Choice      Rock Brands Elizabeth Barfoot Christian, 2010-12-22 Rock Brands Selling Sound in a Media Saturated Culture edited by Elizabeth Barfoot Christian is an edited collection that explores how different genres of popular music are branded and marketed today. The book's core objectives are addressed over three sections. In the first part of Rock Brands the authors examine how established mainstream artists' bands are continuing to market themselves in an ever-changing technological world and how bands can use integrated marketing communication to effectively brand themselves. This branding is intended as a protection so that technology and delivery changes don't stifle the bands' success. KISS, AC/DC, Ozzy Osbourne, Phish, and Miley Cyrus are all popular musical influences considered in this part of the analysis. In the second section the authors explore how some musicians effectively use attention-grabbing issues such as politics (for example Kanye West) and countless country musicians and religion such as with Christian heavy metal bands and Bon Jovi in their lyrics, and also how imagery is utilized by artists such as Marilyn Manson to gain a fan base. Finally, the book will explore specific changes in the media available to market music today (see M.I.A. and her use of new media) and similarly how these resources can benefit music icons even after they are long gone (as with Elvis and Michael Jackson). Rock Brands further examines gaming, reality television, and social networking sites as new outlets for marketing and otherwise experiencing popular music. What makes some bands stand out and succeed when so many fail? How does one find a niche that isn't just kitsch and can stand the test of time, allowing the musician to grow as an artist as well as grow a substantial fan base? Elizabeth Barfoot Christian and the book's contributors expertly navigate these questions and more in Rock Brands Selling Sound in a Media Saturated Culture.

Creating Space for Shakespeare Rowan Mackenzie, 2023-02-09 Applied Shakespeare is attracting growing interest from practitioners and academics alike, all keen to understand the ways in which performing his works can offer opportunities for reflection, transformation, dialogue regarding social justice, and challenging of perceived limitations. This book adds a new dimension to the field by taking an interdisciplinary approach to topics which have traditionally been studied individually, examining the communication opportunities Shakespeare's work can offer for a range of marginalized people. It draws on a diverse range of projects from across the globe, many of which the author has facilitated or been directly involved with, including those with incarcerated people, people with mental health issues, learning disabilities, and who have experienced homelessness. As this book evidences, Shakespeare can be used to alter the spatial constraints of people who feel imprisoned, whether literally or metaphorically, enabling them to speak and to be heard in ways which may previously have been elusive or unattainable. The book examines the use of trauma-informed principles to explore the ways in which consistency, longevity, trust and collaboration enable the development of resilience positive autonomy and communication skills It explores this phenomenon of creating space for people to find their own way of expressing themselves in a way that mainstream society can understand whilst also challenging society to see better and to hear better This is not a process of social homogenisation but of encouraging positive interactions and removing the stigma of marginalization Southern African Literatures

Chapman, 1996 Southern African Literatures is a major study of the work of writers from South Africa Zimbabwe Zambia Malawi Angola Mozambique and Namibia written at a time of crucial change in the subcontinent It covers a wide range of work from storytelling of stone age Bushmen to modern writing by renowned figures such as Esia Mphahlele Nadine Gordimer and Andre Brink encompassing traditional and case studies based on topical issues The main focus of the book is the dynamic relationship between literary culture and political life in countries with fiercely contested histories

Music, Art and Diplomacy: East-West Cultural Interactions and the Cold War Simo Mikkonen, Pekka Suutari, 2017-05-15 Music Art and Diplomacy shows how a vibrant field of cultural exchange between East and West was taking place during the Cold War which contrasts with the orthodox understanding of two divided and antithetical blocs The series of case studies on cultural exchanges focusing on the decades following the Second World War cover episodes involving art classical music theatre dance and film Despite the fluctuating fortunes of diplomatic relations between East and West there was a continuous circulation of cultural producers and products Contributors explore the interaction of arts and politics the role of the arts in diplomacy and the part the arts played in the development of the Cold War Art has always shunned political borders wavering between the guidance of individual and governmental patrons and borderless expression While this volume provides insight into how political players tried to harness the arts to serve their own political purposes at the same time it is clear that the arts and artists exploited the Cold War framework to reach their own individual and professional objectives Utilizing archives available only since the collapse of the Soviet Union the volume provides a valuable socio cultural approach to understanding the Cold War and cultural diplomacy

Edmund Rubbra's music has given him a reputation as a spiritual composer who had an interest in Eastern thought and a mid life conversion to Roman Catholicism This book takes a wide and detailed view of spiritual dimensions or strands that were important in his life positioning them both biographically and within the context of contemporaneous English culture It proceeds to interpret through detailed analysis the ways these spiritual aspects are reflected in specific compositions Thematic treatment of these spiritual issues touching on Theosophy dance Eastern religions and thought nature the evolutionary theory of Teilhard de Chardin and the Christ figure presents a multi faceted view of Rubbra's life and music Its contribution to a scholarly re evaluation of his place within twentieth century British music and culture engages and meshes with several areas of current scholarly research in the arts and humanities including academic interest in Theosophy modernism and the arts experimental dance and the Indian cultural renaissance and East West musical interactions of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It also adds to a burgeoning body of writings on music and spirituality fuelled by the popularity of later twentieth century and contemporary composers who make more overt spiritual references in their music
