Integrative Governance: Generating Sustainable Responses to Global Crises Margaret Stout,Jeannine M. Love,2018-07-20 Dominant governance theories are drawn primarily from Euro American sources including emergent theories of network and collaborative governance The authors contest this narrow view and seek a more globally inclusive and transdisciplinary perspective arguing such an approach is more fruitful in addressing the wicked problems of sustainability including social economic and environmental crises This book thus offers and affirms an innovative governance approach that may hold more promise as a universal framework that is not colonizing in nature due to its grounding in relational process assumptions and practices Using a comprehensive Governance Typology that encompasses ontological assumptions psychosocial theory epistemological concepts belief systems ethical concepts political theory economic theory and administrative theory the authors delve deeply into underlying philosophical commitments and carry them into practice through an approach they call Integrative Governance The authors consider ways this approach to radical self governance is already being implemented in the prefigurative politics of contemporary social movements and they invite scholars and activists to imagine governance in contexts of social economic and environmental interconnectedness to use the ideal type as an evaluative tool against which to measure practice and to pursue paradigmatic change through collaborative praxis

Altruism and Christian Ethics Colin Grant,2000-11-16 Separated from its anchorage in religion ethics has followed the social sciences in seeing human beings as fundamentally characterised by self interest so that altruism is either naively idealistic or arrogantly self sufficient Colin Grant contends that as a modern secular concept altruism is a parody on the self giving love of Christianity so that its dismissal represents a social levelling that loses the depths that theology makes intelligible and religion makes possible The Christian affirmation is that God is characterised by self giving love agape then expected of Christians Lacking this theological background the focus on self interest in sociobiology and economics and on human realism in the political focus of John Rawls or the feminist sociability of Carol Gilligan finds altruism naive or a dangerous distraction from real possibilities of mutual support This book argues that to dispense with altruism is to dispense with God and with the divine transformation of human possibilities management and administration Curtis Ventriss argues for reordering intellectual and policy priorities with a focus on publicness and the role of critical democratic thought in public affairs Too often the assumptions that underlie the prevailing theory and practice of addressing major political and economic problems remain unquestioned with economic and political conflicts displaced into issues of administration and leadership Ventriss calls for a reinvigorated notion of publicness based in part on a public social science civic experimentation and policies designed and tailored to the unique needs of various publics As a way to move forward this book offers ideas for redefining professionalism promoting civic initiatives and rethinking professional education for public service

Finance Reconsidered Bernard Paraque,Roland Pérez,2016-09-06 This volume argues the need for a radical break with the methodological individualism that dominates economics management and finance asking How should we re define the concept of value and serving as a stepping stone for the rethinking of academic finance Modern Isonomy Gerald Stourzh,2021-12-17 Until the eighteenth century Western societies were hierarchical ones Since then they have transformed themselves into societies dominated by two features participatory democracy and the protection of human rights In Modern Isonomy distinguished political theorist Gerald Stourzh unites these ideas as isonomy The ideal Stourzh argues is a state and indeed a world in which individual rights including the right to participate in politics equally are clearly defined and possessed by all Stourzh begins with ancient Greek thought contrasting isonomy which is associated with the rule of the many with gradated societies oligarchies and monarchies He then discusses the American experiment with the development of representative democracy as well as the French Revolution which proclaimed that all people are born and remain free and with equal rights But progress on the creation and protection of rights for all has been uneven Stourzh discusses specifically the equalization of slaves peasants women Jews and indigenous people He demonstrates how deeply intertwined the protection of equal rights is with the development of democracy and gives particular attention to the development of constitutional adjudication notably the constitutional complaint of individuals He also discusses the international protection human rights Timely and thought provoking Modern Isonomy is an erudite exploration of political and human rights The Responsible Administrator Terry L. Cooper,2011-04-08 Those who serve the public trust must take special care to ensure they make ethical and responsible decisions Yet the realities of bureaucracies deadlines budgets and demands for quick results make the payoffs for dealing formally with ethics seem unclear Since its original publication The Responsible Administrator has guided professionals and students alike as they grapple with the challenges of making ethical responsible decisions in real world situations This new edition includes information on coping with new demands for accountability as well as new cases and examples an examination of current issues relevant to administrative ethics and supplementary materials for professors Coopers theoretical framework and practical applications and techniques will help you consider all of the factors involved in a decision ensuring that you balance professional personal and organizational values Case studies and examples illustrate what works and what does not The Responsible Administrator helps both experienced and novice public administrators and students become effective decision makers provides them with a solid understanding of the role of ethics in public service and the framework to incorporate ethical and values based decision making in day to day management Public Administration and Epistemology Arthur J Sementelli,2020-12-28 Knowledge does not happen in a vacuum yet scholars and other professionals tend to engage in management scholarship focused on their specific niche often without knowing if or how their work might relate to other research streams Further exacerbating things people within specific disciplines including management tend not to communicate regularly outside of their relatively homogeneous audiences If we were able to bridge communication among these groups scholars and practitioners we might be able to better understand one another in a way that is contextually informed by each other's experiences Sementelli argues that understanding concepts of power agency and experience can provide such tools to orient management theories and practices relative to one another Using critical management thought to frame a discussion of ontology and how knowledge emerges from it enables the development of an orienting sandbox that works both practically and intellectually Such a sandbox enables us not just to communicate one's organizational priorities but also reveal some underlying reasons for those priorities and areas of inquiry This monograph focuses on public administration in particular as a special case of critical management research This book also examines the complexity of experiences of being using Karl Jaspers as a basis The sandbox that emerges can be used as a way to organize and orient management thought especially in the public sector It contributes both to administrative thought and applied inquiry into philosophy and will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of critical management studies organizational studies and public administration
