New Religionspostmodern World:

New Religions in a Postmodern World R. Kranenborg, Mikael Rothstein, 2003 This volume presents a selection of papers read at the CESNUR 1997 conference in Amsterdam The articles are divided into four sections each with its own relevance to the study of new religions in contemporary society esotericism millennialism and eschatology religious leaders and more broadly social aspects of the new religions The contributors work in the fields of sociology sociology of religion history of religion anthropology and theology thus reflecting the well established tradition for interdisciplinary efforts in the study of new religions The contributors are Judith Coney Jean Duhaime Robert Ellwood Liselotte Frisk Massimo Introvigne Constance A Jones Reender Kranenburg Albertina Nugteren David Piff Mikael Rothstein Mark Sedgwick Jan A M Snoek Cristine Steyn and Margit Warburg New Religious Movements: A Guide for the Perplexed Paul Oliver, 2012-02-02 Discusses the philosophical sociological and psychological themes in new religious movements and includes a survey and explanation of a few groups The New Religious Humanists Gregory Wolfe, 1997 In Gregory Wolfe s collection The New Religious Humanists we find the work of a new group of religious intellectuals who have a compelling vision for cultural renewal In his Introduction Wolfe argues that the only viable alternative to the tired debates between Left and Right comes from one of the oldest and most relevant strains of the Judeo Christian tradition The writers and topics gathered here offer a rich feast for the mind and heart including moving personal narratives meditations on the role of faith in public life and reflections on environmentalism abortion biotechnology and the arts The Sixties and Beyond Nancy Christie, Stephen J. Heathorn, Michael Gauvreau, 2013-03-07 In the decades following the Second World War North America and Western Europe experienced widespread secularization and dechristianization many scholars have pinpointed the 1960s as a pivotally important period in this decline The Sixties and Beyond examines the scope and significance of dechristianization in the western world between 1945 and 2000 A thematically wide ranging and interdisciplinary collection The Sixties and Beyond uses a framework that compares the social and cultural experiences of North America and Western Europe during this period The internationally based contributors examine the dynamic place of Christianity in both private lives and public discourses and practices by assessing issues such as gender relations family life religious education the changing relationship of church and state and the internal dynamics of religious organizations The Sixties and Beyond is an excellent contribution to the burgeoning scholarship on the 1960s as well as to the history of Christianity in the western world Handbook of the Theosophical Current Olav Hammer, Mikael Rothstein, 2013-01-09 This title represents pioneering research into an important but under researched current The three sections in the book are devoted to the Theosophical Society Theosophically influenced religious currents and the interaction between Theosophy and surrounding culture God and Religion in the Postmodern World David Ray Griffin, 1989-01-01 Addressed to readers who have found liberal theology empty or who believe that one cannot be religious and fully rational and empirical at the same time Apologetics, Mission and New Religious Movements: A Holistic Approach Philip Johnson,2010-07-11 It is this search for balance and his real desire to speak into living situations that sets Johnson's work apart from earlier studies of cults and new religions At the same time his work is innovative in other ways My Revision Notes: AQA A-level Sociology Laura Pountney,2017-02-27 Target success in AQA A level Sociology with this proven formula for effective structured revision Key content coverage is combined with exam style tasks and practical tips to create a revision guide that students can rely on to review strengthen and test their knowledge With My Revision Notes every student can Plan and manage a successful revision programme using the topic by topic planner Consolidate subject knowledge by working through clear and focused content coverage Test understanding and identify areas for improvement with regular Now Test Yourself tasks and answers Improve exam technique through practice questions expert tips and examples of typical mistakes to avoid My Revision Notes AQA A level Sociology includes all compulsory topics as well as the optional topics Families and households and Beliefs in society

Stress in Ministry Ernest Dixon Murrah Jr.,2017-06-14 If you are in ministry of any kind this book can help you The book is basically the compilation of experience gained from ministering to some one thousand ministerial couples from some twenty different denominations and six countries during over one hundred Stress In The Ministry conferences These conferences were week long conferences designed to help ministers avoid and or deal with stress and prevent burnout The book discusses the causes and cures of stress in ministry Stress is good for you but distress is bad and can be fatal not only for the minister but also for the ministry Sacred Suicide Carole M. Cusack,2016-04-08 The label Suicide Cults has been applied to a wide variety of different alternative religions from Jonestown to the Solar Temple to Heaven's Gate Additionally observers have asked if such group suicides are in any way comparable to Islamist suicide terrorism or to historical incidents of mass suicide such as the mass suicide of the ancient community of Masada Organizationally and ideologically diverse it turns out that the primary shared trait of these various groups is a common stereotype of religion as an irrational force that pushes fanatics to undertake acts of suicidal violence Offering a valuable perspective on New Religious Movements and on religion and violence Sacred Suicide brings together contributions from a diverse range of international scholars of sociology religious studies and criminology Handbook of Religion Terry C. Muck,Harold A. Netland,Gerald R.

McDermott,2014-11-04 This comprehensive handbook provides a Christian perspective on religion and its many manifestations around the world Written by top religion scholars from a broad spectrum of Christianity it introduces world religions indigenous religious traditions and new religious movements Articles explore the relationship of other religions to Christianity providing historical perspective on past encounters and highlighting current issues The book also contains articles by adherents of non Christian religions offering readers an insider's perspective on various religions and their encounters with Christianity Maps timelines and sidebars are included Religious Identities and the Global South Felix Wilfred,2021-01-04 This book offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of religious identities in the Global South

Drawing on literature in various fields Felix Wilfred analyzes how religious identities intersect with the processes of globalization modernity and postmodernity He illustrates how the study of religion in the Global North often revolves around questions of secularism and fundamentalism whereas a neo Orientalist quality often attends study of religion in the Global South These approaches and theorizing fail to incorporate the experiences of lived religion in the South especially in Asia Historically the religions in the South have played a highly significant role in resistance to the domination by the colonial forces an important reason for the continued attachment of the peoples of the South to their religious universe This book puts the two regions and their scholarly norms in conversation with one another exploring the social political cultural and economic implications The Origins of the Bahá'í Community of Canada, 1898-1948 Will C. van den

Hoonaard,2010-10-30 What binds together Louis Riel s former secretary a railroad inventor a Montreal comedienne an early proponent of Canada s juvenile system and a prominent Canadian architect Socialists suffragists musicians artists from 1898 to 1948 these and some 550 other individual Canadian Bah s helped create a movement described as the second most widespread religion in the world Using diaries memoirs official reports private correspondence newspapers archives and interviews Will C van den Hoonaard has created the first historical account of Bah s in Canada In addition The Origins of the Bah Community of Canada 1898 1948 clearly depicts the dynamics and the struggles of a new religion in a new country This is a story of modern spiritual heroes people who changed the lives of others through their devotion to the Bah ideals in particular to the belief that the earth is one country and all of humankind are its citizens Thirty nine original photographs effectively depict persons and events influencing the growth of the Bah movement in Canada The Origins of the Bah Community of Canada 1898 1948 makes an original contribution to religious history in Canada and provides a major sociological reference tool as well as a narrative history that can be used by scholars and Bah s alike for many years to come

Handbook of Religion and the Authority of Science James R. Lewis,Olav Hammer,2010-11-19 The present collection examines the many different ways in which religions appeal to the authority of science The result is a wide ranging and uniquely compelling study of how religions adapt their message to the challenges of the contemporary world American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 8:1 Imaduddin Khalil,Mona Abul-Fadl,Ilyas Ba-Yunus,Victor Danner,Mazen Hashem,Saa'deka Arebi ,Zaidi Sattar, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Religions of Modernity Stef Aupers,Dick Houtman,2010-07-07 Religions of Modernity challenges the social scientific orthodoxy that once unleashed the modern forces of individualism science and technology inevitably erode the sacred and evoke the profane The book s chapters some by established scholars others by junior researchers document instead in rich empirical detail how modernity relocates the sacred to the deeper layers of the self and the domain of digital technology Rather than destroying the sacred tout court then the cultural logic of modernization spawns its own religious meanings unacknowledged spiritualities and magical enchantments The classical theoretical accounts of modernity by Max Weber Emile Durkheim and others it is argued in the introductory chapter already hinted that there s a future for such religions of modernity Contributors Stef Aupers Kelly Besecke Kirsten Marie Bovbjerg Siobhan Chandler Olav Hammer Dick Houtman Murray Lee Carly Machado Karen P rna Adam Possamai Linda Woodhead and Dorien Zandbergen Religion and Everyday Life Stephen Hunt,2013-01-11 This introductory text explores the historical and contemporary relevance of religion to social life through an examination of practice and belief Author Hunt reconsiders how theories and concepts are lived at the level of selfhood and cultural identity through religious and spiritual belief At the same time he looks at contemporary changes in religious life and how these are impacted by socialization institutional belonging and belief and at the significance of class gender age and ethnicity Individual chapters cover a range of issues such as religion identity and community secularization and pluralism traditional Christianity change and continuity globalization and the global context religion and ethnicity The text challenges much current sociological thought and deals with contemporary Christianity a range of world faiths and new and developing expressions of religion and spirituality With tables and diagrams to illustrate key points and trends it provides an accessible and captivating introduction to the sociology of religion Blessed Are Those Who Ask the Questions J. Goosby Smith,Erin D. Renslow,2021-04-01 Today s organizational environment is characterized by high levels of cross cultural cross national and cross religious communication conflict collaboration and commerce This environment produces myriad encounters between individuals who embrace different ideologies religions and spiritual practices As such unanswered and even unasked questions about management spirituality and religion abound This book seeks to advance our understanding by asking the big questions Blessed are Those Who Ask the Questions What Should We be Asking About Management Spirituality and Religion in Organizations is intended to be provocative in nature Its chapters address novel ways that leadership organizations and organizational stakeholders mutually impact each other by their similarities and differences in religious spiritual and ideological traditions cultures and practices Interdisciplinary in nature and firmly grounded in scholarly literature this book identifies and maps out bold new trajectories for advancing the study of management spirituality and religion including but going far beyond Western Christian conceptualizations of religion Sometimes universal sometimes quite specific this volume identifies unexplored underexplored or unresolved issues in the field and proposes new streams of research Diverse conceptual empirical theoretical and critical treatments that honor a variety of inquiry styles and research methods push the boundaries of MSR research Teaching Religion and Healing Linda L. Barnes,Inés Talamantez,2006-10-26 Publisher description Historicizing "Tradition" in the Study of Religion Steven Engler,Gregory Price Grieve,2012-02-13 This collection of essays analyzes tradition as a category in the historical and comparative study of religion The book questions the common assumption that tradition is simply the passing down or imitation of prior practices and discourses It begins from the premise that many traditions are at least in part social fabrications often deliberately serving particular ideological ends Individual chapters examine a wide variety of historical periods and religions Congolese Buddhist Christian Confucian Cree Esoteric Hawaiian Hindu Islamic Jewish New Religious Movement and Shinto Different sections of the book consider tradition s relation to three sets of issues legitimation and authority agency and identity modernity and the West
