Punch Henry Mayhew,Mark Lemon,Tom Taylor,Shirley Brooks,Francis Cowley Burnand,Owen Seaman,1898 After They're Gone Peter Marren,2022-05-05 Wise challenging and offering some unexpected laughter in the dark this is a rational and insightful account of the sixth great extinction event Peter Marren is a brilliant writer and a national treasure PATRICK BARKHAM Thoughtful fascinating and very timely STEPHEN MOSS Important and thought provoking CAROLINE LUCAS GREEN PARTY MP Essential reading Marren makes a page turner out of Armageddon SIMON BARNES In his characteristic style Peter Marren has humanised the story of wildlife losses with humour and wit but also with his enormous knowledge and deep love for the living world MARK COCKER We are in the midst of an extinction event the sixth mass extinction on earth and one entirely caused by mankind All species become extinct sooner or later but we have accelerated that natural process several hundredfold and now it is happening right in front of our eyes Extinction has a terrifying finality to it And many species have already been lost to us forever there is little we can do about that What we can do however is reflect remember and ultimately acknowledge the unvarnished truth We must see the natural world as it is and not as we might want it to be Our trajectory is one that has benefited one species alone humankind For all other beings from mammals to fish from birds to insects and coral from plants to lichens and fungi the future for better or worse is in our hands Heights and Depths George Hobson,2021-03-31 These poems make up the verbal equivalent of a synthetic cubist painting Many facets of reality are on display as the poems move through depths and heights of human experience The opening section presents a harsh evocation of the turbulence and violence in our world yet with hints of hope We are God s memories Preserved in his world Promised a future The second section is in a personal vein exposing not without humor the poet s struggles to find full self acceptance as he discovers himself inside God s love Section three in another register altogether evokes the beauty of intensely observed aspects of the natural world through which shines the mystery of physical reality Section four which includes a dramatic narrative account of a forest fire moves in the realm of memory its glories and its sorrows The last section fleshes out from a variety of angles the hints of hope in section one concluding with a startling at moments comical response to the wonder of the moon egg that suddenly appears in the night sky from behind backlit clouds and the poet asks Who laid it The imagery of these poems is original and vivid We are carried on a truly exciting unforgettable ride through a vast range of human experience Punch ,1898
