New Millennium New Perspectives The United Nations Security And Governance:

New Millennium, New Perspectives Ramesh Chandra Thakur, Ramesh Thakur, Edward Newman, 2000 Analyzes a number of pressing international challenges relating to security and governance The authors address a variety of questions such as the impact of globalization and find points of commonality in problem solving ethos and methodology The United Nations Sven Bernhard Gareis, 2012-03-29 There hardly seems to be a global issue in the world today in which the United Nations UN is not expected to play a key role And indeed despite a persistent gulf between high expectations and the UN's capacities the organization continues to be a unique and indispensable actor in areas such as peace maintenance human rights protection and development Thoroughly revised and updated the second edition of this highly acclaimed text provides a concise analysis of the UN its structure and work achievements and shortcomings and its likely role and prospects in the twenty first century The new edition covers the latest institutional and structural developments including the creation of the Peacebuilding Commission and the establishment of a permanent Human Rights Council and reflects recent debates on UN reform

Global Governance and the UN Thomas G. Weiss, Ramesh Thakur, 2010-04-23 In the 21st century the world is faced with threats of global scale that cannot be confronted without collective action Although global government as such does not exist formal and informal institutions practices and initiatives together forming global governance bring a greater measure of predictability stability and order to trans border issues than might be expected Yet there are significant gaps between many current global problems and available solutions Thomas G Weiss and Ramesh Thakur analyze the UN's role in addressing such knowledge normative policy institutional and compliance lapses The UN's relationship to these five global governance gaps is explored through case studies of some of the most burning problems of our age including terrorism nuclear proliferation humanitarian crises development aid climate change human rights and HIV AIDS

Regional Security and Global Governance Kennedy Graham, Tânia Felício, 2006 A compelling study of the interaction between regional agencies and the UN Security Council that includes a proposal for a regional global security mechanism which should be of interest to policy makers worldwide This ground breaking exploration into how peace and security might best be attained in the 21st century its central message is the importance of realizing UN Secretary General Kofi Annan's vision of a regional global security mechanism within the next decade The book reviews the historical tussle between universalism and regionalism as the cornerstone of international security over the past century culminating in the new regionalism that has characterised international relations in recent decades The complexities of contemporary regional sub regional and other organizations blessed and burdened with overlapping membership evolving mandates and even shifting focal areas are analysed The multidimensional phenomenon of regional security is explored cultural political and legal with a view to understanding how regional organizations work today This book is one of those rare offerings a policy oriented prescription for peace and security that is based on factual analysis and creative reasoning It is a must for national diplomats regional officials and international civil servants Gender, Violence and Security Laura Shepherd, 2013-07-04 How do understandings of the relationships between gender violence security and the international inform policy and practice in which these notions are central What are the practical implications of basing policy on problematic discourses In this highly original poststructural feminist critique the author maps the discursive terrains of institutions both NGOs and the UN which formulate and implement resolutions and guides of practice that affect gender issues in the context of international policy practices The author investigates UN Security Council Resolution 1325 passed in 2000 to address gender issues in conflict areas in order to examine the discursive construction of security policy that takes gender seriously In doing so she argues that language is not merely descriptive of social political reality but rather constitutive of it Moving from concept to discourse and in turn to practice the author analyses the ways in which the resolution s discursive construction had an enormous influence over the practicalities of its implementation and how the resulting tensions and inconsistencies in its construction contributed to its failures The book argues for a re conceptualisation of gendered violence in conjunction with security in order to avoid partial and highly problematic understandings of their practical relationship Drawing together theoretical work on discourses of gender violence and international security sexualised violence in war gender and peace processes and the domestic international dichotomy with her own rigorous empirical investigation the author develops a compelling discourse theoretical analysis that promises to have far reaching impact in both academic and policy environments

Collected Courses of the Xiamen Academy of International Law, Volume 4 (2011) The Xiamen Academy of International Law, 2013-04-15 The Collected Courses of the Xiamen Academy of International Law contain the Summer Courses taught at the Xiamen Academy of International Law by highly qualified international legal professionals The Fourth Volume of the Series contains the following articles The Application of International Law by the International Court of Justice Judge Abdul G Koroma The first part of this contribution explains how Judicial settlement of disputes has long been recognized as central to the stability and functioning of the international order and the rule of law The International Court of Justice ICJ the principal judicial organ of the United Nations plays a crucial role in the system established to this end by the Charter The second part of the contribution discusses how the Court applies each of the sources of law contained in Article 38 of the Statute of the Court Since the article s creation in 1920 Article 38 has remained the principal text used by international lawyers in describing the sources or origins of international law Prevention and International Law M Mohamed Bennouna Prevention in the context of globalization cannot take place only in the framework of State frontiers international norms mechanisms and institutions are indispensable in order to strengthen cooperation between States to anticipate risks and prevent any prejudice to people and goods This necessitates the adoption of appropriate obligations of prevention with the corresponding international responsibility The development of an international law of prevention as a process has to be accompanied by judicial guarantees at national regional and global levels International Dispute Resolution With Specific

Attention to China Christine Chinkin The lectures entitled International Dispute Resolution with specific attention to China first consider the concept of an international dispute and the development of the obligation on states to settle their disputes peacefully They then examine the historical evolution and contemporary understandings of the mechanisms enumerated in United Nations Charter Article 33 for the management and attempted resolution of such disputes which are currently available to states and other participants in the international arena negotiation inquiry mediation conciliation mediation arbitration and adjudication Each of the processes is discussed in the historical political and legal contexts of various international disputes including the detention of the American hostages in Tehran various aspects of the possession of nuclear weapons and the territorial dispute over Abyei The lectures consider the respective advantages and disadvantages of these various mechanisms the interplay between them their effectiveness and the legal and policy issues that influence choices as to different approaches to resolution of international disputes The Xiamen Academy of International Law aims to promote academic exchanges among legal communities across the globe encourage examination of major international issues and by so doing seek ways to improve the possibilities for world peace and international cooperation It seeks to achieve this aim by providing the highest level of education to individuals particularly those from Asian countries interested in the development and use of international law persons such as young lecturers in international law diplomats practitioners of

"L'Être situé", Effectiveness and Purposes of International Law Shotaro Hamamoto, Hironobu Sakai, Akiho Shibata, 2015-05-26 The traditional and mainstream conception of international law presupposes a certain ideal type of State However each State is situated in a particular context an Etat situ and the universal impartial and non discriminatory application of international law to each State often produces unjustifiable results in the real world International law thus needs to cope with this existential question in order to ensure and maintain the effectiveness of the international legal order without however being trapped by a nihilistic relativism This approach requires a flexible understanding and reconstruction of the international law making theory The present collection of essays gathers contributions written in honour of Professor Ryuichi Ida by his colleagues and former students inspired by the d d icataire who places particular emphasis upon the context effectiveness and purposes of international law The d d icataire s perspective finds wide ranging applications and the present collection deals with international economic law international criminal law international environmental law international law making the law of State responsibility and the law of international organizations Contributors are Tatsuya Abe Pierre Marie Dupuy Shotaro Hamamoto Machiko Kanetake Tomohiko Kobayashi Tomonori Mizushima Hironobu Sakai Akiho Shibata Mari Takeuchi Dai Tamada Sakda Thanitcul Zhi an Wang and Takuhei Yamada

Security in South Asia P. R. Chari,Sonika Gupta,2003 The word security has a military connotation and refers to the activities involved in protecting or defending a country in which the State has a central role This book argues that the State provides as well as threatens security and that by broadening the concept of security to include both military and non military threats such as those related to ecological social economic and political causes a system of checks and balances can be introduced to regulate the State A Better United Nations for the New Millennium Kamil Idris,Michael

Bartolo,2021-10-18 China's Emerging Security Diplomacy in Africa Isaac Owusu Frimpong,2025-04-26 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of China s evolving security engagement in Africa a dimension often overshadowed by earlier studies focusing on economic and political aspects As China s global ambitions expand its involvement in African security across bilateral regional and multilateral levels has intensified challenging its longstanding principle of non interference The book explores why China is shifting from a policy of non interference to one of non indifference and details the actions supporting this change Employing neoclassical realist theory it examines systemic factors domestic influences and the role of President Xi Jinping in shaping China s security strategy By adopting a three dimensional approach to Sino Africa relations and categorizing the reasons for China s policy shift into strategic culture superpower ambitions operational motives and reputational concerns the book offers fresh insights into China s security diplomacy It contributes to the broader discourse on China s changing stance and its implications for international relations highlighting the need for attention in both academic and policy circles Foreign Policy Steve Dunne Smith (Tim Hadfield, Amelia Kitchen, Nicholas Smith, Steve), 2024

The United Nations and Human Security Edward Newman, 2001-10-25 The United Nations and Human Security highlights and analyzes the changing peace and security challenges faced by the United Nations in an evolving international environment that is no longer solely characterized by states and inter state security The authors who comprise both scholars and UN practitioners cover a wide range of pressing current issues including refugees international tribunals the promotion of democracy ethics regional organizations humanitarian intervention conflict prevention and peacekeeping that form a cutting edge and controversial security agenda Arms Trade and Economic Development Jergen

Brauer, Paul Dunne, 2004-08-02 With the US invasion of Iraq the issue of arms trading is once again at the forefront of world events Arms importing countries often ask their suppliers to offset the cost by reinvesting some of the money in their country

Post-Tsunami Reconstruction in Indonesia Marjaana Jauhola, 2013-06-26 This book offers a critical analysis of gender mainstreaming initiatives in the post tsunami context in Indonesia Aiming to challenge the terms of the debate in gender mainstreaming and disaster reconstruction efforts Jauhola offers an important contribution for the discussion of what feminisms and disasters could be The work provides an in depth analysis of three governmental practices of gender mainstreaming the use of the concept pair sex gender the use of gender analysis and the use of project management tools and local subversion that challenges the potential normative violence of gender mainstreaming Providing feminist intersectional reading of gender mainstreaming the book aims to illustrate that this framework does not lack political alternatives but rather it offers an alternative focus for feminism and for the reconceptualisation of political and provides tools for practitioners of aid aiming to come to grips with the complexity of gender equality policy agenda and its potential violent social consequences in global politics Drawing on extensive field research in Aceh this text is one of the first book length studies and thus provides a significant addition to Indonesian literatures on intersectional analysis of gender religion heteronormativity and feminist subversive practice It is a vital resource for those interested in understanding global interconnections of localised disaster and conflict reconstruction International Territorial Administration Ralph

Wilde, 2010-09-30 This is the first comprehensive treatment of the reasons why international organizations have engaged in territorial administration The book describes the role of international territorial administration and analyses the various purposes associated with this activity revealing the objectives which territorial administration seeks to achieve

The EU and Multilateral Security Governance Sonia Lucarelli, Luk Van Langenhove, Jan Wouters, 2013-03-05 This book studies the role of the EU in peace and security as a regional actor with global aspirations in the context of challenged and changing multilateralism Multilateralism governance and security are three concepts that have attracted a great deal of attention in the past decade and attempts to redefine them have produced lively conceptual debates More recently different strands of the literature have found common ground in the investigation of the EU's role in what has been labelled multilateral security governance Despite being frequently used the term is yet to be fully clarified and empirically explored To contribute further our understanding of it this book presents a conceptual and empirical exploration of multilateral security governance and the EU's role in it Expert contributors in the field analyze both traditional and non traditional security areas to investigate if and how multilateral security governance functions and how the EU contributes or fails to contribute to the functioning of multilateral governance The EU and Multilateral Security Governance will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners of EU politics security studies and governance
