New Societies Of Tropical Africa A Selec:

Focus on Africa ,1963 Political Parties and National Integration in Tropical Africa James Smoot Coleman,Carl G. Rosberg,1966 Africa South of the Sahara Peter Duignan,1971 Church, State and Society in Kenya Galia Sabar,2012-12-06 This volume offers a debate on the role of Christianity in post colonial Kenya charting the role of the church state and society in the transformation of Kenya and the relationship between the three It shows how the church initiated health education and economic activities showing it to be a major instrument of transformation Argument and Change in World Politics Neta Crawford,2002-07-25 Arguments have consequences in world politics that are as real as the military forces of states or the balance of power among them Neta Crawford proposes a theory of argument in world politics which focuses on the role of ethical arguments in fostering changes in long standing practices She examines five hundred years of history analyzing the role of ethical arguments in colonialism the abolition of slavery and forced labour and decolonization Pointing out that decolonization is the biggest change in world politics in the last five hundred years the author examines ethical arguments from the sixteenth century justifying Spanish conquest of the Americas and from the twentieth century over the fate of Southern Africa The book also offers a prescriptive analysis of how ethical arguments could be deployed to deal with the problem of humanitarian intervention Co winner of the APSA Jervis Schroeder Prize for the best book on international history and politics Unveiling Modernity in Twentieth-Century West African Islamic Reforms Ousman Kobo,2012-08-27 In this book Ousman Kobo analyzes the origins of Wahhabi inclined reform movements in two West African countries Commonly associated with recent Middle Eastern influences reform movements in Ghana and Burkina Faso actually began during the twilight of European colonial rule in the 1950s and developed from local doctrinal contests over Islamic orthodoxy These early movements in turn gradually evolved in ways sympathetic to Wahhabi ideas Kobo also illustrates the modernism of this style of Islamic reform The decisive factor for most of the movements was the alliance of secularly educated Muslim elites with Islamic scholars to promote a self consciously modern religiosity rooted in the Prophet Muhammad s traditions This book therefore provides a fresh understanding of the indigenous origins of Wahhabism Seeking Viable Grassroots Representation Mechanisms in African Constitutions Charles Mwalimu,2009 In this book Charles Mwalimu explores viable grassroots representation mechanisms in African constitutions in order to positively integrate indigenous and modern systems in Sub Saharan Africa A comparative study method is used to examine the constitutional principles of chieftaincy and local government and their impact on human rights To establish and prove lack of positive integration Mwalimu connects this failure to poor constitutionalism development and stultified growth and human rights violations This book proposes remedial actions to build nondiscriminatory constitutional regimes eradicating violations of human rights A Select List of Recent Publications Contained in the Library of the Royal Colonial Institute Illustrating the Constitutional Relations Between the Various Parts of the British Empire Royal Commonwealth

Society. Library,1926 Islamic Societies to the Nineteenth Century Ira M. Lapidus,2012-10-22 First published in 1988 Ira Lapidus A History of Islamic Societies has become a classic in the field enlightening students scholars and others with a thirst for knowledge about one of the world s great civilizations This book based on fully revised and updated parts one and two of this monumental work describes the transformations of Islamic societies from their beginning in the seventh century through their diffusion across the globe into the challenges of the nineteenth century The story focuses on the organization of families and tribes religious groups and states showing how they were transformed by their interactions with other religious and political communities The book concludes with the European commercial and imperial interventions that initiated a new set of transformations in the Islamic world and the onset of the modern era Organized in narrative sections for the history of each major region with innovative analytic summary introductions and conclusions this book is a unique endeavour

Towards an Understanding of the African Experience from Historical and Contemporary Perspectives Festus Ugboaja Ohaegbulam,1990 This introductory survey provides a rich understanding of the African experience which until recently either had been omitted from the curriculum of institutions of higher learning or was distorted in written and oral literature The book identifies the post World War II civil rights movement in America and the independence revolution in Africa as the most decisive forces that generated interest in the study of the African black experience Includes four theoretical models for interpreting the black experience The author discusses the place and role of Africa in the development of human civilization focusing on Africa s Nile Valley civilizations and Western Sudanic empires It probes aspects of traditional African culture including the family traditional political institutions and religion and analyzes the impact on Africa and its peoples of such historical traumas as slavery colonialism and decolonization The Colonial Disease Maryinez Lyons,2002-06-06 A case study in the history of sleeping sickness relating it to the western civilising mission Africa Army Library (U.S.),1962

Africa, Its Problems and Prospects Army Library (U.S.),1962 Political Parties and National Integration in Tropical Africa James S. Coleman,Carl G. Rosberg,2023-04-28 The essays in this book focus attention on the role of political groups in the new functioning and development of the new African societies and the political systems of which they are a part The authors all recognized authorities have sought to identify and compare the manifestations of the general tendency among the new states of Tropical Africa toward the establishment and consolidation of one party political systems and to examine in the light of this general trend the different dimensions of the problem of integration This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1964 Strong Societies and Weak States Joel S. Migdal,2020-05-05 Why do many Asian African and Latin American states have such difficulty in directing the behavior of their populations in spite of the resources at their disposal And why do a small number of other states succeed in such control What effect do failing laws and social policies have on the state itself In answering these questions Joel Migdal takes a new look at the role of the state in the third world Strong Societies and Weak States offers a fresh approach to the study of state society relations and to the possibilities for economic and political reforms in the third world In Asia Africa and Latin America state institutions have established a permanent presence among the populations of even the most remote villages A close look at the performance of these agencies however reveals that often they operate on principles radically different from those conceived by their founders and creators in the capital city Migdal proposes an answer to this paradox a model of state society relations that highlights the state s struggle with other social organizations and a theory that explains the differing abilities of states to predominate in those struggles Intercom ,1963 Area Handbook for the Democratic Republic of the Congo (Congo Kinshasa). Gordon C. McDonald,1971 Provides facts about the social economic political and military institutions of the country Political Parties and National Integration in Tropical Africa , The Journal of the Linnean Society Linnean Society of London,1883 A Select Bibliography: Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe, Latin American American Universities Field Staff,1973
