Oriental Philosophy - I am It. Heinz Duthel,2014-12-10 I never had fear nor doubt Death never came to me I never had father or mother for I was never born Where are my foes for I am All I am the Existence and Knowledge and Bliss Absolute I am It When a man has attained his own freedom how can he be bound by any law No law in this universe can bind him for this universe itself is his He is the whole universe Be free hope for nothing from anyone I am sure if you look back upon your lives you will find that you were always vainly trying to get help from others which never came All the help that has come was from within yourselves

Language, Love, Alterity and Transcendence as a Model of Julia Kristeva's Dynamic Spirituality Kevin O'Donnell, 2024-10-16 Even an atheist has a spirituality. Spirituality can be considered as human rather than narrowly religious. Many today call themselves spiritual but not religious. It is impossible to define and so various limited models are suggested by researchers. This book explores these issues and proposes a new model based upon the oeuvre of the Bulgarian French semiologist philosopher and psychoanalyst Julia Kristeva. Kristeva is an atheist with a respect for religion, its valuing of the non-discursive and its role in therapy. Her work is supplemented and contrasted by her peers Hélène Cixous and Luce Irigaray. The author proposes a model based on Kristeva's work where themes of Language Love Alterity and Transcendence interact to form what we call spirituality rather than simply being unconnected aspects of it Suggestions are given of how this resulting model can be applied to Secondary Education Religious Education in particular and also approaches to Healthcare Education Pierre Loti And The Oriental Woman Irene L Szyliowicz,1988-04-22 A Guide to Romantic Love: the Romantic Character and the Romantic Tradition Ariana Gonzalez Hernandez,2018-02-17 Romantic love is something that is actually a product of a romantic culture It s a product of its traditions and of the character of those who subscribe to its values In this comprehensive guide you will not only learn about the romantic character and the traditions that enable you to cultivate romantic love in your life you will also learn about the culture itself as well as its history enabling you to develop a profound understanding and appreciation for this culture and the unique type of relationship that it yields This guide isn t just about creating romantic relationships or about culture It s about self improvement about building character about potential and about becoming complete in the process Since our relationships are a reflection of who we are then the improvement of our relationships naturally begins with the improvement of ourselves Peoples of the romantic culture have captured the hearts of the world for centuries Their enigmatic ways provoke fascination and curiosity among those foreign to their cultures The mystery of their enigmatic ways is solved once and for all by providing you with a window into their seemingly magical world At the same time you will learn how to take part in their culture in order to create your own enigmatic persona and your own magical and truly romantic and loving relationships The Imperial Theme G. Jane Burns,2014-07-09 Clothing was used in the Middle Ages to mark religious military and chivalric orders lepers and prostitutes The ostentatious display of luxury dress more specifically served as a means of self definition for members of the ruling elite and the courtly lovers among them In Courtly Love Undressed E Jane Burns unfolds the rich display of costly garments worn by amorous partners in literary texts and other cultural documents in the French High Middle Ages Burns reads through clothes in lyric romance and didactic literary works vernacular sermons and sumptuary laws to show how courtly attire is used to negotiate desire sexuality and symbolic space as well as social class Reading through clothes reveals that the expression of female desire so often effaced in courtly lyric and romance can be registered in the poetic deployment of fabric and adornment and that gender is often configured along a sartorial continuum rather than in terms of naturally derived categories of woman and man The symbolic identification of the court itself as a hybrid crossing place between Europe and the East also emerges through Burns s reading of literary
