Sex, Love, and Marriage in the 21st Century Robert T. Francoeur, Martha Cornog, Timothy Perper, 1999 Love sex and marriage are changing faster than ever before in human history The current tidal wave of social changes will continue into the next century and we will have to adapt our sexual values and relationships to these accelerating changes These 22 honest authentic stories tell of the unconventional paths pioneering church leaders and spiritually aware women and men have taken in their quest to link their sexuality with their spiritual needs Some might see in these unorthodox explorations only tales of promiscuous couplings But these are not stories of wild thrill seekers These are tales told from the core of their being about their deeply felt need for genuine responsible love and intimacy within a spiritual context Their journeys do not promise paradise or instant happiness as popular magazines do with recipes for lifelong marital bliss and fiery passion These sojourners have much to teach us even when we decide that this or that path is not for us Their individual paths are not nearly as important as the simple message of God and Eros being inseparable that underlies journey God and Eros can come together in many different relationships And they must come together if we want to nourish and fulfill the divine spark at the core of our being These women and men challenge our assumptions and our willingness to adapt to our radically changing world
