The Cambridge Companion to Modernism Michael Levenson, 2011-09-15 Including chapters on the major literary genres intellectual political and institutional contexts film and the visual arts this text provides both close analyses of individual works of modernism and a broader set of interpretive narratives

The Agon of Modernism Anne Quéménil, 1999 Lewis's political writings present ambiguities his stated belief in the autonomy of art from life is contradicted by other statements he made and by his critical analyses of writers and his political writings blur any a priori generic distinction between art and non art Given this blurring between art and life artistic genre and non artistic genre Quéménil claims that Lewis's political texts present characteristics usually attributed to avant gardism However this radicalism has to be balanced against Lewis's conservatism Thus his political writings can be read as allegories with two pragmatic aims to organize the life of the polis from an artistic standpoint and to persuade the reader to adhere to authoritarian politics

Poets & the Peacock Dinner Lucy McDiarmid, 2014 On January 18 1914 seven male poets gathered to eat a peacock W B Yeats and Ezra Pound the celebrities of the group led four lesser known poets to the Sussex manor house of the man they were honouring Wilfrid Scawen Blunt the poet horse breeder Arabist and anti imperialist married to Byron's only granddaughter In this story of the curious occasion that came to be known as the peacock dinner immortalized in the famous photograph of the poets standing in a row Lucy McDiarmid creates a new kind of literary history derived from intimacies rather than isms The dinner evolved from three close literary friendships those between Pound and Yeats Yeats and Lady Gregory and Lady Gregory and Blunt whose romantic affair thirty years earlier was unknown to the others Through close readings of unpublished letters diaries memoirs and poems in an argument at all times theoretically informed McDiarmid reveals the way marriage and adultery as well as friendship offer ways of transmitting the professional culture of poetry Like the women who are absent from the photograph the poets at its edges F S Flint Richard Aldington Sturge Moore and Victor Plarr are also brought into the discussion adding interest by their very marginality This is literary history told with considerable style and brio often comically aware of the extraordinary alliances and rivalries of the seven male poets but attuned to significant issues in coterie formation literary homosociality and the development of modernist poetics from late Victorian and Georgian beginnings Poets and the Peacock Dinner is written with critical sophistication and a wit and lightness that never compromise on the rich texture of event and personality

The Senses of Modernism Sara Danius,2019-01-24 In The Senses of Modernism Sara Danius develops a radically new theoretical and historical understanding of high modernism The author closely analyzes Thomas Mann's The Magic Mountain Marcel Proust's Remembrance of Things Past and James Joyce's Ulysses as narratives of the sweeping changes that affected high and low culture in the age of technological reproduction In her discussion of the years from 1880 to 1930 Danius proposes that the high modernist aesthetic is inseparable from a technologically mediated crisis of the senses She reveals the ways in which categories of perceiving and knowing are realigned when technological devices are capable of reproducing sense data Sparked by innovations such as chronophotography phonography radiography cinematography and technologies of speed this sudden shift in perceptual abilities had an effect on all arts of the time Danius explores how perception notably sight and hearing is staged in the three most significant modern novels in German French and British literature The Senses of Modernism connects technological change and formal innovation to transform the study of modernist aesthetics Danius questions the longstanding acceptance of a binary relationship between high and low culture and describes the complicated relationship between modernism and technology challenging the conceptual divide between a technological culture and a more properly aesthetic one

Lee, 2018-02-12 Authenticity has begun to rival development as a key to understanding the political aspirations of the Islamic world Almost everywhere modernity has laid waste to tradition those habits and practices deemed to be timeless and true Imperialism carried European notions of progress into Muslim dominated parts of the globe and subsequently Muslims themselves espoused Western practices techniques and philosophies Regimes calling themselves liberal socialist and Arab nationalist all embraced modernity as their principal objective Most of these regimes failed to create the promised better lives their citizens desired Moreover ordinary Muslims felt despair as modernity ripped apart families exposed youngsters to the materialism and hedonism of Western entertainments heightened social expectations and undermined religious belief Even though tradition has proved itself incapable of staving off modernity the promises and premises of modern development literature have been called into question Where is the truth around which Muslims can rally Does modernity require a rejection of tradition Does the embrace of Islamic ideas necessitate turning away from modernity Robert D Lee explores these compelling questions by presenting four contemporary Muslim writers Muhammad Iqbal Sayyid Qutb Ali Shari ati and Mohammed Arkoun all of whom have refused to bow to such a dichotomy of modernity and tradition This study examines their efforts deeply influenced by European thinking to find a truth beyond tradition and modernity an authentic understanding of Islam upon which Muslims can build a future All four thinkers believe such an authentic understanding can serve as the foundation for a new politics Lee argues however that each of these versions of authenticity suffers shortcomings and falters in its efforts to move from the particularity of culture onto a grander scale of political organization appropriate for the modern world Women, Periodicals and Print Culture in Britain, 1890s-1920s Faith

Cool-Kawaii Thorsten Botz-Bornstein, 2012-07-10 At the turn of the millennium international youth culture is dominated by mainly two types of aesthetics the African American cool which propelled by Hip Hop music has become the world's favorite youth culture and the Japanese aesthetics of kawaii or cute that is distributed internationally by Japan's powerful anime industry The USA and Japan are cultural superpowers and global trendsetters because they make use of two particular concepts that hide complex structures under their simple surfaces and are difficult to define but continue to fascinate the world cool and kawaii The Cool Kawaii Afro Japanese Aesthetics and New World Modernity by Thorsten Botz Bornstein analyzes these attitudes and explains the intrinsic powers that are leading to a fusion of both aesthetics Cool and kawaii are expressions set against the oppressive homogenizations that occur within official modern cultures but they are also catalysts of modernity Cool and kawaii do not refer us back to a pre modern ethnic past Just like the cool African American man has almost no relationship with traditional African ideas about masculinity the kawaii sh jo is not the personification of the traditional Japanese ideal of the feminine but signifies an ideological institution of women based on Japanese modernity in the Meiji period that is a feminine image based on westernization At the same time cool and kawaii do not transport us into a futuristic impersonal world of hypermodernity based on assumptions of constant modernization Cool and kawaii stand for another type of modernity which is not technocratic but rather Dandyist and closely related to the search for human dignity and liberation

Symbols and Myth-Making in Modernity Tatiana Tiaynen-Qadir, Ali Qadir, 2022-11-01 Why do people queue up and break the bank to watch fantasy movies Why do some fictional characters and mythical creatures strangely arrest our mind and senses Why do some images and tales affect us so deeply From mystical heroic journeys to uncanny images and invincible goddesses Symbols and Myth Making in Modernity investigates the metaphoric power of symbols in human imagination today and in the past The book traces how ever present symbols in cultures and rituals across the world as well as in masterpieces of Renaissance Sufi poetry and Finnish Kalevala myths erupt in popular culture today including in cinema books visual art music and politics The authors develop a phenomenological theory of deep culture that nourishes human perception of reality through multivalent symbols and myths in which art and rituals occur as liminal spaces of symbol making Drawing on examples from the Hobbit and Avengers street art politics and work of acclaimed modern artists the book describes how deep culture can be seen as a symbolic map of modern mythology Dismantling literalism and disturbing our view of the world at each step the book unpacks how symbols play out in the modern world and the work they do in transforming the self

Reworking Modernity

Allan Pred, Michael Watts, 1992 Using both grand conceptualizations and grounded case studies Allan Pred and Michael Watts look at how people cope with and give meaning to capitalism and modernity in different times and places As capital accumulation has grown and taken new forms it has affected technology and labor relations which in turn have affected people's daily lives These changes have not always been either welcome or easy Pred and Watts focus on the symbolic discontent and cultural confrontations that accompany capitalism They depict people struggling over the meaning of change in their lives and over new relations of power Modernity is experienced differently in different times and places To illustrate this point Pred and Watts offer four case studies that range across time and space These studies remind us that there are multiple capitalisms and multiple reactions to capitalisms Watts begins with a study of a Muslim millenarian movement that arose alongside the Nigerian oil boom of the 1970s When a Muslim prophet and disenfranchised followers tried to create a distinctive community and identity they came into brutal conflict with state authorities Thousands died in the resulting oppression Watts's next case is less bloody at least in the short run He tells us what happened when technological change was introduced in rice production in West African peasant society Peasants were drawn into the world economy as contract farmers This changed work relations and affected everyday life in peasant households Families began to fight over who would work and under what conditions They struggled over gender identity and property rights We move back in time and across space for their third case study Pred discusses changes in the daily life of the Stockholm working class at the end of the nineteenth century He writes of the various forms their discontent took as they struggled with economic restructuring Even conflict over street names took on special meaning For the last case Pred takes us to a steel mill in California When a South Korean company became half owner of the mill there was money for modernization and the threat of layoffs was reduced But the workers remained unhappy They protested low wages unsafe conditions and unfair recruitment practices Their labor issues turned into issues of nationalism morality and identity All four case studies demonstrate the shock of modernity and how the resulting struggles affect daily life
