New Poverty Families In Postmodern Society:

New Poverty David Cheal, 1996-06-30 Cheal argues that the sociology of poverty has entered a new postmodern phase. The new poverty is about loss of faith in relationships that were once believed to last a lifetime and in government programs that we used to think would last for generations. The new poverty is about the economic fall of individuals and countries who used to be affluent and who once dreamed that their affluence would go on forever. It is about the experience of free falling without a parachute and without much of a safety net. The new poverty is about people who lose their jobs when their company downsizes. It is about people whose hours of employment are cut in half when the work runs out. And it is about couples who separate thereby plunging one of them and probably their children into a low income level that they had never anticipated. What is new about the new poverty is the sense of surprise that poverty can hit so suddenly that people can fall so far before they are caught and lifted up that the poverty of children still troubles us after a century of progress. The new poverty is about our loss of faith not only in relationships that were once thought to last a lifetime but also in government programs that we believed would last for generations. Cheal translates the experience of the new poverty into sociological theory and into social statistics. His purpose is to provoke serious critical reflection about families today and the risks of being poor. An important study for scholars and researchers involved with family issues and social policy.

Handbook of Contemporary Families Marilyn Coleman, Lawrence H Ganong, 2004. Coleman and Ganong recruited an outstanding group of scholars to contribute to the Handbook of Contemporary Families. Authors represent a wide array of disciplines and the topics touch on every aspect of family life. The organization of the book is excellent and the writing of high quality. Scholars and students alike will find the book a valuable resource. Alan Booth Penn State University. Marilyn Coleman and Larry Ganong have produced a comprehensive handbook exploring the changes and challenges confronting contemporary families. The chapters written by some of the most distinguished social scientists studying families give a balanced research based analysis of some of the most contentious issues of our time. E Mavis Hetherington University of Virginia. This useful handbook brings together many of the most important new findings and provocative ideas about America's diverse and changing families. An excellent resource. Stephanie Coontz author of The Way We Really Are: Coming to Terms with America's Changing Families. What has happened to marriage and families? What is the current state of families? Where are families headed? Where is family scholarship headed? As families face challenges today brought on by events that have changed their perception of the world, there is a need for a clear assessment of what has happened to families in the past and an examination of some data based theories about what is likely to happen in the future. The Handbook of Contemporary Families explores how families have changed in the last 30 years and speculates about future trends. Editors Marilyn Coleman and Lawrence H Ganong along with a multidisciplinary group of contributors critique the approaches used to study relationships and families while suggesting modern approaches for the new millennium. The Handbook looks at how changes within the contemporary family have been reflected in family law family education and family therapy Features of this Handbook Examines a diverse array of families and relationships in which people live including chapters on alternative lifestyles gay and lesbian relationships economically distressed families religion and families racial and ethnic diversity a feminist vision for families older families and the effect of computers and other technology on family relationships Includes both a historical review and future speculation on the subjects covered in each chapter Interdisciplinary contributors representing a variety of fields such as history family studies sociology law therapy social work psychology nursing and human development The Handbook of Contemporary Families is an excellent resource for advanced undergraduate and graduate students researchers educators and practitioners who study and work with families in several disciplines including Family Science Human Development and Family Studies Sociology Marriage Family Therapy and Social Work Succeeding Postmodernism Mary K. Holland,2013-04-25 While critics collect around the question of what comes after postmodernism this book asks something different about recent American fiction what if we are seeing not the end of postmodernism but its belated success Succeeding Postmodernism examines how novels by DeLillo Wallace Danielewski Foer and others conceptualize threats to individuals and communities posed by a poststructural culture of mediation and simulation and possible ways of resisting the disaffected solipsism bred by that culture Ultimately it finds that twenty first century American fiction sets aside the postmodern problem of how language does or does not mean in order to raise the reassuringly retro question of what it can and does mean it finds that novels today offer language as solution to the problem of language Thus it suggests a new way of reading antihumanist late postmodern fiction and a framework for understanding postmodern and twenty first century fiction as participating in a long and newly enlivened tradition of humanism and realism in literature Families, Labour and Love Maureen Baker,2020-07-29 We think of our family life as very personal but in fact it is shaped by influences well beyond our control Families Labour and Love identifies the ways in which family and personal life in three settler societies Australia New Zealand and Canada has been shaped by colonisation immigration globalisation demographic changes law and policy Baker shows that these three countries each a former colony developed similar family trends and similar family policies Strongly gendered patterns of paid and unpaid work played a major role in family life The family practices of indigenous people were largely overlooked as were those of recent immigrant groups However local conditions also produced significant differences in family experiences among the three countries Richly illustrated with examples comparative data and textual sources Families Labour and Love provides a broad ranging analysis of the family which will appeal to students researchers and policy makers Maureen Baker outlines with great clarity the diversity of families and the way in which they are shaped by historical and cultural forces The focus on Australia New Zealand and Canada is not only refreshing but throws into sharp relief the impact on contemporary families of the colonial experience industrialisation large scale immigration and globalisation David de Vaus La Trobe University The Web of Poverty Terry S Trepper,Anne Marie Ambert,2014-03-18

Women at the Margins J Dianne Garner, Rosemary Sarri, Josefina Figueira-McDonough, 2013-01-11 A compelling look at the crisis of disadvantaged women This powerful document takes a sobering look at the phenomenon of marginalized women pushed to the edges of society holding on with the barest of hope and extraordinary bravery Handicapped by the increasing societal inequality they face as an everyday fact of life these women and in many cases their children have been disconnected from the mainstream for reasons of age race gender health incarceration domestic abuse unwanted pregnancy unemployment and economic circumstance They are poor in an affluent society powerless in a powerful nation and the suffering caused by their exclusion is poignant and troubling Eloquently illustrated with poetry art and prose created by marginalized women Women at the Margins Neglect Punishment and Resistance makes a compelling argument for social change The book offers a no holds barred look at how economic restructuring welfare reform neo conservative ideology and institutional exclusion have locked women into subservient substandard roles stripping them of their citizenship and rendering them expendable Diverse authors track the life cycle of marginalized women from teenage pregnancy to the loneliness of older women in poverty or prison Women at the Margins Neglect Punishment and Resistance addresses the effects of welfare reform the forgotten group women in prison and jail low income women and housing women marginalized by substance abuse poverty and incarceration teenage pregnancy children and their incarcerated mothers recidivism and reintegration women law and the justice system and much more Women at the Margins Neglect Punishment and Resistance acknowledges the long history of the inequality faced by women living in exclusion but focuses on the present with a hopeful but realistic eye toward the future It is an indispensable resource for sociology social work legal and penal system professionals and academics and an essential read for everyone

The Preferential Option for the Poor beyond Theology Daniel G. Groody, Gustavo A. Gutiérrez, 2016-10-15 Since the 1973 publication of Gustavo Gutiérrez's groundbreaking work A Theology of Liberation liberation theology's central premise of the preferential option for the poor has become one of the most important yet controversial theological themes of the twentieth century As the situation for many of the world's poor worsens it becomes ever more important to ensure that the option for the poor remains not only a vibrant theological concept but also a practical framework for living out the gift and challenge of Christian faith The Preferential Option for the Poor beyond Theology draws on a diverse group of contributors to explore how disciplines as varied as law economics politics the environment science liberal arts film and education can help us understand putting a commitment to the option for the poor into practice The central focus of the book revolves around the question How can one live a Christian life in a world of destitution The contributors address the theological concept of the option for the poor as well as the ways it can shape our social economic political educational and environmental approaches to poverty Their creative examples serve as an inspiration to all those who are seeking to put their talents at the service of human need and the building of a more just and humane world
