Demastes,2014-06-01 Applause Books For over 70 years The Best American Short Plays has been the standard of excellence for one act plays in America From its inception it has identified cutting edge playwrights who have gone on to establish award winning careers including Tennessee Williams Edward Albee and more In this volume the plays capture the struggle between hot tempers and cold decrees Humans love to think of themselves as rational beings well in control of their lives and surroundings from sunup to sundown sundown to sunrise We learn to follow rules of proper behavior and more than happily issue out advice to our friends who just can t get a handle on themselves Restraint and order after all are the cornerstones of human society and civilization The problem is that human nature bucks and bristles at every attempt to socialize and civilize Shakespeare got it right when he penned the observation The brain may devise laws for the blood but a hot temper leaps o er a cold decree In those few words he has managed to capture precisely why it is so difficult to be human if it were okay simply to let our hot tempers prevail life would be so much easier But cold decrees are what prevent us from self destruction and so we endure the struggle Making

Civil Rights Law Mark V. Tushnet,1994 Making Civil Rights Law is an insightful and provocative narrative history of the legal struggle led by Thurgood Marshall and the NAACP Legal Defense Fund which preceded the intense political battles for civil rights Drawing on personal interviews with Thurgood Marshall and other NAACP lawyers as well as new information about the private deliberations of the Supreme Court Tushnet tells the dramatic story of how the NAACP Legal Defense Fund led the Court to use the Constitution as an instrument of liberty and justice for all African Americans He also offers new insights into how the justices argued among themselves about the historic changes they were to make in American society
