually constitutive history of English language poets from Sir William Jones to Toru Dutt and Rabindranath Tagore Drawing on contemporary postcolonial theory her work also provides new ways of thinking about British internal colonialism as its results were exported to South Asia In lucid and accessible prose Gibson presents a new theoretical approach to colonial and postcolonial literatures Catholic World ,1904
