

The background of the cover is a romanticized, painterly illustration of a winter scene. In the upper right, a woman with long, dark, flowing hair is shown in profile, looking towards the left. She wears a black cloak over a light-colored, possibly white or cream, dress. In the lower left, a man with a beard and mustache is riding a dark horse. He is wearing a dark blue or black coat with a white cravat and a black tricorn hat. The setting is a snowy forest with tall, thin trees and a path leading into the distance. The overall color palette is dominated by cool blues and whites, with a warm, golden light emanating from behind the woman, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The title 'LOVERS, PATRIOTS AND SCHEMERS' is written in a large, elegant, dark blue serif font across the center of the image.

Alternative History, 1600-1800 Steven Moore, 2013-08-29 Winner of the Christian Gauss Award for excellence in literary scholarship from the Phi Beta Kappa Society Having excavated the world s earliest novels in his previous book literary historian Steven Moore explores in this sequel the remarkable flowering of the novel between the years 1600 and 1800 from Don Quixote to America s first big novel an homage to Cervantes entitled Modern Chivalry This is the period of such classic novels as Tom Jones Candide and Dangerous Liaisons but beyond the dozen or so recognized classics there are hundreds of other interesting novels that appeared then known only to specialists Spanish picaresques French heroic romances massive Chinese novels Japanese graphic novels eccentric English novels and the earliest American novels These minor novels are not only interesting in their own right but also provide the context needed to appreciate why the major novels were major breakthroughs The novel experienced an explosive growth spurt during these centuries as novelists experimented with different forms and genres epistolary novels romances Gothic thrillers novels in verse parodies science fiction episodic road trips and family sagas along with quirky unclassifiable experiments in fiction that resemble contemporary avant garde works
