The Forgotten Schools Soli Shahvar, 2009-09-30 By the end of the nineteenth century it became evident to Iran's ruling Qajar elite that the state's contribution to the promotion of modern education in the country was unable to meet the growing expectations set by Iranian society. Muzaffar al-Din Shah sought to remedy this situation by permitting the entry of the private sector into the field of modern education and in 1899 the first Baha'i school was established in Tehran. By the 1930s there were dozens of Baha'i schools. Their high standards of education drew many non-Baha'i students from all sections of society. Here Soli Shahvar assesses these forgotten schools and investigates why they proved so popular not only with Baha'is but Zoroastrians, Jews, and especially Muslims. Shahvar explains why they were closed by the reformist Reza Shah in the late 1930s and the subsequent fragility of the Baha'is' position in Iran.

Millennialism, Millerites, and Prophecy in Bahá'í Discourse William P. Collins, 2025-09-22 This book explores the role of millennialism, the Millerites, and prophecy in the historical development of the Bahá'í faith, especially in North America. The author demonstrates the importance of the Bahá'í religion to millennialism studies and its connection to certain Protestant American and Shia Islamic modes of thought. Bahá'ís see two millennial visions on far-separated continents within different religious milieus and from contrasting social climates as spiritually and prophetically linked: the Millerites who expected the return of Christ in 1844 CE and Shia Muslims who expected the Mahdī (the Twelfth Imam) in 1260 AH (1844 CE). The chapters in this volume reflect on theories about millennialist movements, the continuum from catastrophic to progressive millennialism, Bahá'í interpretations of biblical prophecy, and Bahá'í efforts to build the Kingdom of God on earth under a systematic divine plan. The book highlights the maturation of the Bahá'í community toward a focus on process and a capacity to deal with both catastrophe and progress. It provides scholars of religion with a detailed study of the trajectory in Bahá'í millennial ideas.

No Jim Crow Church Louis Venters, 2016-09-20 A richly detailed study of the rise of the Bahá'í Faith in South Carolina. There isn't another study out there even remotely like this one. Paul Harvey, coauthor of The Color of Christ: The Son of God and the Saga of Race in America. A pioneering study of how and why the Bahá'í Faith became the second largest religious community in South Carolina. Carefully researched, the story told here fills a significant gap in our knowledge of South Carolina's rich and diverse religious history. Charles H. Lippy, coauthor of Religion in Contemporary America. The emergence of a cohesive interracial fellowship in Jim Crow-era South Carolina was unlikely and dangerous. However, members of the Bahá'í Faith in the Palmetto State rejected segregation, broke away from religious orthodoxy, and defied the odds, eventually becoming the state's largest religious minority. The religion, which emphasizes the spiritual unity of all humankind, arrived in the United States from the Middle East at the end of the nineteenth century via urban areas in the Northeast and Midwest. Expatriate South Carolinians converted, and when they returned home they brought their newfound religion with them. Despite frequently being the targets of intimidation and even violence by neighbors, the Ku Klux Klan, law enforcement agencies, government officials, and conservative clergymen the Bah's remained resolute in their faith and their commitment to an interracial spiritual democracy In the latter half of the twentieth century their numbers continued to grow from several hundred to over twenty thousand In No Jim Crow Church Louis Venters traces the history of South Carolina's Bah community from its early origins through the civil rights era and presents an organizational social and intellectual history of the movement He relates developments within the community to changes in society at large with particular attention to race relations and the civil rights struggle Venters argues that the Bah's in South Carolina represented a significant sustained spiritually based challenge to the ideology and structures of white male Protestant supremacy while exploring how the emergence of the Bah Faith in the Deep South played a role in the cultural and structural evolution of the religion Advancing Towards an Understanding Robert L. K. Mazibuko, 2018-05-03 The prerequisite for being a Bah is to attempt to live a life that is in accordance with the teachings of that faith In the human condition one must have a logical explanation for a principle that lends itself to being lived This is an attempt at stating thoughts in relation to an exalted theme in terms of what one might perceive given that one has to have logic to the effort of endeavoring to live the ideal These explanations are not conclusive and may apply for a certain period and a certain kind of person and they constitute the writer's desire to extend his belief to that which can actually be practiced Spirituality is not imaginary thought but a practicality The writer acknowledges that the Creator gave us minds to investigate phenomena because they are understandable and did not create pardon the expression for the mere purpose of confusing the minds It is a perception and a belief that He wants us to know and worship Him As He is eternal we must strive to advance eternally toward a fuller understanding of all lessons admitting that we are human and can do only what is humanly possible at any time Encyclopedia of Women and Religion in North America: Native American creation stories Rosemary Skinner Keller, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Marie Cantlon, 2006 A fundamental and well illustrated reference collection for anyone interested in the role of women in North American religious life Studies in Babi and Baha'i History Moojan Momen, 2006 This is the first collection of scholarly essays on the history of the Bah Faith to be published as a book Included are the works of five scholars who have conducted original research on specific aspects of the Babi and Bah religions Two essays are concerned with Bah history in Iran Denis MacEoin's provocative paper traces the first years of interaction and conflict between the Shaykh School and the emerging Babi Movement Moojan Momen provides a fascinating account of the relations of Christian missionaries in Iran with Babis and Bah's The three remaining essays discuss American Bah history Peter Smith's comprehensive survey of the American community from 1894 to 1917 adds substantially to our knowledge of that period William Collins offers an in depth study of the Bah's of Kenosha Wisconsin where one of the first Bah communities was established Finally Loni Bramson Lerche examines the development of Bah administrative procedures from 1922 to 1936 This is the first volume in the Studies Series and remains a classic work of Bah history It is a basic text for any study of the history of the Bah Faith Comments about the series include The series demonstrates both that a critical mass of young scholars interested in these movements have formed that the Baha i community in the U S can now support academic books on the religion British Society for Middle Eastern Studies Bulletin much more work needs to be done on Baha i history in Iran that process is now underway this collection carries it further Middle East Journal There is a mass of information here that could be used in more comparative or theoretically oriented studies Iranian Studies a fascinating volume which offers much new information on the development of a modern faith Religious Studies Review This volume is well worth reading by anyone seriously interested in religion in modern Iran British Society for Middle Eastern Studies Bulletin Encyclopedia of Women and Religion in North America, Set Rosemary Skinner Keller,Rosemary Radford Ruether,Marie Cantlon,2006-04-19 A fundamental and well illustrated reference collection for anyone interested in the role of women in North American religious life Memories of 'Abdu'l-Bahá Ramona Allen Brown,1980 Advancement of Women Janet Adrienne Khan,Peter Khan,2003 The equality of women and men is one of the basic tenets of the Baha i Faith and much is said on the subject in the Baha i writings Until now however no single volume created for a general audience has provided comprehensive coverage of the Baha i teachings on this topic and its many aspects In this broad survey husband and wife team Janet and Peter Khan address even those aspects of equality of the sexes that are usually ignored or glossed over in the existing literature The Bahá'í World ,1997 The to Z of the Bahá'í Faith Hugh C.
