lives Merging art with science this book illuminates 16 core capacities that enable people to bring out the best in themselves their activities and relations It offers step by step coaching for all who wish to master the ongoing art of personal development A companion workbook provides additional support for the exercises and Personal Growth Project Holistic Healing Peter A. Dunn, 2019-06-01 A practical and insightful guide Holistic Healing investigates the practices theories research and history of holistic approaches as it relates to a wide range of health care and human service professionals This text offers a uniquely comparative and integrated understanding of both ancient and modern Indigenous Eastern and Western traditional practices including bodywork expressive arts energy medicine eco psychology transpersonal psychology naturopathy homeopathy Ayurveda traditional Chinese medicine and Indigenous healing practices Practitioners and scholars in health nutrition psychology and social work contribute to research that focuses on individual organizational national and global holistic intervention applications Chapters in this collection address critical issues such as colonization human rights the environment peace and conflict and equity and inclusion This collection is a timely and practical resource for students of undergraduate health social work sociology holistic healing and psychology programs and is also a great resource for professional practitioners Being Human in a Buddhist World Janet Gyatso, 2015-01-20 Critically exploring medical thought in a cultural milieu with no discernible influence from the European Enlightenment Being Human in a Buddhist World reveals an otherwise unnoticed intersection of early modern sensibilities and religious values in traditional Tibetan medicine It further studies the adaptation of Buddhist concepts and values to medical concerns and suggests important dimensions of Buddhism's role in the development of Asian and global civilization Through its unique focus and sophisticated reading of source materials Being Human adds a crucial chapter in the larger historiography of science and religion The book opens with the bold achievements in Tibetan medical illustration commentary and institution building during the period of the Fifth Dalai Lama and his regent Desi Sangye Gyatso then looks back to the work of earlier thinkers tracing a strategically astute dialectic between scriptural and empirical authority on questions of history and the nature of human anatomy It follows key differences between medicine and Buddhism in attitudes toward gender and sex and the moral character of the physician who had to serve both the patient's and the practitioner's well being Being Human in a Buddhist World ultimately finds that Tibetan medical scholars absorbed ethical and epistemological categories from Buddhism yet shied away from ideal systems and absolutes instead embracing the imperfectability of the human condition Mind: A Journey to the Heart of Being Human (Norton Series on Interpersonal Neurobiology) Daniel J. Siegel, 2016-10-18 A New York Times Bestseller A scientist's exploration into the mysteries of the human mind What is the mind What is the experience of the self truly made of How does the mind differ from the brain Though the mind's contents its emotions thoughts and memories are often described the essence of mind is rarely if ever defined In this book noted neuropsychiatrist and New York Times best selling author Daniel J Siegel MD uses his characteristic sensitivity and interdisciplinary background to offer a definition of the mind that illuminates the how what when where and even why of who we are of what the mind is and what the mind s self has the potential to become MIND takes the reader on a deep personal and scientific journey into consciousness subjective experience and information processing uncovering the mind's self-organizational properties that emerge from both the body and the relationships we have with one another and with the world around us While making a wide range of sciences accessible and exciting from neurobiology to quantum physics anthropology to psychology this book offers an experience that addresses some of our most pressing personal and global questions about identity connection and the cultivation of well being in our lives Being Human, Becoming Human Brian Gregor, Jens Zimmermann, 2012-05-31 What does it mean to be human The German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer thought deeply about this questions out of a desire to understand the importance of Christ and the incarnation for modern culture His conviction that Christ died for a new humanity is at the core of his theological anthropology This collection assembles a distinguished and international group of scholars to examine Bonhoeffer's understanding of human sociality From the introduction of his dissertation Sanctorum Communio where he notes the social intention of all the basic Christian concepts to his final writings in prison where he describes Christian faith as being for others the theme of human sociality runs throughout Bonhoeffer's works This volume examines Bonhoeffer's rich resources for thinking about what it means to be human to be the church to be a disciple and to be ethically responsible in our contemporary world Being Human Becoming Human is vital reading for Bonhoeffer scholars as well as for those invested in theological debates regarding the social nature of human beings On Being Human C. Norman Kraus, 2011-10-07 Too often the biblical passages governing sexual morality are interpreted in simplistic proof texting ways that take no account of the cultural gap between ancient Israel and the modern world And too often the official positions of churches are determined by opinion polls and majority votes rather than a sober theological and ethical assessment of the issues involved A third way is called for that avoids the errors of both naive fundamentalism and the Bible dismissing zeitgeist a way that puts theological reflection at the forefront This little book aims to provide a theologically informed biblical approach to help Christians find a new way forward in their dialogue over questions surrounding homosexuality It deconstructs the Augustinian theological tradition that has defined evaluated and regulated sexual behavior in the western Christian traditions Kraus maintains that the doctrine of the creation rather than the doctrine of sin must be the framework for understanding sexuality and sexual desire He argues that the basic justification for erotic physical intimacy is the fulfillment of God's original intention for human community shalom Beginning with the definition of the image of God as a social symbol that mirrors the Trinity Kraus calls the church to reflect that trinitarian image as it is seen in Christ He argues that this stance at the very least calls the church to empathetic inclusion of the GLBTQ community in its ongoing discernment conversation which of course means full participation in its life Being Human in a Consumer Society Alejandro Néstor García Martínez, 2016-04-15 This book offers a new perspective on sociological studies of the consumer society introducing neglected normative questions relating to the good life and human flourishing subjects more commonly discussed in fields of moral political and social philosophy With attention to a wide range of subjects including postemotional law and responsibility dehumanised consumption and prosumerism fashion embodiment conspicuous consumption and sustainability this book analyzes the structural and cultural transformations that can be identified in consumer society It also offers a critical but not pessimistic view of the important question of whether consumption is leading to an increasing isolation individualization or commodification of human beings suggesting an analytical framework for understanding consumer culture and human praxis Bringing together work from across disciplines by scholars in the US Europe and the UK to engage with questions concerning our globalized and globalizing world where consumerism is a keystone for understanding our contemporary culture and its social structures Being Human in a Consumer Society will appeal to scholars and students of sociology social theory and contemporary philosophy Being Human, Being Migrant Anne Sigfrid Grønseth, 2013-10-01 Migrant experiences accentuate general aspects of the human condition Therefore this volume explores migrant's movements not only as geographical movements from here to there but also as movements that constitute an embodied cognitive and existential experience of living in between or on the borderlands between differently figured life worlds Focusing on memories nostalgia the here and now social experiences of daily living and the hopes and dreams for the future the volume demonstrates how all interact in migrants and refugees experience of identity and guest for well being Christian Perspectives on Being Human J. P. Moreland, David M. Ciocchi, 2015-01-26 While there is a unity to truth from God's perspective there are nevertheless many different ways of knowing studying and defining that truth Thus the task of integration is the task of relating theology and other disciplines in such a way that one articulates and defends a comprehensive unified Christian worldview Christian Perspectives on Being Human is a vital step in that essential process of integration In this unique anthology colleagues from various departments at Biola University undertake an important multidisciplinary approach to integration J P Moreland and David Ciocchi represent philosophy in this discussion Robert Saucy theology Sherwood Lingenfelter anthropology Nancy Duvall and Keith Edwards psychology Walt Russell and Scott Rae New Testament and medical ethics and Klaus Issler Being Human Alice Claudia Oehninger, 2024-11-05 An intimate empathic exploration of the life of Christian education Alice Oehninger For fourteen years she grows up in traditional Tanzania and Zimbabwe of the 1980ies She is white And transgender She looks like a boy and is expected to act the part At twenty she returns to her native Switzerland and finds herself a stranger there too She navigates culture shock love and rejection earns a living discovers the powerful wish to be a parent In the role of a man she marries and finds contentment in Germany until crisis destroys her fragile world Where others break Alice rises She is driven by enabling other people to be their best possible selves She becomes a learning coach for youths and young adults a mentor and a counsellor And ultimately it is this drive that has led to this book that it may touch and enrich as many lives as possible With her richness of insights and experiences Alice understands the parallels and similarities in the joys and struggles of people across the globe The appreciation that life is finite and infinitely precious How we are all united in this Alice explores human needs so fundamental they rule our choices and interactions Our ancestral urges for dominance and survival pitch us against each other define how cultures and genders interact She delicately but implacably points out how much time and effort we dedicate to defending and preserving our comfort zone Alice breaks taboos Suggesting what we might require to solve emotional double binds Or live and thrive despite ambivalences and insecurities What it takes to overcome biological dichotomy the conditioning of childhood How we all yearn for recognition security and love Alice is clear in her expectations of us identify our own constraints conditioned by society or self imposed And in their stead engender understanding and mutual empowerment She asks that we become role models for a society we want to live in tomorrow J C Being Human in Islam Damian Howard, 2011-03-08 Islamic anthropology is relatively seldom treated as a particular concern even though much of the contemporary debate on the modernisation of Islam its acceptance of human rights and democracy makes implicit assumptions about the way Muslims conceive of the human being This book explores how the spread of evolutionary theory has affected the beliefs of contemporary Muslims regarding human identity capacity and destiny In his systematic treatment of the impact of evolutionary ideas on modern Islam Damian Howard surveys several branches of Muslim thought Muslim responses to the crisis of the religious imagination presented by the evolutionary worldview fall into four different forms incorporating traditional and modern notions. The book evaluates the content influence and success of these four forms asking how Muslims might now proceed to address the profound challenges which evolutionary theory poses to the effective reconstruction of their religious thought Drawing fascinating parallels with developments in the world of Christian theology which will help understanding between people of the two religions the author reflects on the question of how Muslims can come to terms with the modern world A valuable addition to the literature on contemporary Islamic thought this book will also interest students and scholars of religion and modernity the history and philosophy of science and evolutionary theory Being Human in an Artificial World Geoffrey W. Cheong, 2024-06-01 The vision of Raimon Panikkar is to examine an understanding of the fulness of the human experience understood ultimately in the iconic image of Jesus the Christ This book aims to explore an understanding of his work in context context of the history of humanity the emerging integral era of perception the context of the contemporary secular society which he speaks of as an artificial life and the context of creation and the creator As creature he sees the secret of life in the inter relational nature of the three creature creation and creator The unique nature of this mysterious three way unity leads him to coin a term to speak of its nature as Cosmotheandric His extensive academic background of philosophy theology and science and the broad life of spirituality lived in the context of the interreligious world of both East and West equips well his mind to probe life s nature Of his many students Ewert Cousins asks the pertinent question of how to live Panikkar s vision It is the author's contribution to respond to Cousins question while drawing upon Panikkar's cosmothendric concept by drawing upon contemporary knowledge through the model of the scriptural wisdom to love God and one s neighbour as one s self This he refers to as Relational Spirituality The integral era of history is appearing on the horizon of the global psyche to birth a new era of human mindfulness like never before Carl Jaspers has highlighted two major times of transition shaping humankind through the passing millennia that have moved humanity from a simple human life to the highly complex time of today Iaspers spoke of the transition in human consciousness through the millennium prior to the life of Jesus Christ as the First Axial Period of History Martin Heidegger Teilherd de Chardin Jean Gebser Ken Wilber Ewert Cousins Raimon Panikkar are some of the thought leaders of our time who have made major contributions to this understanding of the emerging Integral awareness For many the disturbing changes encountered on the surface of society ring loudly of crisis Secularisation is the dominant life style primarily shaped by the cyber revolution and its Artificial Intelligence Most concerning is the range of questions humans face about their personal value and loss of substantial meaning Dr Cheong draws upon the great minds listed above in particular the work of Raimon Panikkar to map a pathway for growing more fully into an Integral way of life which he refers to as Relational Spirituality Being Human Ron Broglio, Frederick Young, 2017-10-02 Technology and animals often serve as the boundaries by which we define the human In this issue contributors explore these categories as necessary supplements or as porous membranes which disturb the scaffolding of how the human is constructed A lingering question throughout is whether we have ever been human or if such a category is a non localizable ideal or perhaps a misnomer In this collection of essays internationally known theorists muddle the categorical boundaries such that animals and technologies become necessary components rather than limits for what it means to be human They examine a range of subjects including apophatic animality critical media objects to think with biosemiotic insect resonances the monstrous and horrific which dislodges our cultural animals and the problem of thinking of animality as stupidity Novels films digital objects scientific laboratories philosophical texts animals on the road and in the fields serve as sites for inquiry The result of these investigations is the spectral possibility that we are not the humans we make ourselves out to be This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki Being Human in Digital Cities Myria Georgiou, 2023-11-28 How is life in digital cities changing what it means to be human In this perceptive book Myria Georgiou sets out to investigate the new configuration of social order that is taking shape in today s cities Although routed through extractive datafication compulsive connectivity and regulatory AI technologies this digital order nonetheless displaces technocentrism and instead promotes new visions of humanism all in the name of freedom diversity and sustainability But the digital order emerges in the midst of neoliberal instability and crises resulting in a plurality of contrasting responses to securing digitally mediated human progress While corporate media and state actors mobilize such positive sociotechnical imaginaries to promise digitally mediated human progress urban citizens and social movements propose alternative pathways to autonomy and dignity through and sometimes against digital technologies Investigating the dynamic workings of technology and power from a transparational and comparative perspective this book reveals the contradictory claims and struggles for the future of digital cities and their humanity In doing so it will enrich understandings of digital urbanism critical data studies and critical humanist studies Being Human - A Guide to Metaphysics Vaughan Wynne-Jones, 2000-12-20 It's an exploration of humanity from its early beginnings to the precarious situation we find ourselves in now It s a study of the world s religions and mores and how they all point back to a single starting point It s an attempt to make people think for themselves for a change and to see that whatever our outward differences we are all ultimately the same Being Human During COVID-19 Paul Martin, Stevienna de Saille, Kirsty Liddiard, Warren Pearce, 2022-04-26 This transdisciplinary collection engages with key issues of social exclusion inequality power and knowledge in the context of COVID 19 for a more equitable and inclusive human future Being Human Richard Gross, 2013-01-11 Richard Gross turns his expert eye to the psychology of human nature in a contemplative account encompassing cognition consciousness language time perception sense of mortality and human society This book will help you to consider the unique aspects of being human and to understand the biological underpinnings for the intriguing and distinct behaviours and experiences common to human beings The book is enhanced throughout by its logical arrangement of topics with key questions issues for additional focus and reflection points highlighted throughout useful chapter introductions and summaries to provide clarity and insight diagrams to help explain difficult concepts detailed selection of references and useful sources including works from the fields of psychology philosophy religion and literature This book is essential reading for students of psychology and related disciplines as well as general readers seeking insights into one of the most enduring questions to have faced humankind throughout The Sound of Being Human Jude Rogers, 2022-04-28 Too often we treat popular music as wallpaper history surrounding us as we live our lives Jude Rogers shows the emotional and cerebral heft such music can have It s a personal journey which becomes universal Fascinating Ian Rankin Moving and absorbing The Sound of Being Human mixes memoir analysis anecdote and personal chronicle into a mosaic that evokes what music means to the individual and the human tribe A candid beautiful read Stuart Maconie The Sound of Being Human explores in detail why music plays such a deep rooted role in so many lives from before we are born to our last days At its heart is Jude s own story how songs helped her wrestle with the grief of losing her father at age five concoct her own sense of self as a lonely adolescent sky rocket her relationships both real and imagined in the flushes of early womanhood propel her own journey into working life adulthood and parenthood and look to the future Shaped around twelve songs ranging from ABBA's Super Trouper to Neneh Cherry's Buffalo Stance Kraftwerk's Radioactivity to Martha Reeves and the Vandellas Heat Wave the book combines memoir and historical scientific and cultural enquiry to show how music can shape different versions of ourselves how we rely upon music for comfort for epiphanies and for sexual and physical connection how we grow with songs and songs grow inside us helping us come to terms with grief getting older and powerful memories It is about music s power to help us tell our own stories
