New Scripture Way Of The Cross:

The New Scripture Way of the Cross Bill Huebsch, William Huebsch, 1993-01-31 Praying the Stations booklets are tailored to a specific audience and can be used year after year These booklets are appropriate for group and or individual use

The New Stations of the Cross Megan McKenna, 2007-12-18 One of today's most popular and respected Catholic writers presents the first guide to the new Stations of the Cross reflecting the revisions made by Pope John Paul II A traditional devotion for Catholics for more than four hundred years the Stations of the Cross commemorates the route Jesus traveled from being sentenced to death crucified and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of Jerusalem In the past the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion but not mentioned in the Gospels Over the past eight years however Pope John Paul II has made substantial changes to the devotion in his Good Friday celebrations of the stations removing those not found in the Bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of Christ's passion The revised Stations of the Cross focuses on the condemned Jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross Unrelieved by stories like Veronica's wiping blood off the face of Jesus and his meeting with his mother this is a story of an execution The new stations deal directly with the pain suffering betrayal and injustice to which Jesus was subjected In explaining his reasons for revising the stations the Pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the Scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship In this helpful authoritative guide Megan McKenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that Pope John Paul II uses on Good Friday She also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present day Catholics and Episcopalians

Walking the Way of the Cross Stephen Cottrell, Paula Gooder, Philip North, 2019-10-30 Found in Common Worship Times and Seasons The Way of the Cross is a series of scripture based devotions for personal or group use in Lent and Holy Week Similar in intent to the traditional Stations of the Cross it focuses wholly on the biblical narrative of the passion death and resurrection of Jesus This seasonal companion provides the sequence of fifteen meditations appears in full including opening and concluding prayers Each is accompanied by three short reflections from different perspectives by three of today's very best spiritual writers Paula Gooder offers reflections on the scriptural narratives Stephen Cottrell considers the story from the perspective of personal discipleship Philip North explores the story's challenge to mission and witness

The Way of the Cross Joel B. Green, 2009-05-01 Jesus has always invited and challenged his disciples to follow him in the way of redemptive suffering the way of the cross This according to Joel Green is the very heart of Mark's gospel It is also the heart of discipleship today In six engaging chapters Green shows how Mark unfolds the drama of Jesus's mission to suffer for others how this mission was not initially understood by the first disciples and how all this can transform our own understanding of the call to follow Each chapter deepens our sense of the integrity of Mark and challenges us to follow Jesus in our own practice of discipleship and experience with suffering today The Way of the Cross is for individuals and groups who are serious about Bible study and about the relevance of such study to their lives Each chapter concludes with a set of questions for reflection and discussion Guarding the Gospel: Bible, Cross and Mission Zondervan,2010-02-23 Drawing on papers from the landmark 2003 National Evangelical Anglican Congress Guarding the Gospel deepens and expands the topics covered by its counterpart Fanning the Flame This book contains the groundbreaking material written specially for the occasion focused on the theme of the Congress Bible Cross and Mission Guarding the Gospel maintains that The Bible is our boundary beyond which we will not stray and up to which we must live The Cross is our centre from which everything we believe and do flows Mission is our task to which we are all committed Guarding the Gospel is a compendium of insights addressing a broad array of topics and concerns facing evangelical Anglicans today Its contributors all speakers at the 2003 NEAC include the following Canon Dr Christina Baxter Rt Revd Wallace Benn Rt Revd Graham Cray Ven Dr Paul Gardner Revd Chris Green Most Revd and Rt Hon Dr David Hope Professor Edith M Humphrey Most Revd Dr Peter Jensen Rt Revd James Jones Revd Professor Alistair McGrath Revd Professor David Peterson Revd Vaughan Roberts Canon Professor Anthony C Thiselton Revd Dr Chris Wright Professor Gordon J Wenham Most Revd and Rt Hon Dr Rowan Williams The Science of the Cross Saint Edith Stein,Josephine Koepfel OCD,2002-03-10 To help celebrate the fourth centenary of the birth of St John of the Cross in 1542 Edith Stein received the task of preparing a study of his writings She uses her skill as a philosopher to enter into an illuminating reflection on the difference between the two symbols of cross and night Pointing out how entering the night is synonymous with carrying the cross she provides a condensed presentation of John s thought on the active and passive nights as discussed in The Ascent of Mount Carmel and The Dark Night All of this leads Edith to speak of the glory of resurrection that the soul shares through a unitive contemplation described chiefly in The Living Flame of Love In the summer of 1942 the Nazis without warrant took Edith away The nuns found the manuscript of this profound study lying open in her room Leadership in the Way of the Cross Sherwood G. Lingenfelter,2018-05-16 This book is for people who are serious about leading people men and women who have accepted big challenges who have passed through the fire of tough decisions who have acknowledged they at times have failed and have recovered for the next challenge but do not want to repeat the past The thesis of the book is that the journey of leadership takes us deep into the dangers of both authority and risk and our attempts to avoid one or the other of these dangers will precipitate crisis As a leader who desires to flourish it is critical to ask is anyone following And are we following Jesus as we invite others to follow us In this book I invite you into my journey and the journeys of other ministry leaders through the deep waters of crisis and the challenge of learning to lead so that people are following This process begins with self discovery disclosing default habits fears and hungers followed by trusting the Holy Spirit to work God s transformation within us and then to engaging the hard work of mobilizing his body the people of God so that every part is doing his work Scriptural Way of the Cross FR ADRIAN. GRAFFY,2020-02-14 The

Stations of the Cross devotion meditating on Jesus's journey to Calvary is loved by Catholics around the world. In this new set of meditations, Scripture scholar Fr. Adrian Graffy begins each station with a passage from the Bible helping the reader to reflect more deeply on the suffering of Christ. Each passage of Scripture is followed by a short prayer addressed to Jesus and linked to the particular station. An invitation to further prayer concludes each station. The Art of Reading Scripture Ellen F. Davis, Richard B. Hays, 2003-10-02. The difficulty of interpreting the Bible is felt all over today. Is the Bible still authoritative for the faith and practice of the church? If so, in what way? What practices of reading offer the most appropriate approach to understanding Scripture? The church's lack of clarity about these issues has hindered its witness and mission, causing it to speak with an uncertain voice to the challenges of our time. This important book is for a twenty-first century church that seems to have lost the art of reading the Bible attentively and imaginatively. The Art of Reading Scripture is written by a group of eminent scholars and teachers seeking to recover the church's rich heritage of biblical interpretation in a dramatically changed cultural environment. Asking how best to read the Bible in a postmodern context, the contributors together affirm up front Nine Theses that provide substantial guidance for the church. The essays and sermons that follow both amplify and model the approach to Scripture outlined in the Nine Theses. Lucidly conceived, carefully written, and shimmering with fresh insights, The Art of Reading Scripture proposes a far-reaching revolution in how the Bible is taught in theological seminaries and calls pastors and teachers in the church to rethink their practices of using the Bible. Contributors: Gary A. Anderson, Richard Bauckham, Brian E. Daley, Ellen F. Davis, Richard B. Hays, James C. Howell, Robert W. Jenson, William Stacy Johnson, L. Gregory Jones, Christine McSpadden, R. W. L. Moberly, David C. Steinmetz, Marianne Meye Thompson.

Understanding the Mystery of the Cross Mike Beecham, 2011-06. As a Christian, why do you wear a cross? That single question sparked a fire in Mike Beecham to understand why the dominant symbol of Christianity was the instrument of Jesus's death. His passion led him to a lifelong pursuit to better understand the deeper meanings, symbolisms, and complexities of the cross. In Understanding the Mystery of the Cross, Mike Beecham shares his discoveries regarding the connection between the original fall of man and Jesus's crucifixion, the multifaceted purpose of the cross, the ramifications of Jesus's crucifixion, today's irrational contempt for the cross in modern society, and the symbolic nature of the cross. Through Scripture and the knowledge gained from years of biblical research, Mike Beecham will guide you to a better appreciation of the cross. This book will give you greater insight into what Jesus sacrificed at his crucifixion. You will have a better sense of everything that the cross truly symbolizes. You will gain knowledge on your purpose as a Christian that can only be found by Understanding the Mystery of the Cross. John the Theologian and his Paschal Gospel John Behr, 2019-02-07. This study brings three different kinds of readers of the Gospel of John together with the theological goal of understanding what is meant by Incarnation and how it relates to Pascha, the Passion of Christ, how this is conceived of as revelation, and how we speak of it. The first group of readers are the Christian writers from the early centuries, some of whom such as Irenaeus of

Lyons stood in direct continuity through Polycarp of Smyrna with John himself In exploring these writers John Behr offers a glimpse of the figure of John and the celebration of Pascha which held to have started with him The second group of readers are modern scriptural scholars from whom we learn of the apocalyptic dimensions of John s Gospel and the way in which it presents the life of Christ in terms of the Temple and its feasts With Christ s own body finally erected on the Cross being the true Temple in an offering of love rather than a sacrifice for sin An offering in which Jesus becomes the flesh he offers for consumption the bread which descends from heaven so that incarnation is not an event now in the past but the embodiment of God in those who follow Christ in the present The third reader is Michel Henry a French Phenomenologist whose reading of John opens up further surprising dimensions of this Gospel which yet align with those uncovered in the first parts of this work This thought provoking work brings these threads together to reflect on the nature and task of Christian theology

The Herald of the Cross. N.s ,1907 A Theology of Cross and Kingdom D. K. Matthews,2019 Luther s theology of the cross has impacted major theologians and centuries of theology including the present and yet it is weakened by its reactionary theological determinism reductionism and understandable failure to properly integrate fluid melioristic and pro creation kingdom eschatology N T Wright s revolutionary cross articulated in The Day the Revolution Began Reconsidering the Meaning of Jesus s Crucifixion is a brilliant and clarion new creation eschatological call to action that suffers from a somewhat cryptic imprecise and unrefined eschatology Heino O Kadai has presented an authoritative and concise rendering of Luther s key insights Rustin Brian has carefully assessed whether Luther s theology of the cross deserves blame for the Deus absconditus of modernity in his Barthian influenced Covering Up Luther Robert Cady Saler has masterfully articulated a relevant and pastoral Theologia Crucis framed by Moltmann s Theology of Hope that is most applicable to the contemporary church and sociopolitical engagement A Theology of Cross and Kingdom sympathetically and creatively critiques and synthesizes dominant themes in such classical and contemporary theologies of the cross within a unified cross and kingdom eschatology Matthews deftly overcomes many of the less than helpful disjunctive approaches to the theology of the cross while proffering a way forward for this most influential and core theological treasure of the church
